

B & P Club Honors Candidates for "Goddess"

"Goddess of Liberty" candidates were special guests of the Business and Professional Women's club Friday evening at the chamber of commerce room. This is an annual club event. Mrs. La Verne Fries, chairman of the Goddess committee, introduced the candidates and each received a corsage. Other guests were Mrs. Alma Elinger, "Goddess" of 1939 "Happy Days," Mrs. Rose Young of Portland and Mrs. Anne Avery, president-elect of the Portland Business and Professional Women's club.

Mrs. Mabel Grass presented Miss Lucille Fisher, retiring president, with a pin from the executive council, and Miss Fisher presented the club a guest book. A framed club creed, a gift from Mrs. Margaret Tackler, was presented to the club by Mrs. Lester Mooberry. Musical program included several vocal solos by Tom Baker and Mrs. V. J. Lohus of Aloha, each accompanied by Mrs. Jessie Sewell. Mrs. Eunice Kinnear led group singing, while Mrs. Avery, in costume, gave a number of humorous readings.

Picnic and business meeting will be held tonight (Thursday) at 6:30 in Shute park for election of officers and special reports. Members are asked to bring picnic service.
