

"Needs of Youth" PTA Theme Monday

Parents of high school students especially, as well as all parents and others in the community are urged to attend the meeting of the Parent-Teacher association Monday night at the high school cafeteria, at 8 o'clock.

This meeting will be devoted to answering the question, "Are We Meeting Needs of Youth—Our Greatest Resource?" Speakers will include Mrs. Gerald Breeze, assistant registrar of Pacific university, who will give interesting findings on a survey of youths' attitudes and problems; John R. Cox, superintendent of the union high school, will tell of some of the things parents and the P. T. A. can do; and Rev. A. J. Sullens will speak on "Religion an Essential Reality for Youth." This interesting combination of closely related subjects promises to bring an informative and enlightening program of value to all, and the students are urged to attend and bring their parents. Musical numbers on the program will be presented by Faurest Weil.

The refreshment committee includes Mesdames Rene Meltebeke, J. M. Kennelly, Pat Johnston, George Laver, Charles Douglas, Ed Freudenthal, L. B. Starr, Misses Georgia Brown, Marie Hougaard and Vivian Leder.

Spring Institute Of County Clubs Here March 27th

Departmental discussion groups, each headed by a county chairman, is an important feature planned for the spring institute of the Washington County Federation of Women's clubs, at Hillsboro Methodist church, Thursday, March 27, according to Mrs. E. M. Stretcher, first vice-president, who is in charge of the program.

The morning session, opening at 10 o'clock, will include an inspirational talk by Miss Kathleen McCrea, county home demonstration agent; skits by the Junior department and music. The departmental discussions are scheduled for 11:15. A question box will furnish interesting material at the afternoon session, and Mrs. W. C. Giersbach, wife of the president of Pacific university, will be the speaker.

Miss Jensen Talks At B. P. Meeting

Health and recreation will be discussed at the Business and Professional Women's club meeting Friday night, March 21, at the chamber of commerce dining room. Miss Izola Jensen, recreation specialist at O. S. C., Corvallis, will be the speaker.

"My Hobby" will be the members' response to roll call. The recreation committee, Miss Corinne Pennington, chairman, will present the program, and the emblem committee, with Mrs. Margaret Mosberry as chairman, will serve the dinner.

Comedy Scheduled For Coffee Club

A three-act comedy will be presented at the Coffee club meeting Friday afternoon by the dramatic art department of the club, with Mrs. H. H. Stannard director. The play will follow the business session, which is called for 2:15. The parliamentary group will hold a short session at 1 o'clock.

Mrs. John L. Woodward is chairman of the hostess committee for the afternoon.

Celebrate 22nd

Friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Don Hanna Monday evening to help celebrate their 22nd wedding anniversary.

Progressive pinocle was played at four tables. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tri and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kolymeyer, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Clark and son, Mr. and Mrs. John Loomer and son, Grace Snyder, Dan Phelps, Mr. and Mrs. Art Sorensen and son, and the honor guests and family.

At the beginning of 1941 there were two bales of cotton in the world for every bale likely to be used during the year.

Dr. Soderholm Joins Hillsboro Veterinarian Firm

Dr. L. G. Soderholm, former veterinarian for the state bureau of animal industry, this week became associated with Dr. E. W. Almquist, local veterinarian, to take the place of Dr. N. E. Johnson, who has established private practice in Beaverton.

Dr. Soderholm, who was graduated from Washington State college in 1935 with B. S. and D. V. M. degrees, has been in private practice for the past 4 1/2 years. He plans to bring his family here from Woodburn as soon as he can get permanently located.

The local veterinarian firm, located on Third avenue between Main and Lincoln, thus changes its name to Almquist and Soderholm. Dr. Almquist recently purchased the business of the late Dr. R. J. Nicol.

4-H Members To Get Awards At P.-T. A. Meet

Four-H club achievement awards for the year 1939-1940 will be presented Monday night, March 17, at the Hillsboro Parent-Teachers' association meeting to be held in the high school. The following girls' clubs are receiving achievement awards at this time: Sewing III and IV, led by Mrs. Keith Wilcox; Sewing I, led by Winifred Starr; Cooking I, II and III, led by Mrs. Paul Patterson; Cooking II, led by Mrs. Schindler; and Health, led by Glenn Sweeney.

The following boys' clubs will also receive achievement awards: Two forestry clubs, led by H. H. Pranger and Robert Furrow; rose and flower, led by Mrs. Paul Patterson; theraft, led by Walter Henry; and individual 4-H club members in garden, rabbit, and wood-working.

The awards will be presented at the beginning of the program. Members of the clubs listed are asked to be present to receive their achievement awards, according to Palmer Torvend, assistant county agent.

Blues for Blonds

Blond Brenda Joyce (left) picked a fine shepherd's check woolen in dark blue and white to make this trim little suit for spring. Susanna Foster (right), Paramount star, chose a deep blue wool for her spring suit. The skirt has wide, deep pleats front and back, and wrist-length jacket is beautifully tailored with large patch pockets.

Cash Donations Given Red Cross

Twelve members of the Needlecraft club sewed at the Red Cross work rooms last Thursday, making 11 baby gowns, and also donating $5 in cash; the Garden Home club took out some sewing and donated $40 in cash, and several new workers were at headquarters today, according to Mrs. Robert Cull, one of the committee in charge. To expedite the work, some of the funds will be used to buy incidentals not furnished by the Red Cross, such as shears and pinning shears.

Mrs. Laura Pugh, knitting instructor, is at the David Hill school each day excepting Saturday to give instructions in the work, and yarn may be obtained at the work room at the city hall. Mrs. Lillian Hibbert, at Weils' store, will also give instructions to anyone knitting for the Red Cross.

Hold Business Session

Beauty operators and shop owners of Washington county met Tuesday evening for a business meeting at Moose hall. Plans were made to attend the Portland meeting next Wednesday. All operators and owners are invited and transportation will be furnished by notifying Pat Johnston at Pat's Beauty shop, Elma Nyland and Mary Helen Koeber served refreshments. April 8 has been set for the next meeting.

Plans were made for a style show to be given at Hillsboro and Forest Grove this spring.

Initiatory Degree Given

Initiatory degree was given Tuesday night at the meeting of Rebekah lodge. Eleven visitors were present from Vernonia. The March birthday committee serving refreshments were Mildred McConchay, Merle Selfridge, R. N. Brown, Jim Hargrave and L. L. Davis.

Panel Discussion On Problem Film Due at Cedar Mill

Buena Maria, extension specialist in family relationships, will lead a panel in discussion of the film "Alice Adams" tonight (Thursday) at the Cedar Mill range hall, beginning at 8 o'clock.

The film "Alice Adams" portrays the perplexities of an adolescent in coping with the family situation when there isn't money enough, or social backing adequate to meet the adolescent's desire for social prestige. Alice Adams works out her problems as best she can without the complete understanding of her parents. This film offers the basis for good discussion of adolescents and some of the anxieties parents face as children reach the age of cutting the apron strings.

Members of the panel will be Mrs. Maria, chairman, Mrs. C. D. Chamberlain of North Plains, Mrs. O'Connor of Cedar Mill, Superintendent J. W. Poynter of the Hillsboro schools, and Gerald Breeze of the sociology department of Pacific university.

Classes Cease For Short Time

Americanization classes being held at the court house were discontinued last Thursday night for a short time, and most of the students passed the examinations. Mrs. Ernest Helvogt has been instructor and classes will probably be resumed after Easter and continue until June, or summer vacation time, according to Mrs. W. R. Manley, chairman in charge. Books for advanced study will be available later, but those attending classes for the first time will be given the entire course. All will be welcome to attend.

The Americanization council will meet at 8 o'clock tonight (Thursday) at the county court room to make further plans.

Women Plan Rummage Sale

Preliminary plans for a rummage sale to be held in the near future were outlined by the Hillsboro Junior Women's club at a meeting held last Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Lyle Ellingson.

A sale committee was appointed by Marjorie Ellis, club president. They are Doris Brandau, chairman, Beulah Shattuck and Ruth Ellingson.

Club members also laid plans for a short skirt to be given as the club's participating effort in a spring concert to be given at the county institute of federated women's clubs of Washington county on Thursday, March 27, in the Methodist church here.

In line with a recent policy of the junior women's club to have one member deliver a short talk at each meeting, Ruth Ellingson spoke on a social topic.

Twins Celebrate Birthday

Mrs. Harlan Milligan of Logan, Montana, formerly Mrs. Charles Caughron of Knoxville, Tenn., was here over the week-end to celebrate her birthday anniversary with her twin brother, N. E. Haworth. Sunday Mrs. Haworth had the birthday dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Kenow Thompson and daughter Lillian of Forest Grove, and Morris McEtee Jr. as additional guests.

Mrs. A. A. Hodges assisted by Mrs. R. W. Gates, entertained Monday evening at a shower for Miss Evelyn Haworth, who will become the bride of Morris McEtee Jr., April 14. Twenty-seven guests were present. Mrs. Morris McEtee and Mrs. N. E. Haworth poured during the refreshment hour.

Mrs. M. Eliander Special Guest at O. E. S. Tuesday

Mrs. Madge Eliander of Beaverton, Oregon, representative of the International Temple, Eastern Star, will be a special guest at the meeting of Tualatin chapter Tuesday night. Mrs. Eliander will show pictures of the International Temple at Washington, D. C.

Rainbow Girls will present the remainder of the program.

Mr. Meltebeke Honored

Mrs. Rene Meltebeke entertained with a dinner party Thursday night, honoring her husband on his birthday anniversary. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Forney, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hollobeck, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Downer, the guest of honor and family.
