

Legion, Auxiliary Hosts to Jamboree

Legionnaires and Auxiliary members from the various posts and units of Washington county met in Hillsboro Tuesday night for the county jamboree with Hillsboro post and unit as hosts. Legionnaires met in separate business session first in the chamber of commerce rooms and the auxiliary at the Legion hall with all assembling for a joint meeting and program at the Legion hall later.

Work and objectives of the National Youth Administration were outlined at the joint session by L. R. Kaup, director for Washington, Clackamas and Columbia counties. He declared that it was not a relief organization, that age limits were from 17 to 25, and that applicants must be unemployed and single. Kaup said the objectives were to create the right work habits and the right attitude toward employers and government and that all must take the oath of allegiance.

The newly organized Hillsboro orchestra played several numbers with Bob Peters as soloist. Other numbers included a Hills girls' trio, Dorine Fowler, Joyce Kellington and Carolyn Kalkreuth, and a boys' quartet, Bob Peters, Wallace Rump, Lloyd Pearson and Nelson Lukins. Miss Lena Medler was accompanist.

Forest Grove post and unit will be hosts for the next jamboree meeting in March.

B. M. Goodman of the Hillsboro Legion Auxiliary committee reported to the county legionnaires that Hillsboro would probably sponsor another junior team this year. He suggested that the posts sponsor teams, but if they did not, their support for the local team.

Cooperation of all Legion posts in the oratorical contest for high school students, was urged by J. W. Poynter, local chairman. State department officers present at the Legion Auxiliary meeting were Mrs. Laura Goode, president, Mrs. Mae Whitcomb, secretary, and Mrs. Laura Smith, hospital chairman, all of Portland. These officers were the main speakers of the session, and each was presented with a corsage by Mrs. Leon Davis, president of the hostess unit.

Mrs. Hazel Johnson, district president, presided, and Mrs. Blanche Jones, district secretary, officiated. Both are from Sherwood.

Events of the Day Study Group Topic

A A.U.W. study group will meet next Wednesday with Mrs. P. P. Rasmussen. The radio lecture will be given by Dr. R. I. Lovell, professor of history at Willamette university. There will be a group discussion on "Events of the Day."

Returns from Springs—Sidney Ratcliffe, who has been at the Sunrise Mineral Springs near Hubbard for the past two weeks, returned home Tuesday, much improved in health. Other Hillsboro people who are receiving treatment at the springs are Mrs. Oscar Humbert and Mrs. L. B. Hall.

Attend Birthday Banquet—Mrs. E. L. Moore and Miss Anna Sias attended the banquet Thursday evening in honor of the 23rd birthday anniversary of Ensign E. Swedenberg at the new church of that congregation on Spruce street, Portland. Speakers were Chinese Counsel S. P. C. Au and Mrs. Au.

Jones Hospital—Entered for medical care during the week were Mrs. R. J. Waters, Gaston; Robert Fowler, Cornelius; Reider Peterson, Cornelius; Mrs. F. J. Sanders, Hillsboro.

Births—Bennett—To Mr. and Mrs. Noel Bennett, Hillsboro, January 28, a boy.

Vanderzanden—To Mr. and Mrs. James Vanderzanden, January 26, a girl.

Vernon Cook, who had been called here because of the death of his father, Claud Cook, returned Sunday to Echo, where he is coach in the high school.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hendrickson of Eugene are guests this week of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Staples. Mrs. Hendrickson is a niece of Mrs. Staples.

Miss Mildred Patton of Hood River, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Sidney Ratcliffe, and family, the past week returned home Tuesday.

Anniversary of Lutheran Club Observed Friday

Lutheran Christian Fellowship club celebrated its fourth birthday anniversary Friday evening in the church social room. The birthday gift was a free will offering of the guests, presented by Mr. Heikes, president of the organization, to the superintendent of Sunday school, Mrs. Robert Meacham, for a Sunday school library.

The following program was given with Carl Voge as master of ceremonies: cornet trio, by Ronald Reids, Jerry Doyle and Carl Wehahn; club history, voice, by Carol Voelker and Edith Sahnow, accompanied by Byrle Rump; trumpet solo, by Reids; reading, by Carl Voge; violin trumpet duet, by Jack and Jerry Doyle, accompanied by their mother at the piano; guest speaker, "Value of Organization to a Church," Pastor Nitz of Schefflin; "Value of a Library to Our Sunday School," by Pastor George Heikes; "O Sol Mio" (My Sunshine) flute solo, by Ray Caster, accompanied at the piano by Edith Sahnow; "Prelude in C Minor," piano solo, by Colleen Madsen.

An hour of table games followed with Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Sahnow in charge.

During a trumpet trio "Happy Birthday" great-grandmother, Mrs. H. Kanna lit the birthday candles followed by her serving the cake assisted by Evelyn Steinke, while Medsames Heikes and Edward Freudenthal poured.

Committee in charge of the evening's entertainment included Mr. and Mrs. Carl Voge, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Sahnow, Hubert Thun and Evelyn Steinke.

Want Sewing Machine At Red Cross Room

The Red Cross sewing room at the city hall, upstairs, is in need of another sewing machine (or several) according to the committee in charge. Anyone having a machine not in use at the present time and willing to loan it to the Red Cross is requested to notify Mrs. Lottie Mapes, chairman of the committee.

Several more ladies joined in the sewing this week, and a representative of the Women of the Moose has arranged to take sewing out to members of that order. This may be done by anyone who desires to work at home.
