Tualatin Singers Rehearsing for December Series

Plans are under way for a series of appearances in December, at least two of which will be before Portland audiences.

A new project this year is the encouragement of participation of younger singers. In consequence high school students may enroll for a fee of one-half the usual dues.

Rehearsals are being held each Thursday evening at 8 sharp in the Central Christian church under the direction of Lorraine Dossett. Anyone interested in singing and who would like to join this group is urged to come in this week, if possible, as a Christmas program is under way, which will be presented early in December.
