

Old Farms in County Sold; Build New Homes

MCKINLEY-ELMONICA — The old Hoiler, John Barry and William Welch farms, all adjoining about 250 acres in all, were recently sold to T. R. Bruno of the Bruno Studios in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Siefarth and sons Robert and Jerry of Salem spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Olds.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Haller of the Oregon City Barclay Tea room were guests in the Olds home last Wednesday.

Mrs. Adams Hostess

Mrs. A. A. Adams entertained at a Valentine party for her son Teddy and daughter Beverly Jean Saturday afternoon. There were games and Valentines for the children. Guests were Rose Ann, Mary Sue and Sharon Bartlett and mother, Bobbie Spang, Mrs. Messinger and daughter Lucia, Marilyn and Arnold Johnson and mother, all of Portland, Virginia and Barbara Tonges, George and Bobbie Springer, Bobbie Meade, Edward Trachsel and mother, Lawrence and Loretta Trachsel and mother, Evelyn Ann and Wayne Kolstad and mother, Helen and Edward Kleppe and mother, William, George and Frances Litvin, Herbert Trachsel Jr. and mother, Shirley Spies, Mrs. A. Spies and Mrs. J. P. Meurer.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Smith February 13 at Good Samaritan hospital in Portland. It is their second child.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Kleppe and family and Mr. and Mrs. G. Kolstad and family went to Mt. Hood Sunday.

Program Given

Attendance was good at the Farmers' Union meeting in Barnes school last week. Genzer brothers from the Kansas City local contributed a number of musical selections to the program. Miss Ethel Suecki and Mrs. Meurer sang two duets. Kansas City local invited Cedar Mill local to meet with them at their March meeting. It was decided to hold the local meetings in the Barnes school for a time, instead of McKinley.

The children at McKinley school held a Valentine party Friday afternoon. Pupils had been divided into two groups and they staged a deportment contest for several weeks previous. The losing side served refreshments to the winners and a Valentine box rewarded all with Valentines.

Builds New Home

Tony Trachsel has started construction of a new house on Walker road.

Mrs. E. P. Spicer of Denver, Col., is visiting her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Thatcher. She left Denver in a snowstorm and marvels at the green hills and spring-like appearance of Oregon. Some planting of gardens has been done.

Beach Entertains

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Beach entertained at a buffet dinner Saturday evening and served a beef roast which Mrs. Beach brought

Reedville P-T. A. Meets Friday; Mrs. Paul Patterson to Speak

REEDVILLE P-T. A. will meet Friday afternoon February 21, at 2 o'clock in the schoolhouse. Founder's Day will be observed and Mrs. Paul Patterson of Hillsboro will be guest speaker. Her topic will be "What P-T. A. has accomplished in legislation." Mr. Vandermast invites the mothers to come early and visit the school before the meeting.

Baynter, Lease Place

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Baynter of Hillsboro have leased the William Handy residence and moved to Reedville Saturday.

Charles Imlay and Oscar Haag visited the state legislative assembly in Salem, Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hagg returned Friday from Eugene where they were called Thursday by the serious illness of their son, Richard, who had been rushed to the Eugene general hospital from Corvallis, where he is a student at Oregon State college. He underwent an appendectomy Thursday and is now convalescing satisfactorily.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Imlay, accompanied by their daughter Kathleen, and Doris Brownlee, spent Sunday in Eugene and vicinity. They also visited the state capitol at Salem en route.

Mrs. A. O. Pederson was hostess at a Valentine luncheon at her home Thursday. Guests were Mrs. Eldora Lowry and Mrs. Jessie Fisher of Portland.

Harry Weaver, who has been seriously ill at his home for the past two weeks, was taken to St. Vincent's hospital in Portland Friday.

Miss Eleanor Schuman, a missionary on furlough from Kenai, Alaska, who spent the winter at the home of her parents in Claremont, Cal., arrived Tuesday to visit her uncle, Guy Sampson and family and other relatives here and in Portland. She will also spend a week at Taft and return to Reedville before leaving for the north.

Mrs. Joe Saunders of Hillsboro, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Henley, underwent a major operation at Jones hospital Wednesday. She is reported to be convalescing.

A large group of local C. E. young people enjoyed a Valentine party at the schoolhouse Friday evening. Clever games and refreshments typical of the day were enjoyed.

Miss Nordlund Entertains

Miss Elsie Nordlund gave a Valentine party for the Junior C. E. group at the school house Saturday.

from her mother's ranch at Sioux Falls, S. D. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Wightman of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Wieman, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Courtwright, and Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Meurer.

In New Home Here

W. Parker and family of Portland have moved into their new modern home recently built in the Shepherd tract.

Moves Home

R. L. Jackson is moving the house which he bought from Mrs. Freida Hogan to a frontage on Cornell road.

North Plains P-T. A. to Meet Tuesday Night

NORTH PLAINS North Plains P-T. A. will hold its next meeting Tuesday, February 25, at 8 p. m. in the recreation house. The speaker will be Prof. Gerald W. Brown of Pacific university. His topic will be "Migratory Camps." This is especially timely as there is talk of locating such a camp in this community. A Founder's day ceremony will also be held at this meeting.

Family Reunion Held

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Kayser of Palouse, Wash. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Gustafson and daughter of Gresham and Reverend and Mrs. A. Basch of Portland, were guests at a family gathering at the F. L. McGee home Sunday.

A large group of local members of Beaver chapter, Eastern Star of Beaverton, joined members of Tualatin chapter of Hillsboro and Forest Grove chapter, in the district meeting held at Forest Grove Monday night, when Mrs. Hallie Huntington of Eugene, grand worshipful matron of the order was present for her annual inspection.

Mrs. Anna May Rogers and Mrs. Jay Frost attended the all-day meeting of the district number one Rebekah convention held in Portland Saturday. About 600 members were present.

St. Valentine's day was observed in the local school by the pupils of the various grades. Friday, "Treats" included candy, ice-cream, cake and cookies.

Miss Virginia Sampson is wearing a bandage over her right eye following a freak accident Monday, when a tiny link from her gold locket chain became lodged under her eye-lid causing painful irritation and requiring removal by a physician.

Missionary Groups Meet February 28

ORENCO-Orenco Missionary society will meet with the Reedville and Tualatin Plains societies at Bethany Presbyterian church February 28 at 2 p. m. for the annual World Day of Prayer for Missions.

A crowd of about 150 gathered at the old Fugy farm Saturday to celebrate the newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Grossen. In the quiet night air the explosions of dynamite could be heard at a great distance. The Fugy house is one of the oldest houses in the Rock Creek district. Mr. Grossen has leased the farm and has had the house redecorated. Don Jessy, assistant county agent of Clatsop county, was among the visitors. Donald and Wilfred are cousins.

Albert C. Grossen reported at Beaverton Wednesday for a year of military training. Mr. Grossen has been a mechanic at the West Union garage for several years. He is also a member of Helvetia community band and is the first called from this vicinity.

Mr. J. M. Davidson went to Salem Tuesday morning with Mrs. Warren Corey. They are both delegates at the State Farmers' Union convention at Salem, February 18, 19 and 20. Russell Loftis and Fred Jessy and other delegates attended Wednesday and Thursday.

Guild Meets

Women's Guild met at the home of Mrs. John Schneider Jr. February 12. Assisting hostess was Mrs. Chris Ritter. Next meeting will be March 12 at the home of Mrs. Hartman Staus at Shady Brook, assisted by Mrs. David Tschabold.

Women Purchase Siberian Lunch

BEAVERTON — The Siberian Lunch was purchased this week by Helen M. Thompson and Shirley A. Williams. The establishment, which is located near Canyon road and Cedar street intersection, is being remodeled and newly equipped. The new owners plan to call it "The West Lane."

The Ed Smith Jewelry shop has been moved to the Kiwanis building. It was formerly located on Broadway.

A card party was held by the Catholic ladies of Beaverton in the St. Cecilia's school hall Tuesday evening.

Read the Argus Classified Ads

North Plains P-T. A. to Meet Tuesday Night

NORTH PLAINS North Plains P-T. A. will hold its next meeting Tuesday, February 25, at 8 p. m. in the recreation house. The speaker will be Prof. Gerald W. Brown of Pacific university. His topic will be "Migratory Camps." This is especially timely as there is talk of locating such a camp in this community. A Founder's day ceremony will also be held at this meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Dewey entertained with a dinner party Friday evening in honor of Mr. Dewey's parents, who were visiting here from Emmett, Idaho. Others present were Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Cypher, Mr. and Mrs. H. Anderson and children, Mr. and Mrs. Delmar Dewey and Philip, Mr. and Mrs. A. Rhinehart, Miss Eugene Cypher and the honored guests, Mr. and Mrs. J. Dewey.

Sergeant Glenn Sandford of Camp Murray, Wash., visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Sandford, over the week-end.

Miss Eugene Cypher entertained with a luncheon Saturday evening. Guests were Mrs. J. Dewey of Emmett, Idaho, Mrs. Delmar Dewey and Mrs. Edward Dewey and Mrs. Henry Cypher.

Scouts Dance At Helvetia

HELVETIA — The senior scouts, Troop 247, entertained with a dinner party at the Helvetia hall Friday night. About 30 couples were present. Mr. and Mrs. Roy L. Burnett and the new skipper, John West, and his wife were among those present. Mr. Burnett was floor manager. The "Five Notes" orchestra furnished music. Cupid hearts decorated the hall, the tables, and the lunch, which was served in the basement. Members of the "Five Notes" orchestra are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wenzel, Louise and Lilly Wagner and Elmer Grossen.

Charity Given

A crowd of about 150 gathered at the old Fugy farm Saturday to celebrate the newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Grossen. In the quiet night air the explosions of dynamite could be heard at a great distance. The Fugy house is one of the oldest houses in the Rock Creek district. Mr. Grossen has leased the farm and has had the house redecorated. Don Jessy, assistant county agent of Clatsop county, was among the visitors. Donald and Wilfred are cousins.

Albert C. Grossen reported at Beaverton Wednesday for a year of military training. Mr. Grossen has been a mechanic at the West Union garage for several years. He is also a member of Helvetia community band and is the first called from this vicinity.

Mr. J. M. Davidson went to Salem Tuesday morning with Mrs. Warren Corey. They are both delegates at the State Farmers' Union convention at Salem, February 18, 19 and 20. Russell Loftis and Fred Jessy and other delegates attended Wednesday and Thursday.

Guild Meets

Women's Guild met at the home of Mrs. John Schneider Jr. February 12. Assisting hostess was Mrs. Chris Ritter. Next meeting will be March 12 at the home of Mrs. Hartman Staus at Shady Brook, assisted by Mrs. David Tschabold.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Dewey entertained with a dinner party Friday evening in honor of Mr. Dewey's parents, who were visiting here from Emmett, Idaho. Others present were Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Cypher, Mr. and Mrs. H. Anderson and children, Mr. and Mrs. Delmar Dewey and Philip, Mr. and Mrs. A. Rhinehart, Miss Eugene Cypher and the honored guests, Mr. and Mrs. J. Dewey.

Sergeant Glenn Sandford of Camp Murray, Wash., visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Sandford, over the week-end.

Miss Eugene Cypher entertained with a luncheon Saturday evening. Guests were Mrs. J. Dewey of Emmett, Idaho, Mrs. Delmar Dewey and Mrs. Edward Dewey and Mrs. Henry Cypher.

St. Valentine's day was observed in the local school by the pupils of the various grades. Friday, "Treats" included candy, ice-cream, cake and cookies.

Miss Virginia Sampson is wearing a bandage over her right eye following a freak accident Monday, when a tiny link from her gold locket chain became lodged under her eye-lid causing painful irritation and requiring removal by a physician.

Mrs. Anna May Rogers and Mrs. Jay Frost attended the all-day meeting of the district number one Rebekah convention held in Portland Saturday. About 600 members were present.

St. Valentine's day was observed in the local school by the pupils of the various grades. Friday, "Treats" included candy, ice-cream, cake and cookies.

Miss Virginia Sampson is wearing a bandage over her right eye following a freak accident Monday, when a tiny link from her gold locket chain became lodged under her eye-lid causing painful irritation and requiring removal by a physician.

Mrs. Anna May Rogers and Mrs. Jay Frost attended the all-day meeting of the district number one Rebekah convention held in Portland Saturday. About 600 members were present.

St. Valentine's day was observed in the local school by the pupils of the various grades. Friday, "Treats" included candy, ice-cream, cake and cookies.

Miss Virginia Sampson is wearing a bandage over her right eye following a freak accident Monday, when a tiny link from her gold locket chain became lodged under her eye-lid causing painful irritation and requiring removal by a physician.

Mrs. Anna May Rogers and Mrs. Jay Frost attended the all-day meeting of the district number one Rebekah convention held in Portland Saturday. About 600 members were present.

St. Valentine's day was observed in the local school by the pupils of the various grades. Friday, "Treats" included candy, ice-cream, cake and cookies.

Miss Virginia Sampson is wearing a bandage over her right eye following a freak accident Monday, when a tiny link from her gold locket chain became lodged under her eye-lid causing painful irritation and requiring removal by a physician.

Mrs. Anna May Rogers and Mrs. Jay Frost attended the all-day meeting of the district number one Rebekah convention held in Portland Saturday. About 600 members were present.

St. Valentine's day was observed in the local school by the pupils of the various grades. Friday, "Treats" included candy, ice-cream, cake and cookies.

Miss Virginia Sampson is wearing a bandage over her right eye following a freak accident Monday, when a tiny link from her gold locket chain became lodged under her eye-lid causing painful irritation and requiring removal by a physician.

Mrs. Anna May Rogers and Mrs. Jay Frost attended the all-day meeting of the district number one Rebekah convention held in Portland Saturday. About 600 members were present.

St. Valentine's day was observed in the local school by the pupils of the various grades. Friday, "Treats" included candy, ice-cream, cake and cookies.

Miss Virginia Sampson is wearing a bandage over her right eye following a freak accident Monday, when a tiny link from her gold locket chain became lodged under her eye-lid causing painful irritation and requiring removal by a physician.

Mrs. Anna May Rogers and Mrs. Jay Frost attended the all-day meeting of the district number one Rebekah convention held in Portland Saturday. About 600 members were present.

St. Valentine's day was observed in the local school by the pupils of the various grades. Friday, "Treats" included candy, ice-cream, cake and cookies.

Miss Virginia Sampson is wearing a bandage over her right eye following a freak accident Monday, when a tiny link from her gold locket chain became lodged under her eye-lid causing painful irritation and requiring removal by a physician.

Mrs. Anna May Rogers and Mrs. Jay Frost attended the all-day meeting of the district number one Rebekah convention held in Portland Saturday. About 600 members were present.

St. Valentine's day was observed in the local school by the pupils of the various grades. Friday, "Treats" included candy, ice-cream, cake and cookies.

Miss Virginia Sampson is wearing a bandage over her right eye following a freak accident Monday, when a tiny link from her gold locket chain became lodged under her eye-lid causing painful irritation and requiring removal by a physician.

Mrs. Anna May Rogers and Mrs. Jay Frost attended the all-day meeting of the district number one Rebekah convention held in Portland Saturday. About 600 members were present.

St. Valentine's day was observed in the local school by the pupils of the various grades. Friday, "Treats" included candy, ice-cream, cake and cookies.

Miss Virginia Sampson is wearing a bandage over her right eye following a freak accident Monday, when a tiny link from her gold locket chain became lodged under her eye-lid causing painful irritation and requiring removal by a physician.

Reedville Society To Meet Feb. 27

REEDVILLE — Women's Missionary society will meet Thursday, February 27, at 2 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Carl Trachsel. The topic will be Africa, and Mrs. Clara Gebauer, who recently returned on furlough from Kakaalad, Cameroon, Africa, where she and her husband, Rev. Paul Gebauer, have been missionaries since 1935, will be guest speaker. The Gebauers were the only white missionaries in that station for three years, but their work met such success that in 1938 their church sent two other missionaries and four nurses to assist them. She is a native of Portland and a girlhood friend of Mrs. Trachsel. Mrs. Gebauer has a vital message and a large attendance is desired.

Home from Illinois

B. H. Shelles returned Tuesday morning from a 17 days' trip by train to Bloomington, Ill., where he visited his mother, Mrs. Susan Shelles, who has been ill following a recent stroke. He reports a mild winter with very little snow in the mid-west, and fine weather during the entire trip.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Hinton were guests at the home of their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Foster, in Portland Friday night, when their daughter, Thelma Foster Ormsby, became the bride of Frank H. Dooley of Salem. About 30 guests were present for the ceremony and the reception following. The couple will live in Salem.

Taking advantage of the sunshine of the past two weeks local gardeners have been busy planting egg gardens. Farmers have also been seeding spring grain.

Series Evangelist Meetings Being Held

MOUNTAIN HOME — Rev. C. Fogg, assisted by his wife, is conducting a series of evangelistic meetings in the Mountain Home church. Next Friday night will be "Young Peoples' night" and the junior choir will assist with the song service. Features of these meetings include special songs and frotograph illustrations from the Bible, by Mrs. Charles Fogg.

Mrs. E. A. Fogg was a guest of her daughter, Miss Ethel Fogg, in Seattle from Wednesday to Saturday last week. When Mrs. Fogg returned home she brought her daughter, and a friend, Miss Ruth Williams, home with her for the week-end. Other week-end guests at the Fogg home included Roland Hall of North Plains and Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Arnett of near Newberg.

Eighteen were present at the Doubletree class party at the Harold Aebischer home last Friday night.

Mountain Home Dairy 4-H club met at the Cora Joyce home last Saturday evening. The leader, Miss Gladys Taylor, introduced the young members in the making of blankets for their calves, to be used during the time of the 4-H fair. She also taught them how to keep their record books.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Schmeltzer entertained a group of boy musicians in their home last Saturday evening. Mrs. Ray Ego acted as piano accompanist. Boys present were Wallace and Earl Russell, Virgil Allison, Kenneth Jaquith and Stanley Ego. It is hoped an orchestra may be developed from this group.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Schmeltzer entertained a group of boy musicians in their home last Saturday evening. Mrs. Ray Ego acted as piano accompanist. Boys present were Wallace and Earl Russell, Virgil Allison, Kenneth Jaquith and Stanley Ego. It is hoped an orchestra may be developed from this group.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Schmeltzer entertained a group of boy musicians in their home last Saturday evening. Mrs. Ray Ego acted as piano accompanist. Boys present were Wallace and Earl Russell, Virgil Allison, Kenneth Jaquith and Stanley Ego. It is hoped an orchestra may be developed from this group.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Schmeltzer entertained a group of boy musicians in their home last Saturday evening. Mrs. Ray Ego acted as piano accompanist. Boys present were Wallace and Earl Russell, Virgil Allison, Kenneth Jaquith and Stanley Ego. It is hoped an orchestra may be developed from this group.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Schmeltzer entertained a group of boy musicians in their home last Saturday evening. Mrs. Ray Ego acted as piano accompanist. Boys present were Wallace and Earl Russell, Virgil Allison, Kenneth Jaquith and Stanley Ego. It is hoped an orchestra may be developed from this group.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Schmeltzer entertained a group of boy musicians in their home last Saturday evening. Mrs. Ray Ego acted as piano accompanist. Boys present were Wallace and Earl Russell, Virgil Allison, Kenneth Jaquith and Stanley Ego. It is hoped an orchestra may be developed from this group.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Schmeltzer entertained a group of boy musicians in their home last Saturday evening. Mrs. Ray Ego acted as piano accompanist. Boys present were Wallace and Earl Russell, Virgil Allison, Kenneth Jaquith and Stanley Ego. It is hoped an orchestra may be developed from this group.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Schmeltzer entertained a group of boy musicians in their home last Saturday evening. Mrs. Ray Ego acted as piano accompanist. Boys present were Wallace and Earl Russell, Virgil Allison, Kenneth Jaquith and Stanley Ego. It is hoped an orchestra may be developed from this group.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Schmeltzer entertained a group of boy musicians in their home last Saturday evening. Mrs. Ray Ego acted as piano accompanist. Boys present were Wallace and Earl Russell, Virgil Allison, Kenneth Jaquith and Stanley Ego. It is hoped an orchestra may be developed from this group.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Schmeltzer entertained a group of boy musicians in their home last Saturday evening. Mrs. Ray Ego acted as piano accompanist. Boys present were Wallace and Earl Russell, Virgil Allison, Kenneth Jaquith and Stanley Ego. It is hoped an orchestra may be developed from this group.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Schmeltzer entertained a group of boy musicians in their home last Saturday evening. Mrs. Ray Ego acted as piano accompanist. Boys present were Wallace and Earl Russell, Virgil Allison, Kenneth Jaquith and Stanley Ego. It is hoped an orchestra may be developed from this group.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Schmeltzer entertained a group of boy musicians in their home last Saturday evening. Mrs. Ray Ego acted as piano accompanist. Boys present were Wallace and Earl Russell, Virgil Allison, Kenneth Jaquith and Stanley Ego. It is hoped an orchestra may be developed from this group.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Schmeltzer entertained a group of boy musicians in their home last Saturday evening. Mrs. Ray Ego acted as piano accompanist. Boys present were Wallace and Earl Russell, Virgil Allison, Kenneth Jaquith and Stanley Ego. It is hoped an orchestra may be developed from this group.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Schmeltzer entertained a group of boy musicians in their home last Saturday evening. Mrs. Ray Ego acted as piano accompanist. Boys present were Wallace and Earl Russell, Virgil Allison, Kenneth Jaquith and Stanley Ego. It is hoped an orchestra may be developed from this group.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Schmeltzer entertained a group of boy musicians in their home last Saturday evening. Mrs. Ray Ego acted as piano accompanist. Boys present were Wallace and Earl Russell, Virgil Allison, Kenneth Jaquith and Stanley Ego. It is hoped an orchestra may be developed from this group.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Schmeltzer entertained a group of boy musicians in their home last Saturday evening. Mrs. Ray Ego acted as piano accompanist. Boys present were Wallace and Earl Russell, Virgil Allison, Kenneth Jaquith and Stanley Ego. It is hoped an orchestra may be developed from this group.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Schmeltzer entertained a group of boy musicians in their home last Saturday evening. Mrs. Ray Ego acted as piano accompanist. Boys present were Wallace and Earl Russell, Virgil Allison, Kenneth Jaquith and Stanley Ego. It is hoped an orchestra may be developed from this group.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Schmeltzer entertained a group of boy musicians in their home last Saturday evening. Mrs. Ray Ego acted as piano accompanist. Boys present were Wallace and Earl Russell, Virgil Allison, Kenneth Jaquith and Stanley Ego. It is hoped an orchestra may be developed from this group.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Schmeltzer entertained a group of boy musicians in their home last Saturday evening. Mrs. Ray Ego acted as piano accompanist. Boys present were Wallace and Earl Russell, Virgil Allison, Kenneth Jaquith and Stanley Ego. It is hoped an orchestra may be developed from this group.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Schmeltzer entertained a group of boy musicians in their home last Saturday evening. Mrs. Ray Ego acted as piano accompanist. Boys present were Wallace and Earl Russell, Virgil Allison, Kenneth Jaquith and Stanley Ego. It is hoped an orchestra may be developed from this group.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Schmeltzer entertained a group of boy musicians in their home last Saturday evening. Mrs. Ray Ego acted as piano accompanist. Boys present were Wallace and Earl Russell, Virgil Allison, Kenneth Jaquith and Stanley Ego. It is hoped an orchestra may be developed from this group.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Schmeltzer entertained a group of boy musicians in their home last Saturday evening. Mrs. Ray Ego acted as piano accompanist. Boys present were Wallace and Earl Russell, Virgil Allison, Kenneth Jaquith and Stanley Ego. It is hoped an orchestra may be developed from this group.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Schmeltzer entertained a group of boy musicians in their home last Saturday evening. Mrs. Ray Ego acted as piano accompanist. Boys present were Wallace and Earl Russell, Virgil Allison, Kenneth Jaquith and Stanley Ego. It is hoped an orchestra may be developed from this group.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Schmeltzer entertained a group of boy musicians in their home last Saturday evening. Mrs. Ray Ego acted as piano accompanist. Boys present were Wallace and Earl Russell, Virgil Allison, Kenneth Jaquith and Stanley Ego. It is hoped an orchestra may be developed from this group.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Schmeltzer entertained a group of boy musicians in their home last Saturday evening. Mrs. Ray Ego acted as piano accompanist. Boys present were Wallace and Earl Russell, Virgil Allison, Kenneth Jaquith and Stanley Ego. It is hoped an orchestra may be developed from this group.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Schmeltzer entertained a group of boy musicians in their home last Saturday evening. Mrs. Ray Ego acted as piano accompanist. Boys present were Wallace and Earl Russell, Virgil Allison, Kenneth Jaquith and Stanley Ego. It is hoped an orchestra may be developed from this group.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Schmeltzer entertained a group of boy musicians in their home last Saturday evening. Mrs. Ray Ego acted as piano accompanist. Boys present were Wallace and Earl Russell, Virgil Allison, Kenneth Jaquith and Stanley Ego. It is hoped an orchestra may be developed from this group.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Schmeltzer entertained a group of boy musicians in their home last Saturday evening. Mrs. Ray Ego acted as piano accompanist. Boys present were Wallace and Earl Russell, Virgil Allison, Kenneth Jaquith and Stanley Ego. It is hoped an orchestra may be developed from this group.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Schmeltzer entertained a group of boy musicians in their home last Saturday evening. Mrs. Ray Ego acted as piano accompanist. Boys present were Wallace and Earl Russell, Virgil Allison, Kenneth Jaquith and Stanley Ego. It is hoped an orchestra may be developed from this group.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Schmeltzer entertained a group of boy musicians in their home last Saturday evening. Mrs. Ray Ego acted as piano accompanist. Boys present were Wallace and Earl Russell, Virgil Allison, Kenneth Jaquith and Stanley Ego. It is hoped an orchestra may be developed from this group.

Cedar Mill Girl Fractures Leg

BETHANY CEDAR MILL — Jean Cote, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Al Cote, fell out of a swing and broke her leg in two places. She is in the Good Samaritan hospital.

Mrs. Nancy Boy and Mrs. James Walters attended the home demonstration unit in Hillsboro Friday afternoon, where they demonstrated table setting. They will demonstrate it at their next meeting at Cedar Mill.

The dredge, on which Jacob Wyss was employed at Tongue's Point, has moved to Portland. Mr. Wyss will be home again and commute a few days last week.

L. G. Boie was a guest of Sam Kautz and Mrs. Freda McMahon for a few days last week.

Chickenpox and measles are prevalent in the Cedar Mill district.

Mrs. Walters Hostess

Mrs. James Walters was the hostess for a shower for Mrs. Al Cote, who is recovering from a recent stroke. The shower was given at the home of Mrs. Walters.

Mrs. Levee of Ostrander, Wash., is a guest of Mrs. Sam Walters this week.

Miss Verna May Walters is now living at home after having resided in Portland for 18 months.