Most of his elective and appointed officers were present, also J. P. Watts, grand master of the Grand Lodge, and Mrs. Vernisha Newby, president of the Rebekah Assembly of Oregon. Several past presidents of the Rebekah Assembly and past grand masters were also in attendance.

Best wishes, flowers and gifts were received from the different branches of the order. Following a program and speeches, dancing was enjoyed by everyone and refreshments were served by the committee. Miss Wilson Bride Of Leander Barrett

Miss Ruth Irene Wilson, daughter of Mrs. Edward Wilson, became the bride of Leander R. Barrett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Barrett of Forest Grove at an impressive ceremony at the Congregational church Sunday, June 2, at 4 o'clock. Rev. Henry G. Dickman of Bethany performed the ceremony before a gathering of friends and relatives.

The bride was lovely in fitted gown of white satin with a long train. Her full veil was made with a halo and held in place with the wreath of orange blossoms worn by her sister at her wedding. The bride's bouquet was all white of carnations, roses, larkspur and gypsophila with showers of white sweet peas.

Her sister, Mrs. Dwight C. Hult of Canby, was matron of honor. She wore a dress of blue lace with matching small veil and carried an arm bouquet of pink snapdragons and larkspur. The flower girls were Nancy and Evelyn Hult, nieces of the bride. They wore quaint little tiptoe frocks of blue embroidered organza with long pink satin sashes and ribbons. They carried tiny colonial bouquets of pink sweet peas and roses.

Keith Wilcox acted as best man. Ushers were Gilbert Haller and Dean Branan of Forest Grove.

Mrs. Jesse Foster played the violin, accompanied by Mr. Foster, preceding the ceremony. Jesse Foster sang "All For You" and "I Love You Truly." Mrs. Faye Hult played the wedding march from Mendelssohn.

The bride was given in marriage by her mother.

Following the ceremony a reception which eighty guests attended was held at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. John Wisner cut the wedding cake. Mrs. John Schmidt, in suit of the bride, and Mrs. Cora Galtley served the ices. Assisting around the rooms were Mrs. Keith Wilcox of Hillsboro, Mrs. Edwin Kreguer and Miss Evelyn Colfer of Portland, and Miss Dorothy Schmidt of Trout Lake, Wash.

For traveling Mrs. Barrett chose a black tailored coat with black hat and veil and white accessories. She wore a corsage of gardenias.

After a two-week wedding trip to British Columbia, Mr. and Mrs. Barrett will be at home at 432 South Second street.
