Ten Years Ago : News Then . . . Remember When?

Ten years ago this week, the Argus published a picture of Hillsboro chamber of commerce members who had at that time been in business here for 20 years or more—and here it is again. Seven of the original ten are still in business here, their group service record now being marked as "30 years or over." Pictured are, first row, from left: J. H. Garrett, M. H. Stevenson, Mrs. E. C. McKinney, Orange Phelps (then mayor), and Dr. J. O. Robb; back row: G. V. Payne, the late S. C. Killen, E. L. Johnson, the late Edward Schulerich and William G. Hare. News then . . . remember when?

panied by the former's niece, Mrs. Ernest Forbes, of Rydewood, Wash., were Sunday guests of Mrs. O. H. Stowell.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Fisher and Howard of Wheaton visited at the George Fisher home Saturday.

Vernon Wolford of Banks spent the week-end at the Harley Quier home.

Mrs. Deaville Substitutes

Mrs. Frances Deaville of Hillsboro substituted for Mrs. Darrel Jones, Manning primary teacher, last week as Mrs. Jones was ill with the measles. Mrs. Deaville treated the primary room to candy and all the children sang "Happy Birthday" in honor of the seventh birthday anniversary of Glenn Benefield, Friday.

Jimmy Davidson has been ill the past several days with influenza. John Wagner visited friends and relatives in Portland Friday and Saturday.

Birthday Celebrated

A party was given Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Kelly at their home Saturday night in honor of Mrs. Kelly's birthday anniversary. Present were: Marie, Louise and Hans Tolke of North Plains, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Tolke, Billy, Norma and Bobby, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Morgan and grandson, David Morgan of Elsie, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Bybee, Warren and Helen, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hiddink and Mr. and Mrs. John Wagner. The evening was spent playing pedro. High score was won by Hans Tolke and Mrs. W. H. Hiddink, and low by Louise Tolke and W. H. Hiddink.

Vincent O. Leach, who is with the army at Fort Stevens, spent the week-end visiting his mother, Mrs. Caroline Ball, and other relatives here. He is Washington county's Forest Grove board number one selector.

Sunrise Services Planned on Peak

LAUREL—Easter Sunrise services will be held on Bald Peak. These services have been held for several years, sponsored by the Evangelical church here.

To End Lectures

The closing lectures on Biblical Archaeology, illustrated with colored stereoscopic pictures will be given in the Evangelical church, Laurel, at 8 o'clock, April 3 and 4, by Miss Odette Rea Dunn, Thursday night. Miss Dunn will show pictures of the recent excavation of the ancient cities Jericho, Samaria, and Babylon, which have been covered up in the ground. Also, she will show the picture of a huge fish caught in the Atlantic ocean, which the scientists said would have swallowed 40 men. Friday night the subject will be "Animals of Adam's Day; and, Excavations at Ur of the Chaldees," revealing the advanced civilization of the centuries before Abraham lived. The public is invited.

Dinner Party Held

Sunday dinner party guests of Mrs. Flora Baker were Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Taitman and daughter, Viola of Gales Creek, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Taitman of Chelholm Mountain, and Mr. and Mrs. William Jones, Jr., and two sons of Hillsboro.
