

Huber Garden Club Hears Rose Grower

ALOHA-HUBER—Huber Garden club's regular meeting was held on February 11 in Huber hall, Roy Hennessey of Hillsboro, prominent grower of prize-winning roses was guest speaker. He demonstrated and explained each step in pruning roses. He has more than 50,000 rose bushes, and has made a thorough study of them, their habits of growing, and the different pests and diseases of each type of rose. He donated two beautiful rose bushes as prizes. Mrs. W. E. Forberg and Mrs. B. R. Pooley had charge of the table decorations, the distinction of which were the King Alfred daffodils and pussy willows. Mrs. L. H. Place had charge of the refreshments. Sixty persons were present. Group singing was accompanied at the piano by little Dorothy Dee Riggs. The club expects to change its place of meeting.

Birthday Celebrated
Guests who assembled Sunday to help celebrate Edna Lee Rasmussen's birthday anniversary at his home were Mr. and Mrs. Lee Saunders, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Saunders, and son David and daughter Carolyn of Yamhill, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Waage of Portland.

Rev. and Mrs. B. Marcus Godwin, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Vincent, Helen Lindahl, Mary Antrim, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Drink and Mrs. E. J. Kreller, Monday night attended the meeting of the Baptist Educational association of the Portland area at Silverwood Baptist church, Portland.

Harry Weaver has been quite ill at his home during the past three weeks.

Matt King, after a week's illness at his home, was able to be out in his car Monday.

On First Plane Ride
E. H. Wright took his first airplane ride Sunday, and although the air pockets were a little rough, he says he would like to go again.

Mrs. Charles Braden of Otis is visiting her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Saville.

Mrs. Swain Hostess
Mrs. Margaret Swain entertained her bridge club at her home Thursday, followed by a dinner.

Aloha-Huber School Board Calls Meeting to Discuss Building Plans

ALOHA-HUBER—Aloha-Huber school board is calling a general meeting of the patrons at the Grange hall at 8 p. m., February 24, for the purpose of discussing the new school building program. W. H. Wardle says that he went to school where the new school house now stands in Reedville.

Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Cross of Halcyon visited Monday with Mr. and Mrs. D. LaFollette.

Mr. and Mrs. William Vandersal, Mr. and Mrs. Thayer Boles and sons Robert and Donald, and Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Miller, all of Portland, were party guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lantzen.

Starts New Home
L. J. Foster of Portland bought a lot of W. H. Wardle on the highway and has started building a modern house.

Paul Dudley is busy marking Hanson Leghorn eggs for the incubator. These eggs, from 300-record hens, average from 25 to 30 ounces to the dozen.

Infant Dies
Gravestone services were held Sunday in the Cornelius cemetery for Jordan, infant daughter of Mrs. Vivian Holmes.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Campbell were week-end guests of Mrs. Campbell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Shaw.

Newsweek Return
Mr. and Mrs. Campbell, who were married in Tacoma, Wash., last week, have returned from a short wedding trip. Mr. Campbell, who is with the Medical detachment, has returned to Fort Lewis. Mrs. Campbell remained here to equip and operate a beauty shop in the new barber shop building. Mrs. Campbell has had several years experience as a beautician, and is equipping her shop to give the best service. She expects to have the shop in readiness by Saturday.

Birthday Celebrated
A surprise birthday party was held at the home of Mrs. Jack Coward of Schefflin, the occasion being the 32nd birthday of Mrs. Coward's mother, Mrs. S. S. Spradley, who was born in Newburg, Sept. 13, 1902, and spent his boyhood there and at the Everest farm on Chehalis Mountain. He was married to Mrs. Emma Davis at Vancouver, Wash., May 19, 1928, and lived on the Everest mountain farm until 1932, when they moved to Portland.

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at the Miller and Tracy chapel, Portland. Interment was in the Scotch cemetery near North Plains.

Surviving are the widow, one daughter, Joyce, two step-children, Thelma and Charles Davis of Portland, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Coward, his sister, Mrs. S. S. Spradley, and three sisters, Mrs. Leola Herman of Sherwood, Mrs. Frances Young and Mrs. Violet Tauscher of Portland. Arlie Everest was a member of the Liberty Tent, have of Macedonia, at Portland.

Former Resident
Mrs. Emma Schneider of the Aloha-Huber teaching staff is a member of the committee for the art department at the Washington county institute to be held at the Hillsboro union high school building Monday, March 10.

Billy Swain and Betty Easton have been absent from high school on account of measles.

Lincoln Program
Given at School
ALOHA-HUBER SCHOOL—Last Wednesday the first four lower grades put on a Lincoln day program. The four upper grades in turn will present a Washington birthday program on February 21.

Chester Slovak, Verne Lushy and George Mink are playing regularly on the Beaverton B team.

Mrs. Van Den Heede is cook at the school cafeteria, assisted by Mrs. Minnie C. Edwards of Hillsboro.

Mrs. Emma Schneider of the Aloha-Huber teaching staff is a member of the committee for the art department at the Washington county institute to be held at the Hillsboro union high school building Monday, March 10.

Billy Swain and Betty Easton have been absent from high school on account of measles.

Former County Resident Passes
William Joseph Wirtz, 77, former county resident and brother of Edward R. Wirtz, Forest Grove, died Saturday at his home in Milwaukee. Funeral services were held Wednesday at the Forest Grove Undertaking chapel, Rev. Jesse Bunch officiating, with interment in the Forest Grove cemetery.

Surviving are two sons, Carl and Harry, and one daughter, Mrs. Carolyn Lynch, all of Portland; two other brothers, Theodore of Oregon City and Jacob of Oswego, and three nephews.

William Joseph Wirtz was born October 22, 1863, in Wisconsin. He came to Oregon with his parents in 1876 and was married to Melie Katherine Wagner at Forest Grove on October 22, 1887.

Pair Win Bicycles
Charles Treglow of Hillsboro and Ward Hardin of Hillsboro route 3 were proudly riding new bicycles this week as a result of their superior efforts in a recent newspaper subscription contest. The bikes were top prizes in a contest embracing the Hillsboro area. Twelve paper carriers were in the competition.

Move to Newburg
Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hester and family have moved to Newburg where they will operate a Clippage gas station on highway 90.

Tom Herbert, Mr. and Mrs. Levi Garrison and family, Mr. and Mrs. Findley Garrison, Mrs. Louie Powers and Richard Cornelius drove to Newburg Sunday where they were dinner party guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hester.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Barker and sons drove to Mt. Hood Sunday to attend the ski tournament.

Mrs. Leonard Melanson is visiting her brother, Dr. J. H. Madsen, in Seattle.

Mr. Sahnov Honored
Mr. and Mrs. Herb Sahnov spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Sahnov Sr., where the 94th birthday of William Sahnov was celebrated.

Mrs. Louise Garner and son Robert and Mrs. Edith Palley of Fort Linn, Idaho, were Sunday guests at the Floy Allen home.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Don Englen a girl at the Jones hospital February 13.

Dr. and Mrs. I. C. Jackson of Freewater were guests at the L. A. Jackson home last week. Dr. and Mrs. Jackson spent the winter with their daughter in Los Angeles, where she is taking a post graduate course in dramatic art at U. C. L. A. Accompanied by their daughter they drove to Fort Benning, Ga. to visit their son, Second Lieutenant William Jackson, who is in charge of an automotive unit there. They returned to California where Mrs. Jackson remained to complete her studies, then drove to visit Dr. Jackson's mother and brother, then home. The whole trip consumed 12 days. Dr. and Mrs. Jackson were former Cornelius residents.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Thornburg and children drove to Cannon Beach Sunday.

Mrs. Hamelman Honored
A birthday celebration was held at the home of Mrs. William Hamelman Sr. Sunday in honor of Mrs. Hamelman's 74th birthday which was February 14. Present were Mr. and Mrs. John Hulman and family, Mr. and Mrs. William P. Hamelman Jr., and family, Mr. and Mrs. Al Hoffman of Hillsboro, Mr. Downs and Mrs. Mina Lesser.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Gaston and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Taghorn were Sunday dinner party guests at the Rene Taghorn home.

Fire Damages Cornelius Home Friday Night

CORNELIUS—The Cornelius fire department was called to the home of F. W. Miller on Baseline road Friday where a chimney fire ignited the roof and caused total damage to one upstairs bedroom and damage to two other rooms by water. Mr. and Mrs. Miller expressed appreciation to the work of neighbors, who carried the furniture to safety before the arrival of the fire company. The loss was covered by insurance.

Prayer Meet Feb. 23
A world day of prayer meeting will be held in the Methodist church February 23.

The Sunshine club, a branch of the missionary aid of the Lutheran church will hold its annual meeting at the home of Mrs. Henry Jacobson, Friday, February 23. A pot-luck lunch will be served and gifts will be exchanged followed by a program commemorating world day of prayer.

Demonstration Set
A cooking demonstration sponsored by the Cornelius civic club was put on by the Portland Gas & Coke company, February 18 at the city hall. The demonstration was given in the form of a skit by Miss Grace Workman and Suzanne Hof, home economist for this district, doing basic things a homemaker would do every day, which included low temperature meat roasting, broiling, baking four layer cake and top burner vegetable cookery. Robert L. Rice of the Forest Grove office was in charge. Another demonstration will be put on about April 1.

Celebrates Birthday
Loy Mear, Straughan celebrated her 15th birthday with a party at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. Straughan. Present were Audrey Jean Benge of Hillsboro, Virginia Cartwright, Letta Smith, Joyce Thompson, Jacqueline Barker, Clifford Openslander, Buddy Erickson, Roland Newman, Ivan Smith, Douglas and Jerry Straughan.

Re-united Held
A family dinner was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. Straughan Sunday. Present were Mr. and Mrs. John Straughan and E. Everett, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Frye and sons, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Jackson and son, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Byron Davis and daughter and Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Parks and children.

William H. Durham
BEYVERTON—William H. Durham, of Stacey avenue, Aloha, died February 15, following several years retirement from his profession of watch maker and jeweler. He is survived by the widow, Mrs. H. H. Durham, and was the stepfather of D. A. Peare, Aloha; E. H. Johnson, Eugene; E. R. Fritella, Los Angeles; E. A. Ross, Anchorage, Alaska. Services were held February 18 at the W. E. Pegg chapel, with interment in Crescent Grove cemetery.

Infant Son Dies
An infant son of Mr. and Mrs. John Richard Bateman, Gale Creek, died at a Forest Grove hospital Sunday. Graveyard services at the Gale Creek cemetery were held Tuesday. Rev. Edwin D. Kellogg officiating, with arrangements in charge of the Forest Grove Undertaking company. Surviving are the parents and the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Bateman, and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Johnson, all of Gale Creek.

Individual Special
CHERRY
PIES
with Hatched
Decoration
Perfection
Bakery
Hillsboro

Week-end Special
Individual
CHERRY
PIES
with Hatched
Decoration
Perfection
Bakery
Hillsboro

Week-end Special
Individual
CHERRY
PIES
with Hatched
Decoration
Perfection
Bakery
Hillsboro

Week-end Special
Individual
CHERRY
PIES
with Hatched
Decoration
Perfection
Bakery
Hillsboro

Week-end Special
Individual
CHERRY
PIES
with Hatched
Decoration
Perfection
Bakery
Hillsboro

Week-end Special
Individual
CHERRY
PIES
with Hatched
Decoration
Perfection
Bakery
Hillsboro

Week-end Special
Individual
CHERRY
PIES
with Hatched
Decoration
Perfection
Bakery
Hillsboro

Week-end Special
Individual
CHERRY
PIES
with Hatched
Decoration
Perfection
Bakery
Hillsboro

Week-end Special
Individual
CHERRY
PIES
with Hatched
Decoration
Perfection
Bakery
Hillsboro

Week-end Special
Individual
CHERRY
PIES
with Hatched
Decoration
Perfection
Bakery
Hillsboro

Week-end Special
Individual
CHERRY
PIES
with Hatched
Decoration
Perfection
Bakery
Hillsboro

Week-end Special
Individual
CHERRY
PIES
with Hatched
Decoration
Perfection
Bakery
Hillsboro

Week-end Special
Individual
CHERRY
PIES
with Hatched
Decoration
Perfection
Bakery
Hillsboro

Week-end Special
Individual
CHERRY
PIES
with Hatched
Decoration
Perfection
Bakery
Hillsboro

Week-end Special
Individual
CHERRY
PIES
with Hatched
Decoration
Perfection
Bakery
Hillsboro

Week-end Special
Individual
CHERRY
PIES
with Hatched
Decoration
Perfection
Bakery
Hillsboro

Week-end Special
Individual
CHERRY
PIES
with Hatched
Decoration
Perfection
Bakery
Hillsboro

Week-end Special
Individual
CHERRY
PIES
with Hatched
Decoration
Perfection
Bakery
Hillsboro

Week-end Special
Individual
CHERRY
PIES
with Hatched
Decoration
Perfection
Bakery
Hillsboro

Week-end Special
Individual
CHERRY
PIES
with Hatched
Decoration
Perfection
Bakery
Hillsboro

Week-end Special
Individual
CHERRY
PIES
with Hatched
Decoration
Perfection
Bakery
Hillsboro

Week-end Special
Individual
CHERRY
PIES
with Hatched
Decoration
Perfection
Bakery
Hillsboro

Week-end Special
Individual
CHERRY
PIES
with Hatched
Decoration
Perfection
Bakery
Hillsboro

Week-end Special
Individual
CHERRY
PIES
with Hatched
Decoration
Perfection
Bakery
Hillsboro

Week-end Special
Individual
CHERRY
PIES
with Hatched
Decoration
Perfection
Bakery
Hillsboro

Week-end Special
Individual
CHERRY
PIES
with Hatched
Decoration
Perfection
Bakery
Hillsboro

Program Given At Cornelius

CORNELIUS—The assembly program Friday was presented by lower grades. The life of Lincoln was dramatized by the first and second grades and a Valentine skit was given by the third and fourth grades. Mrs. Helen Austin led the singing.

Candy Sale Success
The seventh and eighth grades held a candy sale Thursday. Proceeds of $137 are to be used for new curtains in their room.

Mrs. Linda Quick of Hillsboro, new N. Y. A. office girl, came to Oregon from Nebraska, where she attended college and worked as a saleswoman selling children's books and doing health work.

Prayer Meet Feb. 23
A world day of prayer meeting will be held in the Methodist church February 23.

The Sunshine club, a branch of the missionary aid of the Lutheran church will hold its annual meeting at the home of Mrs. Henry Jacobson, Friday, February 23. A pot-luck lunch will be served and gifts will be exchanged followed by a program commemorating world day of prayer.

Demonstration Set
A cooking demonstration sponsored by the Cornelius civic club was put on by the Portland Gas & Coke company, February 18 at the city hall. The demonstration was given in the form of a skit by Miss Grace Workman and Suzanne Hof, home economist for this district, doing basic things a homemaker would do every day, which included low temperature meat roasting, broiling, baking four layer cake and top burner vegetable cookery. Robert L. Rice of the Forest Grove office was in charge. Another demonstration will be put on about April 1.

Celebrates Birthday
Loy Mear, Straughan celebrated her 15th birthday with a party at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. Straughan. Present were Audrey Jean Benge of Hillsboro, Virginia Cartwright, Letta Smith, Joyce Thompson, Jacqueline Barker, Clifford Openslander, Buddy Erickson, Roland Newman, Ivan Smith, Douglas and Jerry Straughan.

Re-united Held
A family dinner was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. Straughan Sunday. Present were Mr. and Mrs. John Straughan and E. Everett, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Frye and sons, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Jackson and son, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Byron Davis and daughter and Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Parks and children.

William H. Durham
BEYVERTON—William H. Durham, of Stacey avenue, Aloha, died February 15, following several years retirement from his profession of watch maker and jeweler. He is survived by the widow, Mrs. H. H. Durham, and was the stepfather of D. A. Peare, Aloha; E. H. Johnson, Eugene; E. R. Fritella, Los Angeles; E. A. Ross, Anchorage, Alaska. Services were held February 18 at the W. E. Pegg chapel, with interment in Crescent Grove cemetery.

Infant Son Dies
An infant son of Mr. and Mrs. John Richard Bateman, Gale Creek, died at a Forest Grove hospital Sunday. Graveyard services at the Gale Creek cemetery were held Tuesday. Rev. Edwin D. Kellogg officiating, with arrangements in charge of the Forest Grove Undertaking company. Surviving are the parents and the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Bateman, and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Johnson, all of Gale Creek.

Individual Special
CHERRY
PIES
with Hatched
Decoration
Perfection
Bakery
Hillsboro

Week-end Special
Individual
CHERRY
PIES
with Hatched
Decoration
Perfection
Bakery
Hillsboro

Week-end Special
Individual
CHERRY
PIES
with Hatched
Decoration
Perfection
Bakery
Hillsboro

Week-end Special
Individual
CHERRY
PIES
with Hatched
Decoration
Perfection
Bakery
Hillsboro

Week-end Special
Individual
CHERRY
PIES
with Hatched
Decoration
Perfection
Bakery
Hillsboro

Week-end Special
Individual
CHERRY
PIES
with Hatched
Decoration
Perfection
Bakery
Hillsboro

Week-end Special
Individual
CHERRY
PIES
with Hatched
Decoration
Perfection
Bakery
Hillsboro

Week-end Special
Individual
CHERRY
PIES
with Hatched
Decoration
Perfection
Bakery
Hillsboro

Week-end Special
Individual
CHERRY
PIES
with Hatched
Decoration
Perfection
Bakery
Hillsboro

Week-end Special
Individual
CHERRY
PIES
with Hatched
Decoration
Perfection
Bakery
Hillsboro

Week-end Special
Individual
CHERRY
PIES
with Hatched
Decoration
Perfection
Bakery
Hillsboro

Week-end Special
Individual
CHERRY
PIES
with Hatched
Decoration
Perfection
Bakery
Hillsboro

Week-end Special
Individual
CHERRY
PIES
with Hatched
Decoration
Perfection
Bakery
Hillsboro

Week-end Special
Individual
CHERRY
PIES
with Hatched
Decoration
Perfection
Bakery
Hillsboro

Week-end Special
Individual
CHERRY
PIES
with Hatched
Decoration
Perfection
Bakery
Hillsboro

Week-end Special
Individual
CHERRY
PIES
with Hatched
Decoration
Perfection
Bakery
Hillsboro

Week-end Special
Individual
CHERRY
PIES
with Hatched
Decoration
Perfection
Bakery
Hillsboro

Week-end Special
Individual
CHERRY
PIES
with Hatched
Decoration
Perfection
Bakery
Hillsboro

Week-end Special
Individual
CHERRY
PIES
with Hatched
Decoration
Perfection
Bakery
Hillsboro

Week-end Special
Individual
CHERRY
PIES
with Hatched
Decoration
Perfection
Bakery
Hillsboro

Week-end Special
Individual
CHERRY
PIES
with Hatched
Decoration
Perfection
Bakery
Hillsboro

Week-end Special
Individual
CHERRY
PIES
with Hatched
Decoration
Perfection
Bakery
Hillsboro

Week-end Special
Individual
CHERRY
PIES
with Hatched
Decoration
Perfection
Bakery
Hillsboro

Week-end Special
Individual
CHERRY
PIES
with Hatched
Decoration
Perfection
Bakery
Hillsboro

Week-end Special
Individual
CHERRY
PIES
with Hatched
Decoration
Perfection
Bakery
Hillsboro

Week-end Special
Individual
CHERRY
PIES
with Hatched
Decoration
Perfection
Bakery
Hillsboro

Mrs. Winninger Rites Held Here

Funeral services were held Wednesday in the Dagonson and Sewell chapel for Mrs. Neva Winninger, 67, who died suddenly at her home here last Tuesday. Rev. R. L. Putnam officiated and interment was in the Hillsboro cemetery.

Surviving are three sons, Oran and Edgar of Hayden, Colo., and Guy of Phoenix, Ariz., and five daughters, Marjorie Winninger and Mrs. Ina Busch of Hayden, Colo., Mrs. Iva Haley, Hillsboro, Mrs. Ella Miller, Colby, Kan., and Mrs. Fannie Clinton, Pueblo, Colo.

Mrs. Winninger was born as Neva Kerr, in Iowa, on April 20, 1873. She had been a resident of this city for only six months.

Joseph Cooper Passes Friday
BLOOMING—Joseph Cooper, died at the Forest Grove General hospital Friday evening, after being seriously ill of a heart ailment for a week.

He was born January 4, 1873, in Iowa, later moved to Kansas and in 1897 the family moved to Oregon. Mr. Cooper had lived on the Fern Hill farm site ever since. The farm was later divided and part sold to the Shay family and part to Golda Cooper Saunders. He was married to Miss Clara Anna Allen on August 24, 1904.

He leaves the widow, one daughter, Golda Saunders, three grandchildren; one brother, Charles M. Cooper of Gaston; one sister, Mae Cooper of Forest Grove; another brother, Wesley Cooper, was killed in action in France in the World War.

Rev. Bunch of the Forest Grove Methodist church conducted the services. He was buried in the Forest Grove cemetery.

Early Resident Shady Brook Dies
Ludwig Ruffer, 70, resident of the Shady Brook community for 31 years, died Saturday at his home after a short illness. Funeral services were held Tuesday at the Dagonson and Sewell chapel, Rev. Albert Fuller officiating, with interment in the Rose City cemetery at Portland.

Surviving are four step-daughters, Mrs. Helen Peters and Mrs. Ida Kennedy, Medical Springs; Mrs. Matilda Eichler, Aloha, and Mrs. Olga Tanneck, Hillsboro route 3.

Ludwig Ruffer was born March 17, 1870, in Switzerland. He came to the United States in 1910, settling in the Washington county community where he resided the remainder of his life. His wife, Julia, died in 1934.

St. Mary's Boys Guests in Portland ST. MARY'S HOME—Last Sunday the boys of St. Mary's were entertained by Cathedral and

Week-end Special
Individual
CHERRY
PIES
with Hatched
Decoration
Perfection
Bakery
Hillsboro

Week-end Special
Individual
CHERRY
PIES
with Hatched
Decoration
Perfection
Bakery
Hillsboro

Week-end Special
Individual
CHERRY
PIES
with Hatched
Decoration
Perfection
Bakery
Hillsboro

Week-end Special
Individual
CHERRY
PIES
with Hatched
Decoration
Perfection
Bakery
Hillsboro

Week-end Special
Individual
CHERRY
PIES
with Hatched
Decoration
Perfection
Bakery
Hillsboro

Week-end Special
Individual
CHERRY
PIES
with Hatched
Decoration
Perfection
Bakery
Hillsboro

Week-end Special
Individual
CHERRY
PIES
with Hatched
Decoration
Perfection
Bakery
Hillsboro

Week-end Special
Individual
CHERRY
PIES
with Hatched
Decoration
Perfection
Bakery
Hillsboro

Week-end Special
Individual
CHERRY
PIES
with Hatched
Decoration
Perfection
Bakery
Hillsboro

Week-end Special
Individual
CHERRY
PIES
with Hatched
Decoration
Perfection
Bakery
Hillsboro

Week-end Special
Individual
CHERRY
PIES
with Hatched
Decoration
Perfection
Bakery
Hillsboro

Week-end Special
Individual
CHERRY
PIES
with Hatched
Decoration
Perfection
Bakery
Hillsboro

Week-end Special
Individual
CHERRY
PIES
with Hatched
Decoration
Perfection
Bakery
Hillsboro

Week-end Special
Individual
CHERRY
PIES
with Hatched
Decoration
Perfection
Bakery
Hillsboro

Week-end Special
Individual
CHERRY
PIES
with Hatched
Decoration
Perfection
Bakery
Hillsboro