

Grade School Band, Orchestra in Concert

The Hillsboro grade school band and orchestra, composed of some 50 pieces, is planning a public concert on the court house lawn at 7:30 p. m. next Wednesday. This concert brings to a close a school year of active work on the part of the band and orchestra. The band has done its practicing faithfully each week since the beginning of the school year and now wishes to demonstrate to the public what it can do.

Almost half of the band were new to the organization last September but by this time feel some competency in making a public appearance. Warren Elliott, who has had charge of intermediate music for the past two years, announces the following numbers to be played next Wednesday evening:

Band—"On the Meadow," Gernau; "Lead On," J. Sereby; "Our School," I. Cheyette; "Pilgrim's Chorus" from Tanhauser, R. Wagner; "B. W. Barnes March," Elliotts.

Orchestra—"Goin' Home," Dvorak; "March Slav," Tschakovsky; "Overture," Eastern World, Arr. C. Weber; "Merry Widow," F. Lehár; "Reminiscences of the Opera," Arr. C. Weber.

Initiation Held

A large delegation from Hillsboro attended the Knights of Columbus initiation at McMinnville Sunday under direction of district deputy A. H. Abta. Twelve candidates were initiated. A banquet was held that evening in the chamber of commerce rooms. Candidates from Hillsboro were Vincent Vandenberg, Robert Hoesacker, Jerry Fahy, George Vanhandel and William Halpin.

Church Invites

The public is being invited to eat dinner at the Methodist church Friday evening, May 10, from 5:30 to 7:30 o'clock as a special Mother's Day feature of the church. Mothers and daughters, fathers and sons are especially urged to attend.

Attend Funeral—

Mrs. R. L. Putnam received word Tuesday that her uncle, Henry Porter, of Aumsville had died. Mr. Porter was ninety years of age, the son of a pioneer family of that community. The funeral service is this afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Christian church in Aumsville of which Mr. Porter has been a member. Sunday school superintendent and elder for over 60 years, R. L. Putnam, Christian minister of Hillsboro, is in charge of the service.

Miss James Returns—

Miss Martha James returned Sunday from a two weeks' vacation in Washington, Wyoming and California. While at White Swan, Wash., she visited Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Rice, in Cheyenne with Mrs. Bert Bergerson and family and at Los Angeles with her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Roach.

Council Churches Asked to Cooperate At Migrant Camp

A meeting of importance to the churches of the county was held Monday evening at the Central Christian church of Hillsboro by the County Council of Churches. It was "Youth Night" and nearly 100 adults and youth from the various churches were present for the pot-luck dinner and program beginning at 6:45 o'clock. Max Reicher, council president, presided.

Joe King, representative of Federal Farm Security Administration, presented facts concerning the new mobile migrant camp to be established near Beaverton May 10. The council has been requested to assume responsibility for the social and religious services of the camp.

A special migrant camp committee was appointed with Mrs. H. Bartlett of Forest Grove as chairman. Other members of the committee are Mrs. Ray Miller, Forest Grove; Lawrence Bamford, Hillsboro; Mrs. Orval Hutchins, Forest Grove; Mrs. H. Jensen, Banks; Mrs. D. Chamberlain, North Plains; Orvis Brown, Hillsboro; Mrs. Kenneth Cole, Hillsboro.

A nominating committee, was also appointed as follows: William Ebert, Forest Grove; Rodney Cummings, Hillsboro and Mrs. Ed Bergin, Beaverton.

Chief speaker of the evening was Donald Dauris of Salem who spoke on "New Friends in Old Countries." Mr. Dauris attended the World Scout Jamboree and also the Christian Youth Conference in Amsterdam. During the trip he met many young of the world and has since carried on private correspondence with these friends. He has become an enthusiastic advocate of international good-will through personal acquaintance. He had many pictures and exhibits of his experiences to show. Arthur Yoeman, Forest Grove, was program chairman.

Next meeting will be in June. Time and place of meeting has been left to judgment of the executive committee.

Musical Concert Promises Treats

Songs of unusual interest for all types of music lovers is the promise of the Tualatin Singers for their annual spring concert. Songs ranging from a Beethoven classic "Moonlight Sonata" to the modern "De Rose" "Deep Purple" is expected to run the gamut of musical tastes to a successful season's conclusion.

A touch of interest is added through the participation of the trio composed of Mesdames Gardner, Enschede and Faber; violin solo by Marjoris Tyler; piano solo by Byrle Ramp and tenor solos by Lorraine Doss.

This program will be given in the high school auditorium May 24 at 8 p. m.
