Artists Move Here

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Bandeen of Astoria have moved to this community and are located on the Heywood place west of Hillsboro on the highway.

Tualatin Singers Approach Peak Performance Here

Laurance Dosselt literally exuded praise from every phrase for his choral charges in their recent appearances during the Christmas holidays. "Finest performance in three years of singing," the balanced effects, blend and tonal quality were distinctly of a higher order," were comments heard.

Mr. Dosselt said, "I am looking forward to our spring program with a great deal of anticipation." Mr. Dosselt left Sunday afternoon for a week's vacation on the northern beaches of Washington and will return here Thursday, January 9, to start the spring rehearsals. He urges every one who is interested in singing in this spring concert to be on hand the first evening for enrollment, as the enrollment will only be opened a short time for new members. He plans this program to be one of the most outstanding features during music week in May.

All old members are invited to come and bring a new member. Rehearsals will be at 8 o'clock on Thursday night in the Christian church, Third and Baseline. For further information call Mrs. Griffith, phone 2431.

Moose and Women Have Xmas Party

Loyal Order of Moose and Women of the Moose held their Christmas party at the hall Friday night with exchange of gifts, games and refreshments were enjoyed.

A card party was planned for Friday night, January 10, with pinocle, "500", and other games to be played.

Attend Rose Bowl Game

Neil Richardson and Neil Haig, students at University of Washington, left last Friday for Los Angeles, Cal., where they will meet two Phi Gamma Delta fraternity brothers and attend the Rose Bowl game. Neil Richardson spent a few days en route with relatives at San Mateo. Neil Haig is president of the student body at U. of W.

Past Grands Meet

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Cummings are quite ill with the flu.

Pythian Sisters To Collect Fruit

"It is again time to gather fruit for the Pythian Home," said Mrs. Maud Stannard, most excellent chief of Phoenixia Temple, at the meeting Friday night, and arrangements were made for all members to leave their donations of fruit at the downstairs dining room in the hall before January 10. Entrance to the dining room may be made through Kurall's and Wiener's real estate office. The fruit will be packed and taken to the Home January 11 or 12. Mrs. Thelma Peppard, Mrs. Franka Olsen and Mrs. Ella Wohler were appointed as a telephone committee to solicit fruit.

Plans were discussed for installation ceremonies, which will be held January 12, jointly with the Knights.

Canadian Couple To Continue Visit

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Dugan of Milden, Saskatchewan, Can., and daughters Betty Lou and Colleen, who had been visiting here during the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Sam Coy, left Saturday for Southern Oregon to visit other relatives.

Mrs. Dugan, formerly Philippa Welch of this city, is Mrs. Coy's sister. Well known to Hillsboro old-timers, Mrs. Dugan formerly spent his winters here and in Portland. They are now visiting with Mrs. Dugan's mother, Mrs. M. B. Welch, and her sister, Mrs. John Thomas, at Glendale.

They also plan to visit Mr. Dugan's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. James Meek, at Mt. Angel, before returning here to continue their visit with the Coys on Saturday, which, incidentally, is Betty Lou's birthday. The Dugans operate a 3,000-acre farm in Saskatchewan.
