How About Boys In Back Room?

When Ona, Jersey cow on a Conemat, Ohio, farm, wants a drink, it's all very simple. She pumps the water herself. When her owner discovered Ona was a rugged individualist of the old school, he stanchioned her next to the pump. She raises and lowers the handle with her nose until her water bucket is full. Then she continues to pump as the bucket overflows, sends water down a trough for her pals in the barn.
