Lodge Sponsors Card Party at Cornelius Hall

CORNELIUS — Neighbors of Woodcraft will hold a card party, with 500 and pinochle, tonight (Thursday) in the city hall. Refreshments will be served and everyone is invited.

The Boy Scout troop met Monday night and decided to invite all the children of school age to a party Hallowe'en night. This was also Scout Master Leonard Melanson's birthday and the Scouts presented him with a box of cigars. Mr. and Mrs. Melanson invited all the boys at the meeting to their home after the meeting and served refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Ole Olson and family had as Sunday night supper party guests Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Miles Sr., Lee Miles and Mrs. Charles Miles, Joyce and Chuckie, all of Stevenson, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Lefley and daughters Dorothy and Wilma, of Dayton, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Berger of Dundee visited Mrs. Alice Berger Sunday afternoon. Charles Berger is Mrs. Alice Berger's grandson.

Standard Oil company is putting a new roof on its house, which is occupied by the Ole Olson family. Paul Senko has the contract and Kenneth Smith and Tony Miller are doing the work.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Senko, accompanied by Mrs. Hattie Williams and Clay Freeman, spent the week-end at the beach.

Mrs. A. M. Tillson, mother of Mrs. O. L. Barlow, slipped while mopping the kitchen floor last Friday and struck her arm on the hot kitchen range, receiving a severe burn from her hand to her elbow.

Mrs. Gloyd Hall accompanied her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Cleo Busch, on a 1224-mile auto trip to Bonneville dam, Walla Walla, Spokane, Boulder dam and Seattle.

Mrs. Perry Lathan of Blaine arrived last Friday evening for a week's visit with Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Cartwright and family.

Mrs. Lutie Mapes of Hillsboro and Mrs. Roy Cook spent Monday at Salem.

Ray, Ernie and Harvey Thompson and H. V. Jones drove to eastern Oregon Friday and hunted until Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Cooke celebrated their 30th wedding anniversary October 14 by taking a few days away from the farm and visiting friends and relatives in Portland. Their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Baker, and family gave a dinner in their honor and those from here who attended were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Beitelspach and Billie, William Cooke Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Brown of Forest Grove. Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Beitelspach are daughters of the Cooke's and William Jr. is a son.

Several local members in attendance at the rally have very interesting reports to bring. Members and friends are invited.

Freshmen Initiation Held at St. Mary's

ST. MARY'S HOME—Last Friday was a day set apart to victimize the freshmen class, but the boys emerged at the close more like heroes and gloom chasers. It was freshmen initiation day. When not engaged at their serious tasks, they pulled off some original and innocent fun that's going to be hard for succeeding classes to live up to. A dance was given for the class in the evening—and all were able to dance.

At St. Mary's a class is formed in public safety, under the instruction of the state traffic department. The course runs 15 weeks for high school boys from 15 up. This course ultimately prepares for application for automobile drivers' license.

Troop Inspected

Boy Scout Troop 278 will meet their new scoutmaster today (Thursday). He is sent out by the Knights of Columbus of Portland, who are backing the troop. Last Thursday the troop was inspected by Father Thelan of Cathedral Parish, Portland, district chaplain for Catholic Troops. A delegation from the K. of C. accompanied him to assist in the inspection.

Have Tank Use

The University of Portland offers the boys of St. Mary's the use of their swimming tank on Sunday afternoons during the winter months. Under the able supervision which goes with this boon, the Boy Scouts get, beside other advantages, excellent training in life saving.

Wedding Today

Miss Genevieve Sohler of North Plains and Raphel Kemper of Roy will be married in North Plains on October 24, Thursday (today). The ceremony takes place in St. Edward's Catholic church at 9 o'clock, Father James Maxwell officiating.

St. Mary's farm stock will be materially improved by the recent purchase of prize-winning pigs shown at the state fair and at the Pacific International stock show.

The corn harvesting job by the high school boys is over. Now they can recline at ease on the sidelines and root for the grade boys harvesting the spuds.

The November birthday calendar for St. Mary's appears as follows: Raymond Gerard, November 1, 13 years; Kenneth Gore, November 4, 10 years; Robert Castle, November 4, 15 years; Harold Hartmann, November 4, 12 years; Charles French, November 7, 15 years; Frank Knowles, November 8, 16 years; Raymond Taylor, November 13, 9 years; Peter Gillas, November 17, 10 years; David Houck, November 21, 11 years; Robert Coleman, November 22, 17 years; Floyd Sullinger, November 24, 13 years; John Pisan, November 25, 12 years.

Father Maxwell was master of ceremonies at the Fall Festival Benefit of St. Edward's Parish at the K. of P. hall in North Pains, Tuesday evening, October 22. A special stage show was put on by the boys of St. Mary's high school.
