St. Mary's Boys To Be Entertained

ST. MARY'S HOME—Next Sunday the boys of St. Mary's will be entertained by the Madeline and Sacred Heart parishes, Portland.

"Archbishop's House," 733 N. W. Twentieth Avenue, Portland, Oregon, March 5, 1941.

My Dear Father Maxwell:
I have just received the copy of the "Hillsboro Argus" containing the picture of the St. Mary's Boy Scouts. I am very pleased over the fine appearance of the group.

This Scout training will be most helpful to the boys and to the school as well.

Sincerely in Christ,
Edward D. Howard.

James Staino, senior of St. Mary's high school, won a $10 prize on the Rolley Truitt Sports Court program, KEX.

Rehearse for Plays
St. Mary's school is preparing two plays to be given in the Aloha Grange hall in the latter part of April. One is a one-act play, "Is There a Fire in the House?" put on by the day students. The other is a two-act play, "Putting on the Ritz," by the boarding students, and composed by the director, G. B. Fahey of the high school faculty.

Senior Class Selects Play

"Stage Door" by Edna Ferber and George S. Kaufman has been selected as the senior class play to be given April 23. Mr. Roberts, drama instructor, will be director.

The casting will be held next week when the tryouts for parts for 21 girls and 11 men will be held. Mr. Roberts' room.

Several years ago "Stage Door" was presented on Broadway for the run of a very successful season, after which it was taken on tour. Several seasons ago Ginger Rogers and Katharine Hepburn starred in the movie version of "Stage Door." Even though the stage play is different from the movie it still has in it the same characters and the same glorious plot of young ambitious girls trying to make a name for themselves in the theatre.

This play has been selected as one of the best plays for ambitious non-professionals.

Demonstration Given
Charles Douglas of the Douglas Radio Shop, demonstrated Tuesday the use of the oscilloscope with the help of Mr. Roberts and Mr. Hughes. Mr. Roberts' oral English classes and Mr. Hughes' science classes benefited by this demonstration. This oscilloscope is used in television and can pick up almost any inflection in the air until 10,000 cycles per second. Mr. Douglas operated the machine to the very best advantage for all students and much was learned by all who attended the class.

Picture Placed
The picture, "The Oregon Trail," painted by Amek, was placed in the high school library this week. It was purchased by Miss Parr, the school librarian, at a cost of $25. Almost half of this amount came from library fines which have been paid this year. "The Oregon Trail" is the most famous picture by this American artist, all of whose works are along this line. Miss Parr has stated that if possible another picture will be purchased in the near future.

Points Earned
Norma Duxbury, Lorraine Darnell, Rosemary Read, Pat Kroeger and Molly O'Donnell have all earned 10 points for G. A. A. by completing the required amount of swimming stunts. The girls have been practicing on Mondays for several weeks at Pacific university's pool under Miss Medler's supervision.

Make Pennants
To help the band get their uniforms the members of the Commercial club are making pennants for pencils. They will be on sale in the near future and Hilhi students are urged to buy them.

Program Given
Linfield college's music department presented Hilhi with a very enjoyable musical assembly on Wednesday.

Dance Brings Profit
The Senate club dance held in the gymnasium on Friday night netted a good profit.

Erma Jean Williams was Hilhi's representative at the American Legion contest held Thursday night at the Beaverton Legion hall.

Girl Reserves Plan For Tea and Dance
At the Girl Reserve meeting last Tuesday plans were made for the tea and dance to be held Monday, March 17, with the Beaverton Girl Reserves as guests. The Hillsboro girls were entertained last year by the Beaverton girls at a similar function.

Winnie Wiley, G. R. president, attended a meeting of the Interclub last Saturday in Portland.

Invitations will soon be handed out for the Dad and Daughter banquet, which is an annual event and one of the highlights on the Girl Reserve calendar.

Many Annals Sold
More than 400 subscriptions for this year's annual have been sold so far, making the sales surpass any of previous years. The annual will appear May 1, and it will have a new plastic cover together with several other surprise features. It promises to be one of the best ever published. Although the staff has been at work continuously, their hardest job, that of making up the pages and assembling them, has just begun in earnest.

Hi-Y Inducts
The neophytes, inducted into the Hi-Y club on Monday evening at West Linn were: freshmen, Elmer Meltebeke, Harry Hoffel and Gordon Brownlee; junior, Dave Carver.

Iky Kaga, senior, has transferred from Beaverton.

Morticians Hold Meeting Here
About 30 members of the Northwestern Oregon funeral directors held their monthly meeting in the First Methodist church Monday night and were served with a southern style baked ham dinner by the Ladies' guild.

Harold K. Lounsbury, Portland, president of the Oregon Funeral Directors' association, reported on legislative matters and discussed the 38th annual state funeral directors' convention to be held in Portland May 4 to 6 at the Multnomah hotel.

Discussions on educational topics were led by Charles N. Rogers of St. Helens, and Charles A. Lundberg and Charles W. McGee of Portland. Professional subjects were discussed by Kenneth W. Holman, Portland, and R. Morris Holman, Oregon City.

A rising vote of thanks was extended Henry H. Young and Fred J. Sewell, Hillsboro, for the dinner and program. The next meeting will be held in Portland.

Among those present were Adolph Beig and Harold Pegg, Beaverton; Graham Young, Tigard; and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Young, James Dierickx and Andrew Young, Hillsboro.

Application Filed
An application to appropriate 2.5 second feet of water from the Tualatin river to irrigate his 171-acre farm in Washington county has been filed with the state engineer by Albert C. Greener, Hillsboro, according to a news dispatch from Salem.
