

District 3, W.R.C. Convention Friday

Representatives from Newberg, McMinnville, Tillamook, Vernonia and Forest Grove, as well as Hillsboro, will assemble at the I. O. O. F. hall Friday for the seventh convention of District No. 3, Woman's Relief Corps. The session will open at 10 o'clock a. m. with General Ransom W. R. C. No. 47 giving the opening ceremony.

Mrs. Maude Stannard, district president, will give the address of welcome and Mrs. Cora Robinson of McMinnville, department president, will give the response.

The morning will be devoted to reports from the corps of the district and election of officers for 1942. Mrs. Lucille Mangum will present the flag ceremony.

Luncheon will be served at noon, and the afternoon session will open at 1:30 o'clock, with convention officers giving the opening ceremony. Various phases of the work will be given by: Sister No. 5, Shiloh No. 28, John Bucher No. 49, General Ransom No. 47, Corinth No. 54, and J. B. Matthews No. 11.

Critics for the school of instruction will be Cora Robinson, department president; Elizabeth Olson, department inspector; Alina Mills of John Bucher corps, and Charles Carlisle, past department president.

Land of Liberty

"Family Day" is Celebrated Here

"Family Day" was observed at the Hillsboro Methodist church last Sunday. Two families, the Harvey E. Baker family and the Marion Ludlow family tied for the first prize, each having seven in attendance. Lots were drawn and the prize, a potted pink hydrangea, was taken home by the Bakers. The Ludlows were presented with a bouquet of red carnations.

Other 100 per cent families recognized were those of Elmer Ingram, Roy Sloan and Ward Hardin, the mother in each case being decorated with a red carnation. The pastor, Rev. Ira R. Aldrich, spoke upon the "Spiritual Unity of the Family" to a large and responsive congregation. The Kalkwarf family sang a special number, and the chorus choir, directed by Mrs. Peter Zondervan, sang an anthem.

Bride-Elect Honored

Miss Georgina Brown, bride-elect of Mr. Paul Harms, was surprised Sunday morning with a shower in the form of a treasure hunt given by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pauli and others who live at the Pauli apartments. Others present were Misses Edith Romig, Emily Armstrong, Glenn Sweeney, Sam Enckes, Paul Harms and Eldon Pauli.

Mrs. Peter Norbeck, who has been visiting here for a couple weeks with her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Anderson, leaves today for Sioux Falls, South Dakota. Tuesday Mrs. Norbeck, Mr. and Mrs. Anderson, and Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Anderson visited friends in Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Johnston of Shedd Brook and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Clark and family were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Moore at the Helens Sunday. Mr. Moore is superintendent of the Fir Tex mill there.

Mrs. Mary Fischer of Mt. Angel, who has been here for a month visiting her daughter, Mrs. Paul Baldwin, underwent a garter operation at St. Vincent's hospital in Portland Tuesday morning.

Mrs. W. A. Beck returned Sunday from Cottage Grove, where she has been for a month with her mother, Mrs. R. A. Medley, who has been ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Logan of Ontario visited Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Bush over the week-end. Mrs. Logan is health nurse for Malheur county.

Eugene Howell of Fort Lewis and Jack Butler of Eugene visited over the week-end at the home of Mrs. Nella Butler.

Mr. and Mrs. David Loggren and George Sagerstrom of Portland were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Anderson last week-end.

Hillsboro People On Eastern Trips

Hillsboro was well represented this week on trains going east. Among the passengers on the 5:45 a. m. train Tuesday night were Mrs. L. Y. Congdon and Miss Alina Eslinger, who were en route to Hayti, South Dakota, to visit Mrs. Congdon's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Matteson. From there they will go to Detroit, where Mrs. Congdon will take delivery on a car and drive home. Mrs. E. L. Paynter left Monday night for Livingston, Mont., where she will visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Giersdorf, and Mr. Paynter will leave here Saturday night to join her and go on to Plankinton, S. D., where they will visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Paynter. They will return home with Mrs. Congdon and Miss Eslinger.

Mrs. Earl Morley and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kummer, also left Tuesday night on the Streamliner. Mrs. Morley to join her husband in Chicago, go to Lansing, Mich., to get a car and drive back with him, and the Kummers also go to Lansing to take delivery on a car and will visit relatives at Denver, Colo., and Nebraska, en route home.

New Proprietor Has "At Home"

Mrs. Dorothy E. Emigh, proprietor of Dorothy's Dress Shop (formerly LaVerne's) announces an "At Home" today (Thursday) at her place of business, 212 East Main street, where the latest in dresses, lingerie, hosiery and sportswear will be exhibited.

An invitation is extended to all women of the community to attend the "At Home."

Club Holds Rummage Sale for Milk Fund

The Service club's spring rummage sale will be held Saturday in the old Safeway building on South Second avenue. The fund will be used to buy milk for the undernourished children of the schools. Sale will begin at 9 o'clock a. m. and continue all day and early evening.

At present the club is furnishing 50 bottles a day to these needy children.

Plan Reception

The Mesdames Harry Soost and Elsie Stevens of Hillsboro joined the Trinity Lutheran Ladies' Society at the meeting last Thursday. The committee presented plans on the reception honoring the adult confirmation class, to be given soon. Mesdames Dan Erdman and William Putnam Jr. will serve on the visiting committee for shut-ins for April. Following the business meeting Mesdames Herman Freudenthal and Carl Voges continued the report on the book "Our Movie Made Children," by Norman, Misses Carol Voelker and Valma Kraus sang "In the Hour of Trial." Forty-two members and guests were present. Mrs. Philip Mohr was hostess during the social hour.

Mrs. Wiley Home

Mrs. J. N. Wiley, who has been receiving treatment at the tuberculosis hospital in Salem for the past two years, was brought home Saturday and is greatly improved. Mr. Wiley says they have been well pleased with the treatment she has received there and that she has recovered nicely.

Mrs. Byron L. Miller and her two little children, Rolf and Norman, are visiting this week at the home of the Rev. and Mrs. Ira R. Aldrich, proud grandparents of the two sons. Her husband, supervisor of music in the Centralia, Wash., schools, is attending the music festival in Spokane, a number of his pupils taking part.

Miss Helen Aldrich, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Ira R. Aldrich, who teaches in the high school at Seaside, spent the week-end with her parents in Hillsboro.

Fred Haas of Washington, D. C., visited the first of the week with H. W. Ray.
