

Auxiliary Entertains For Legion Birthday

American Legion Auxiliary entertained Hillsboro Legionnaires Tuesday night at the Legion hall at a birthday party in celebration of the twenty-second anniversary of the organization of the American Legion.

Past commanders of the Legion and past presidents of the Auxiliary were guests of honor and each spoke briefly relative to work of the organization over the years on various phases of the American Legion.

Past presidents honored were Mrs. Helen Dechman, Mrs. P. L. Patterson and Mrs. Emma C. McKinney. Fred Engeldinger, G. Russell Moran, P. L. Patterson and Verne McKinney were honored as past commanders.

The Auxiliary presented the Legionnaires with a large emblem as birthday gift and the Auxiliary gave itself a lighted emblem. A large birthday cake, decorated in patriotic colors with the words "Happy Birthday to the American Legion" was presented to the Legion by the Auxiliary, and Morris and Jake Weil, both past commanders, also gave a decorated birthday cake. Candles and favors in patriotic colors were used on the cake with a centerpiece in red, white and blue flowers.

Program numbers, including vocal solos by Mrs. Clyde Young, with Miss Patti Crockett as accompanist, moving pictures of the Beaver girls' state camp and local community activities and group singing of war time songs, led by Russell Moran, Commander Leon S. Davis, and Mrs. Davis, unit president, presided at the activities.

All Auxiliary members are urged to fill out registration blanks for national defense information. It is not obligatory, but voluntary cooperation is asked by the unit officers. Blanks are available at the Legion office and the chamber of commerce and must be filled in by Saturday.

County jamboree of the Legion and Auxiliary will be held at Forest Grove March 26.

Committee in charge of arrangements Tuesday night included Mrs. John Pabolakis, Mrs. A. J. Foelker and Mrs. E. K. McCoy.
