

Bible School Opens Aloha; Property Sold

ALOHA-HUBER — The vacation Bible School of the Community Baptist church opened last Monday with an enrollment of 30, and will continue two weeks. The teaching force consists of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Prink, Reverend and Mrs. B. Marcus Godwin, Helen Lindahl, Mrs. C. E. Riggs, Mrs. Noah Hill and Mary Antrim. Reverend Godwin is superintendent. The several departments of instruction are Bible teaching, memory verses, character stories, Bible drill and Bible stories. Each day the children are taught a triple salute—salute to the Stars and Stripes, salute to the Christian flag and salute to the Bible. Chorus singing by the children is an especially enjoyable feature.

The subject of next Sunday morning's sermon at the Community Baptist church is, "The Infallible Book."
