

District Scout Troops Invited For Skillorama

All Boy Scout troops in the Hillsboro district have been invited to march in the street parade which will be a feature of the annual Boy Scout "Skillorama" two-day event starting tomorrow (Friday) in Portland, according to local scout officials.

Among the 101 booths which have been built in the Portland civic auditorium to show scouting in its many forms will be a pigeon-raising merit badge booth of the Hillsboro troop, No. 247. Insofar as is known, this will be the only booth of any troop in this district.

On the "Skillorama" program is a vaudeville show of seven acts and a number of feature stunts. Advance ticket sales have been large and a record attendance is expected, according to officials in charge of the two-day event.

Every Motorist Effected by Code

Every motorist in Oregon will be affected by the 1939 vehicle code amendment according to the legal department of the Oregon State Motor association. The new law calls for the re-testing of Oregon drivers at least once every four years.

Important points of the law outlined by the motor association are:

1. Licenses now held will expire in 1941 and may be renewed for a two-year period (until 1943). But before the 1943 renewal can be made, the automobile operator's examination must have been taken.
2. Licenses will continue on a two-year basis—renewal to be made in 1941, 1943, 1945, etc. But the examinations must be passed every four years. Thus a man might get his 1941 license without an examination; take an examination for his 1943 license; get the 1945 license without an examination; must have an examination for his 1947 license.
3. There is no charge for the examinations. Drivers may be given the examinations at any time upon application at the license bureau.
4. Drivers are warned, however, that failure to pass the examination when it is taken may mean the suspension of their permits. No one should take the examination without carefully preparing himself by studying the pamphlet—"Operator Manual" which is supplied free by the secretary of state's office. Copies are available at the Oregon State Motor association headquarters.

Benefit Party at Laurel Hall Saturday for Victims of Fire

LAUREL—A benefit program and dance will be given at the community hall here Saturday night for the Peter Klein family who lost their buildings by fire last week. A thirty-minute play will be given by Farmington folk and the Dairy Co-operative association men's chorus will give several numbers. Everyone welcome and urged to attend. Cards may be played by those who wish.

Mrs. Elsie Ankrom of Marshfield is at the J. H. Felton home as housekeeper.

Wild orchids (lady slippers) have been quite plentiful this year. The supposition is that the mild winter was responsible. Several groups of folks from here have made excursions into the woods for the dainty beauties.

Fishermen from this section have been having "good luck" on their report especially with salmon fishing at Oregon City.

See Fox in Yard

A fox was seen by the Leon Davis family in their barn yard one morning last week. The chickens were being disturbed but when Davis emerged from the house with a gun the animal disappeared into the woods. A small flock of turkeys had been molested until they had taken refuge at a neighbors house some distance away. The supposition is that the fox is the same one that has been seen in the Farmington section at intervals during the past year.

Spraying for walnut blight was begun in some orchards this week.

Family Moves

Mrs. Fred Mosner and two children were moved Saturday to the

Roy Mosner home at Kinton, where they will reside in a tenant house and she will be in charge of the place while the owners are employed away from home. Fred Mosner is in the Veterans' hospital receiving treatment for complications following a severe cold.

J. W. Mulloy has just finished grubbing an eight-acre piece of land which lies south and west of the Dailey home. Old-timers will remember the place as part of the Bob Stevenson place. The ground is now ready for the plow and John plans to plant corn on the swale part and some potatoes and pasture grass on the higher ground.

Dale Coolidge of Portland is with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George Rowaver, this week.

Miss Marjorie Will entertained with a party at her home Sunday evening, complimenting Albert Lillegard. About twenty young people attended.

Mrs. Elbert Stevens and Mrs. Clara Shaw, whose birthday anniversaries occur in April, entertained the Ladies' Social club with a skit "So What's the Use" at the regular meeting held with Mrs. Fred Schmidt last Wednesday. The entertainers were assisted by Mrs. Elsie Stevens of Hillsboro, Mrs. Ted Rutschman and Mrs. Amos Watkins. Club members were almost 100 per cent present. Next meeting will be with Mrs. Jacob Schmidt May 22.

Several club members met with Mrs. Rollin Meyers Thursday and tacked a wool comforter for the Peter Klein family.

Henry and Walter Reese are putting in about 2000 feet of tile on the south side of their place.

Mr. and Mrs. Raleigh Whitmore are setting out an acreage of black-cap berries on their place.
