Fire Destroys Cornelius Home; Firemen Make Exceptional Run

CORNELIUS — The home of Mr. and Mrs. S. Vermilyea, living a mile northwest of town, was destroyed by fire Friday afternoon. Within 7 1/2 minutes from the time the alarm was turned in the firemen had made the mile run, struck home for about 40 rods and had water on the building. Some of the front room and bedroom furniture was saved.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Tupper accompanied Mr. and Mrs. John Kovaly to Stayton Monday, where they attended the funeral of Bud Fisher of Hillsboro, salesman for the Standard Oil company.

Rent Place
Mr. and Mrs. Earl Straughan, who came from Oxford, Kans., two weeks ago to make Oregon their home, have rented the Sinclair place at the east end of 7th street.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hall of Tacoma, Wash., spent the week-end with Mrs. Hall's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Straughan.

Mr. and Mrs. James Wilson of Portland were week-end guests and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Wilson of Oswego were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. John VanLom.

Mrs. Wilcox Returns
Mrs. Maude B. Wilcox returned last Friday from Morris, Minn., where she had spent the winter with her sister, Mrs. S. G. Stebbins. En route she visited relatives at Grand Forks, N. D., and another sister, Mrs. S. P. Strout, Mrs. Wilcox left here last September. She will stay in Portland for awhile.

Miss Evelyn Reed of Portland, formerly the 5th and 6th grade teacher in the grade school here, came out to attend the graduation of the last class she taught here. While in town she was a dinner guest of

Walther League Fellowship Eve Set Schefflin

SCHIEFFLIN — Annual nationwide fellowship evening of the Walther League will be observed by the local group in the parish hall Thursday (tonight) beginning at 7 o'clock. This is the 47th anniversary of the founding of the Walther League, but there is an added meaning this year, since the twenty-fifth anniversary of Zion Young People's Society, originally known as the Luther League, will be observed at the same time. The committee in charge announces that a banquet will be served. An attempt is being made to have all charter members of the Young People's society present, or if that is impossible, to have a communication from those unable to attend.

Tom Owen spent four days over Mother's Day with his wife and children Junior, Mary, Frederick and Bean of Lyons. He has been employed on the R. J. Schwanke farm for the past six months.

Pupils Finish At High School

McKINLEY-ELMONICA — Six of the 90 members of the graduating class at Beaverton high school last Thursday night were from this community. They were Jean Berger, Doris Egman, Fred (Jack) Courtwright, William Moschovsky, Eldon Jenne and Calvin Lehman. Five were represented on the program. Doris Egman talked on commerce, Eldon Jenne on physical education and William Moschovsky on music.

While Calvin Lehman gave a trumpet solo and Jean Berger was one of the accompanists.

Wins Scholarship
William Moschovsky won a gold trophy and choice of two scholarships, either at Multnomah college or the University of Oregon, for scoring highest in point of scholarship during his four years at Beaverton. These awards besides the pan for outstanding work etc., which was presented to a number of the class, Jean Berger also received one of these prizes. The community is proud of these young people.

Mrs. Albert Kahrl was taken with nose bleed one day last week, which lasted for about two hours. She is suffering no ill effects from the hemorrhage which was thought to be after effects of a flu cold.

Wins Game
McKinley school played softball last Friday with Barnes school and won 16 to 12.

Valentine Salzgeber has given his barn a new roof.

Jack Courtwright has been employed in the meat shop of the Kienow store in Portland.

School Closes Today
McKinley school is closing Thursday (today) with a picnic.

Savings & Loan Installs Machines
Remodeling program to provide room for the installation of book-keeping machines is now under way in the Savings & Loan building. The new equipment will enter the record of deposits or withdrawals on the customer's pass book and ledger sheet, eliminating all chance of human error.

Automobile Industry Good
With the exception of 1929, January, February and March of this year were the best first quarter in the automobile industry's history, according to W. R. McDonald, Portland, director of the Oregon State Motor Association. Factory sales of automobiles and trucks totaled 1,310,234 during these three months. This was an increase of 23 per cent over the same period in 1939.
