Warning Aimed at Tin Can Dumpers
Acting on complaints that tin cans and rubbish are being dumped on county roads and private property, County Judge H. D. Kerkman issued a warning Tuesday that anyone apprehended in such violation of the law will be arrested and prosecuted.

There are three county-approved dumps for tin cans, Judge Kerkman pointed out. One is on the Jackson quarry road, one on the Laurel quarry road and one at the Dilley rock quarry. Anyone can dump cans and refuse at these places as long as such refuse does not contain any perishable garbage.

Seed Exchange Set by Grange For Saturday

SHADY BROOK — Washington Grange will meet next Saturday and an exchange of seeds will be held. All members having flower seeds to share should bring them to divide with others.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Rice and daughter left last week for California, to visit Hollywood and other points.

Program Given
The patriotic program and basket social held at the Shady Brook school house Friday evening was a big success. The program consisted of flag salute and "America" in unison; recitations by Patricia Mills and Donald Bills; skit, "The World Moves," by primary pupils; rhythm band by primary grades; play, "Johnny Appleseed," solo by Kenneth Logan; rhythm band; dialogue; vocal duet by Lavonne Brown and Polly Minamoto; Gettysburg address recited by Kenneth Logan, and songs by school. The baskets were auctioned off by Fritz Mills. A basket made by Mrs. Bills brought $10, being highest basket. Supper was sold and there was also a candy booth and fish pond. The entire proceeds from the affair netted $28.91, which will be used for needed equipment.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown moved on to the Hamman place last Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Oren Darey and daughters motored to Aberdeen, Wash., Saturday morning to visit Mr. Darey's aunt, who is very ill. They expect to visit at Bremerton also and will return Monday.

Roads Improved
A road crew is doing some mighty good work in clearing away brush along the sides of road extending from Glenwood as far as Darey's place so far. It lessens the hazards on bad curves in the road.

To Elect Officers
The Columbia pig club met at the home of their leader, Vincent Meek, last Monday evening. Plans were made for their work for the coming year. Bobby Danneman was taken in as a new member. Next meeting will be March 3 at the home of Dale Olsen and election of officers will be held. A lovely lunch was served by Mrs. Meek.

Two Films Shown At Lions Meeting
The home extension unit met last Friday at the home of Mrs. Ted Dewey, the president. Meat cookery was demonstrated and discussed. Next meeting at the home of Mrs. Wadley of Shady Brook. Topic of this meeting will be "Table Arrangement" and will be conducted by Mrs. Benscoter.

Philip Winterstein of Portland spent the week-end visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Meyers.
