

Anniversary of Camp Fire Girls Observed

Twenty-ninth anniversary birthday week is being observed by all Camp Fire Girls this week and all are working diligently to complete birthday projects to be ready for the Washington county council meeting to be held in Beaverton Wednesday, April 16.

Also this week the girls are displaying, at Well's Department store, handicraft made through the year and while at Camp Adahi last summer. This includes work of girls of all ages and Camp Fire ranks. "Treasure Trails" has been the year's birthday theme, and the girls have emphasized appreciation of the "treasures" of personal enjoyment to be found in great poetry, music, and painting, which go hand in hand with the opportunity for creative expression which enriches the Camp Fire program.

Guardians of local groups, name of group, and number in each group are Mrs. George Fisher, Tanager, 16; Mrs. Lester Hewitt, Apple, 16; Mrs. Homer Settlemier, Chesapeake, 10; Misses Marjorie Grey and Blanche Britton, Longage, 20; Mrs. Pete Schukart, Cane Wines, 13; Mrs. E. A. Deaville, Blue Birds, 12; Mrs. Howard Hillis and Miss Evelyn Clark are new guardians as yet without organized groups. The D. A. R. will sponsor one of these groups. Miss Britton is also chairman of extension committee and will welcome new members and new guardians.

Loheese girls have been studying Mexico as a birthday project and last month presented a skit depicting a Mexican fiesta at a meeting of their sponsoring group, the Legion Auxiliary. The Applechis girls, the youngest of the groups, working on their trial seeker rank went on a hike Saturday. They played games about the camp fire, each girl being responsible for planning and leading four games. Mary Lou Anderson is a new member of this group which is sponsored by the Business and Professional Women's club.

Care Wines group has been studying Hawaii and will give a program of Hawaiian songs and dances at a meeting of the sponsoring club, the Breakfast club, at the home of Mrs. W. L. Stevens Monday. Tanager group, also sponsored by the Legion Auxiliary, is completing beaded head-bands, a part of the ceremonial costumes which each girl must make before she becomes a fire-maker. Patricia Kneeney is acting guardian. Chesapeake girls, sponsored by Firemen's Auxiliary, are working on their wood-gatherers rank and plan to take this rank at the county council meeting. Donna Gaines is a new member. The Blue Birds are sponsored by the Parent-Teachers' association.

Washington county guardians association met Wednesday evening at Beaverton and made leather birthday honors to be presented to the girls at the county council. Those attending from Hillsboro were Mrs. Homer Settlemier, Mrs. Pete Schukart, Mrs. E. A. Deaville, and Mrs. Lester Hewitt.

Auxiliary Members Asked to Register

American Legion Auxiliary members are urged to fill out their questionnaire for emergency voluntary service for "Community, State and Nation" as soon as possible—preferably this week—according to Mrs. Paul Patterson, Auxiliary chairman of the National Defense committee, who is in charge of registration. Mrs. Patterson asks for a 100 per cent registration.

The officers elected for ensuing year were John West, Jr., president; Mrs. Alice West, vice-president; Mrs. Robert Soule, secretary-treasurer; Howard Betzer, class representative in Men's Council. League of Women Voters will meet Monday afternoon at North Plains K. P. hall. Mrs. Verne Dusenberry of Portland will be guest speaker. Her topic is "Legislation Activity."

New Notes for Spring Dresses

Take your choice for spring—the military motif or the floral motif. Both will be popular. Elizabeth Russell, left, chose a silk crepe dress patterned with red daisies on a white background. Harriett Brin wears a nautical navy crepe dress, with white silk tape trimmings. The knife-pleated skirt, striped cecily, cuffs and skirt border add a breezy naval air. Both are CBS stars.

Record Breaking Attendance Drawn By Aloha Dinner

Hillsboro was a "deserted village" Thursday night and no wonder. It was another record-breaking attendance at the annual Aloha dinner. Approximately 430 persons dined on the traditional ham and lima beans.

Two dinner sessions at the long tables in the grange hall were required to accommodate the hungry pilgrims from Hillsboro. While the second group took up where the first group left off, L. P. Busch of Forest Grove entertained the early diners with motion pictures shown in the grange hall.

There was standing room only at the diversified entertainment program which followed the second dinner session. Highlight number of the evening was a "demand appearance" of the "Gaiety Girls from Upper Reedville," a rather feisty chorus composed of Oscar Waga, Melvin Vandermost, Don McInnis, Arthur Schroeder and Charles Imlay.

Short talks were made by Harold Savik, Aloha grange master, and Oscar Hagge, prominent Reedville dairyman. Robert Busch, president of the Hillsboro chamber of commerce, delivered a brief response to Savik's address of welcome to the Hillsboro throng.

Other numbers on the program, which was in charge of Ted Emmerson, Aloha grange lecturer, were a combination instrumental and vocal quartet, students of Beaverton high school; a reading by Carroll Elliott; accordion duet by Earl Drobbaugh and Dick Kovich; vocal solos by Freddie Boyler; acrobatic dance by Lorine Mayfield; and vocal solo by Grace Larson.

Club Rummage Sale To Be Saturday

A rummage sale will be held by the Hillsboro Junior Women's club in the former Hartell's ice cream parlor location on Second avenue all day Saturday, March 22. Final details for the sale were worked out Wednesday night at a social meeting in the home of Marjorie Ellis, club president.

Among Camp Murray boys opening the week-end here were Bud Himes, Jack Hippie, Norman DeFrees, and Jimmie Popford. Mrs. George Wilcox of Newport is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Gates. She is a sister of Mrs. Gates. Miss Shirley Umphlet of Portland spent the week-end with her cousin, Mrs. Elizabeth Abraham. John Duncan of Tillamook spent Sunday with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Olsen.
