Annual Praise Service Slated For Reedville

REEDVILLE—The annual Praise service of the Women's Missionary society will be held Wednesday evening, November 27. An interesting program has been prepared with Mrs. Luke Bleakney in charge. Everyone is invited to attend.

Banquet Well Attended

More than 40 attended the Father and Son banquet at the school house Friday evening. William Lindsay Sr., of Portland was guest speaker. A magician from the "Young Oregonians" provided entertainment. Table decorations carried out the Thanksgiving motif.

Delegates Named

A large group attended P.-T. A. Friday afternoon at the school house. Mrs. Oscar Hagg, Mrs. Jay Frost and Mrs. Charles Woolcock were named as delegates to County Council to be held at Forest Grove in January. Dr. Fred Messing of Portland was guest speaker on the theme of social hygiene. Preceding the meeting Dr. Messing spoke to separate groups of boys and girls in the classrooms. The group will not meet in December.

Carnival November 29

The carnival-vaudeville to be given at the school house November 29 will include 14 different booths which will dispense a variety of wares. Mrs. J. Frost is chairman of the carnival committee and Mrs. Harold Bergquam directs the vaudeville.

Frost Hits

Spring and summer flowers, which have been blooming all fall in local gardens, were killed by Thursday night's frost. Only the hardiest fall blossoms survived.

Mrs. Engebretsen Entertains

Mrs. Evans Engebretsen entertained a neighborhood group at her home Thursday afternoon. Guests were Mesdames Grant Brown, Roscoe Bennett, Edward Eggen, C. W. Harrison, B. F. Hinton, C. F. Tisdale and A. C. Taylor.

Play Given

Miss Thelma Graham, teacher of the third, fourth and fifth grades, presented a group of her pupils in a Thanksgiving play Friday. The play entitled "Making friends with the Indians," was written by Joan Wagenblast and portrayed a scene from early Pilgrim days. Colonial costumes were worn by the group. Small fir trees were used as decorations. The mothers were invited guests.

Kinton Club Helps Red Cross Sewing

KINTON — The Red Cross sewing club met Thursday at the Home Economic club room. There was a small attendance but quite a bit of work was done. Two comforters were tied, some machine work on layettes finished and several knitted articles were turned in. The Home Economics club held a short business meeting at the close of the Red Cross meeting.

Birthday Celebrated

Mrs. Bruce Bowne entertained Thursday night with a dinner in honor of Mr. Bowne's birthday. Guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Emery VanKleek and family.

Misses Grace Bowne and Dorothy VanKleek are spending the week in Portland. They have taken an apartment and are looking for work.

Mrs. Ed Jenkins of Aloha is at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Snider, convalescing from a recent operation.

School will be held the Friday after Thanksgiving at the Kinton school. This is necessary to make up time lost from a late start this fall.

Three new pupils were enrolled in the Kinton school this week. They were Sally DeHeart and Clyde Leachman in the second grade and Donna DeHeart in the fourth grade.

Emiko and Takeshi Yoshihara are out of school with poison oak.

A Thought for Thanksgiving

Census Taken Mt. Schools

CHEHALEM MOUNTAIN—Twelve boys and 11 girls were enumerated in the Fir Grove district when the clerk, Mrs. Mildred Whitmore, took census this fall. One boy and one girl are from Yamhill county, all the rest are in Washington county. All four districts here are Washington and Yamhill county joint districts. Leonard Whitmore, Buck Heaven school clerk, enumerated eight boys and seven girls, nine from Washington county and six from Yamhill. At the Pleasant View district Glenn Miller enumerated nine boys and two girls in Washington county and eight boys and five girls in Yamhill county, making a total of 24.

There was no school at Mountain Top Monday last week because of the illness of the teacher, Mrs. Muriel Thompson.

Helen Otto was absent from Hillsboro high school Wednesday and Thursday last week because of having intestinal flu.

Visit in Missouri

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Flynn, who were visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Langston, left November 19, for Warrenburg, Mo., where they will visit his mother. They visited her grandmother, Mrs. Mabel Langston at Emmett, Idaho, en route.

Program Success

The Pleasant View school children, trained by their teacher, Miss Louise Wilson, gave a splendid program Friday night. Thirteen children gave recitations and joined in singing songs. The sum of $9 was netted from the pies, auctioned off by G. A. Thompson, and the sale of sandwiches. Coffee was served free. Money raised will be used for the benefit of the school.

Engagement Announced

Mrs. W. F. Wohlschlegel announced the engagement of her daughter, Miss Enola Barlow, to Mr. George Keiyser, both of Portland, when the Buck Heaven Variant club met at her home Thursday. The wedding will be an event of next spring. Mrs. Ira G. Stewart led the parliamentary procedure study and Mrs. G. A. Thompson will lead the study when the club meets with Mrs. E. E. Langston December 5.

VanGrunsvens Build Home at Leisyville

LEISYVILLE — Mr. and Mrs. Henry Van Grunsven are building a house near the Martin Vanderzanden place.

Aid Red Cross

The Ladies' club did some Red Cross sewing at the home of Mrs. John Gates Jr. Friday afternoon. Mrs. Lily Hanley is head of the Red Cross roll call in this district.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Armstrong of Nebraska are working at the Carl Peterson place.

Eddie Vaala, who has been at Jones hospital for several weeks, is much improved.

Miss Dorland New President Grange Group

SHADY BROOK—Home Economics club of Washington Grange met in an all-day session last Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Jake Vandomelen of Mountaindale. The day was spent quilting a quilt and tying a comforter. A pot luck dinner was served at noon. The following officers were elected: Miss Cora Dorland, president; Mrs. Lola Solberger, vice-president; and Mrs. Alvah Logan, secretary-treasurer. A gift was presented to Mrs. Minnie Blake in honor of her birthday. Next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Minnie Blake of North Plains December 11. This will be an all day meeting with pot-luck lunch and will be spent quilting and having a Christmas pie with each gift not exceeding 25 cents.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Spear of Raymond, Wash., visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Spear, from Monday till Wednesday.

Mrs. Nitchman Honored

A birthday party was held at the home of Mrs. Charles Nitchman Friday evening when a group of friends helped her celebrate her birthday.

Move to Newberg

Mr. and Mrs. Jessie Brown and family recently moved to a place near Newberg.

North Plains Lodge Nominates Officers

NORTH PLAINS—Friendship Temple No. 8 nominated officers Friday evening. At their first meeting in December the Temple will initiate a candidate for Vernonia Temple. All members are urged to be present.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Stigum and Scott accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Art Dillinger of Portland spent the Armistice Day holidays at Seattle, Wash.

Services Held Here For Mrs. Clark

Burial services for Mrs. Mary C. Clark, who died in Portland November 14, were held at the Hillsboro cemetery Monday, following funeral services in Portland. She was a sister of Ervine Burkhalter of Hillsboro and Mrs. Rose A. Crouch of Portland. Mrs. Clark was the mother of Mrs. Edythe Russell of Portland, Monroe Brown of Seattle, Wash., Mrs. Effie Ward of Oakland, Cal., and Clem Clark of Portland.

School Census Helvetia Gains

HELVETIA—This year's school census shows an increase of 11 children in the district. Last year there were 53 and this year 64.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wenzel went to Tillamook over the week-and and Armistice Day, on a duck hunting and fishing trip. They returned with the limit and report that fishing was good in the Wilson river.
