

County Council P. T. A. Meets Aloha Tuesday

The Washington County Council of Parent-Teachers will meet Tuesday, Feb. 11, at 8 p. m. in the Aloha Grange hall at Aloha. This is the first time that the county council has had an evening meeting. The speaker's message surrounds family relationships this meeting is dedicated to "family night."

The speaker will be Mrs. Buena Maria, who has been teaching family relationships at Oregon State college, but at the present time is doing extension work for the college. Her topic for the evening will be "Leading Horses to Water."

Founder's Day will be observed with a candle lighting service. In the month of February all Parent-Teacher units rededicate themselves to the folk movement for it was on February 17, 1897, that Mrs. Theodore W. Birney and Mrs. Phoebe A. Hearst organized "to promote the welfare of children and youth in home, school, church and community, to raise the standards of home life, to secure adequate laws for the care and protection of children and youth, to bring into closer relation the home and the school, that parents and teachers may cooperate intelligently in the training of the child and to develop between educators and the general public such united efforts as will secure for every child the highest advantages in physical, mental, social and spiritual education."

All parents whether members of a Parent-Teacher organization or not are invited to attend. Children must be accompanied by a parent. Founder's Day Birthday cake and coffee will be served.

Miss Peck Bride Of Mr. H. A. May

BETHANY CEDAR MILL. Miss Deborah Peck and Mr. Hubert A. May were married Sunday evening before a large group of relatives and friends at the Cedar Mill Community church. Rev. Forrest Fox read the candlelight service. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dell Peck and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Scott May.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white lace and met with a white velvet jacket and a fingertip veil. She carried a bouquet of cream roses and bouvardia. Miss Helen Wick, the bride's only attendant, wore a dress of blue marquisette and carried a bouquet of daffodils and blue iris.

Miss Roberta Whaley sang "O Perfect Love" and "Because" accompanied by Misses Maxine Cady and Eleanor Hall.

Charles E. Walter acted as best man and Guy Gittings and Eugene May were ushers.

A large reception was held at the home of the bride's parents following the ceremony. The young couple will make their home at the St. Clair apartments in Portland. Mr. May is employed by the Willamette Hyster company of Portland.

Friends and relatives from Portland and Orchard, Wash., were present.
