

Mrs. Chapman and Sigler Head Orders

In the presence of several hundred people, officers of the Knights of Pythias and Pythian Sister orders were installed Friday night at the K. P. hall.

Mrs. Agnes Brown was installing officer for the Pythian Sisters with Mrs. Adah Moore as grand senior and Mrs. Dora Nelson as grand manager. Audra Chapman was installed as most excellent chief, and others installed were Maud Stannard, past chief; Emma Ferland, excellent senior; Marie Enschede, excellent junior; Myrtle Cornell, manager; Dorothy Barr, mistress of records; Edna Rice, mistress of finance; Verna Rice, protector, and Edythe Jack, guard.

Barbara Barney acted as goddess of flowers, and was assisted by Duane Heikes and Chastain Green. Mrs. Stannard, outgoing most excellent chief, and Mrs. Angie Harrington, who completed a three-year term as mistress of records and correspondence, having attained their rank as past chiefs, were presented with past chiefs pins by Phoenicia Temple in honor of their services.

Richard H. Busch, deputy district grand chancellor, was installing officer for the Knights, assisted by J. J. Wiener as grand prelate and Fred Sewell as grand master-at-arms. Mrs. Fred Sewell was piano accompanist for both orders.

H. Ray Sigler was installed as chancellor commander; William Ziegler, vice-commander; G. E. Montgomery, prelate; Howard Rice, master of work; L. E. Cornell, keeper of records and seal; Harry Sealbold, master of finance; L. A. Long, master of exchequer; N. S. Moulton, master-at-arms; W. D. McCourt, outer guard.

Following installation ceremonies, the program included several solos by Mrs. Clyde Yount, accompanied by her daughter, Lucile Mae, flutist, and Mrs. Fred Sewell, pianist; assembly singing and dancing.

The refreshment committee was composed of Mesdames Richard H. Busch, Emma Ferland, H. H. Stannard for the Sisters, and Ray Miller, Fred Ennis and H. J. Enschede for the Knights. The tables were decorated in vari-colored candles and streamers in temple colors.

Classes in Home Nursing Open Here

Mrs. Christine Hawver announced Tuesday that all Farm Security Women who wish to enroll in the Home Nursing classes should attend the first meeting to be given Friday morning, January 17, at 9:30. Meetings will be held at the WPA center at 337 South Third avenue in Hillsboro.

Miss Corinne Pennington of the Washington County Health Unit and the local Red Cross are cooperating in making this service available. Miss Audrey Jones, who is a registered nurse, and has been employed with the Farm Security Migratory Labor camps will conduct the classes. There is no charge other than for the text book, which is 75 cents. Twelve classes, two hours a week, complete the course.

Returns from Visit—

Mrs. L. C. Lomas returned Sunday from a two months' visit with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. William Dierdorf, and her new granddaughter of Naches, Wash. Mrs. Nora Scandrett, who has been staying at Mrs. Lomas' home during her absence, will return to her home this week in Gaston.

Card Party Success—

The card party given by Women of the Moose at their hall Friday evening was well attended. Mrs. Ted Fochler and Paul Crawford made high scores and Mrs. Hattie Freeland, low, in "500." High scores in pinocle were made by Mrs. LaVerda Moulton and Mrs. Bertha Carlson, and low scores by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Susan of Portland.

Entertain at Party—

Mrs. and Mrs. Reece Hathhorn were hosts at a party for the basketball squad last Friday evening after the game. Movies of the national tournament of basketball for colleges held last year at Kansas City, Mo., were shown.

Grapefruit Grown Here—

In the Argus window this week is a bunch of seven grapefruit grown in the Manley greenhouse just east of town.

Card Party Tuesday—

St. Matthews' Altar Society will have a card party at the school hall Tuesday evening, January 21.

Club Celebrates Head's Birthday

A good sized crowd gathered at Legion hall Monday evening in celebration of Dr. Francis E. Townsend's 74th birthday anniversary sponsored by the local Townsend club in honor of their founder. In the absence of President Willis E. Brown, who is seriously ill, C. C. Barnister, vice-president, presided and installed the newly elected officers.

A large birthday cake bearing 74 candles was on display and following the program was sold in small pieces to those present and proceeds went into the special "Birthday Fund," a fund which clubs all over the nation contribute for promotion of the Townsend club movement. A smaller birthday cake was presented to Mrs. Alice Caples, whose birthday came on the same day as Dr. Townsend's.

Those taking part on the program were Mr. and Mrs. John Green, musicians and singers, Dick Forsythe, concertist; Priscilla Merkel, accordion and C. P. Berk, reader.

Bobby Hockersmith was awarded the pillow that was sold at Dutch auction. Next meeting will be January 27, and is to be an old fashioned spelling bee.

Mrs. McNeal Tells Of Life in Tahiti

Mrs. H. H. Stannard was hostess to the Breakfast club last Wednesday morning. Mrs. R. E. McNeal, former member of the club, gave a very interesting talk on life in Tahiti, and presented each member with a strand of native beads from the islands. An impressive candle-lighting ceremony was given to members having birthdays in January, Mrs. Otto Hartmann, Mrs. L. E. McDowell, Mrs. Elsie Stevens, and Mrs. H. H. Stannard. Mrs. W. G. Hare was in charge of the program.

Next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. J. W. Poynter Thursday, January 23, instead of Wednesday, the regular meeting date.

Officers Named By Church Group

The Methodist Church Board of Christian Education met Monday night and elected Mrs. Laurie Hat-trick superintendent of the home department to succeed Mrs. M. W. Johnson, who recently retired from the work after many years of service. Miss Ella Rose Mason was also elected superintendent of the junior department, and J. A. Swanson and Harry Mason were elected teachers of boys' classes. Henry Young was elected a member of the board to fill a vacancy.

Card Party Friday—
