

Tualatin Singers in Concert Here Friday

Annual spring concert of the Tualatin Singers, under the direction of Lorraine Dossett, will be presented in the Hillsboro Union high school auditorium Friday night, beginning at 8 o'clock. Byrle Ramp will be accompanist.

A host of music lovers have been eagerly awaiting this spring concert as the highly enthusiastic audiences of the last two years were outstanding in their praise of past performances. Many frankly admitted that they had come through sense of duty, yet had remained to thoroughly enjoy the program.

It is with a view of singing to these patrons of choral performance, that the program has been selected this year. The diversity of performance and performers is designed to please the most cosmopolitan audience, it is pointed out, and the sponsors feel that Friday night's concert will be outstanding for all music lovers.

Mr. Dossett and Mr. Ramp will be assisted by the Aeolian trio, which includes Mesdames W. W. Gardner, Ben Faber and W. J. Enschede and Mrs. Marjorie Tyler on the violin. Mrs. A. E. Griffith is business manager.

Program is as follows: "Morning" by Speaks, "Dark Eyes," Russian folk song, and "Deep Purple" by De Rose, all by the Tualatin Singers; "My Friend," "Lullaby," "Twilight," "Dobson," "E. Lucevan Le Stelle," "Puccini," all by Lorraine Dossett, tenor; "Go Down Moses," traditional, "Ho-La-La," Luvaas, and "De Battle of Jericho," traditional, all by the Tualatin Singers; "Elegy," Massenet, "Giannina mia," Friml-Rieger, and "Sweethearts," Herbert, by Aeolian trio; "Rondo Capriccioso," Mendelssohn, and "Caprice Viennois," Krieger, by Byrle Ramp, pianist; First Movement of Concerto No. IX, Charles Debussy, and "Poem," Zdenko Fibich, by Marjorie Tyler, violinist, and Jessie Sewell, accompanist; "Moonlight Sonata," Beethoven, "Estrellita," Ponce, "Dear Land of Home," Si-belius, "Come to the Fair," Martin, by the Tualatin Singers.

Proclamation

The state organization of the Veterans of Foreign Wars and the American Legion and Auxiliaries having set aside May 24th and 25th as the days for the annual "Poppy Sales," I hereby authorize the sales of poppies for those days in the city of Hillsboro, and earnestly ask our citizens to aid in this grand work. These poppies are made by the disabled veterans in the Portland Facility, and mean an opportunity for these disabled heroes to make a little money for their needs; after the costs of the poppies are covered the balance is used by the veteran organizations for relief work, and we should all show our appreciation of the sacrifices made by our veterans for their country, and contribute liberally for this good cause. Let us make this a banner year in the observance of "Poppy Days."—Anna L. Wells, acting mayor.
