Aloha-Huber P-T To Hold Final Meeting April 16

ALOHA-HUBER P-T A will be held at the school house at 3 p. m. April 16. Plans will be made for next year's meeting.

Milestone Reached
Friends and neighbors gathered in last Thursday to remind C. E. Rogers that another milestone had been reached in his life.

To see a man who will have lived 91 years by May 3 vigorously hoeing his thirty garden, that's good news. Such a man is J. C. (Dad) Gil on North Washington street.

Birthday Celebrated
Mrs. Clifford Little was pleasantly surprised on her birthday anniversary April 9 at her home. Guests were Mrs. H. C. Coleman, Mrs. Vern Williams, Mrs. Tillie Johnson, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Robert DeYoung and son Jimmie, Mrs. Hazel Gee and daughter Chloa, and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hays were also party guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry J. Wright of Beaverton last Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Hawley Buck and Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Cornell spent Sunday at Cannon Beach. Mrs. B. H. McCanna was hostess at a luncheon party Monday. Guests were Mrs. Beryl Hunter and Mrs. R. F. Hunter of West Slope, and Mrs. C. E. Berry.

H. H. McCanna has paved a court in front of the "White House" at Tobias and Silver-crooked the surface.

Birds Crash Window
A hawk dived through a plum tree after a robin, and crashed through a window pane. Mrs. C. A. Graham went outside and picked up the dead hawk and robin.

Lyman Ross has built a snug real estate office on the highway near the Huber Commercial club house.

A nine-year-old girl was found reading Shakespeare. "Do you understand that?" asked a visitor. "I understand enough of it to enjoy it," she answered.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Storms observed their 41st wedding anniversary at their home April 3.

Sivards Leave
Mrs. H. C. Sivard and children have joined Mr. Sivard, who is working in the vineyards at Beaverton, Wash. Deloris remains here at the home of her sister, Mrs. Clifford Behlenger, while she attends Beaverton high school.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Mason were Sunday guests at the E. J. Thoms home. Mr. Mason is principal of the Elmira union high school.

Western Singer

A scene from Gene Aubry's latest western picture, "Back in The Saddle," which opens a three-day run at the Venetian theatre Sunday.

Wild Strawberries Found on Mountain

CHEHALEM MOUNTAIN—Glenn Miller found ripe wild strawberries April 3 on top of the mountain on her way to the Pleasant View school. This is about six weeks earlier than usual.

Sergeant Kenneth Simpson of Camp Murray visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Simpson, Sunday.

Bible study and social evening of the Mountain Top church were held Wednesday night at the Ira G. McCormick home.

Virginia Murray was ill the first of the week and absent from Buck Heaven school.

Mrs. Ann Kotera and daughters Patricia and Vanessa visited her mother, Mrs. A. Ponderick, at Sherwood Saturday and Sunday. They all visited Mrs. J. J. Kalina at Ridgefield, Wash., Sunday. Mrs. Kalina is Mrs. Ponderick's daughter.

Orville Kintz of Gaston visited Allen and Jim Kotera Sunday and Monday. Orville moved from here last fall.

Arthur Stewart and Hodson McCormick began last week to attend night classes in blacksmithing at Newberg high. Prof. Cragg of the Smith-Hughes course there is the instructor.

In Italy, a housewife complained that a butcher sold her dog meat as mutton, and the dog's fur as fox. She was skinned both ways, the judge decided.

Aloha Couple Celebrates 40th Anniversary

ALOHA-HUBER—Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Wooden observed in a quiet way at their home their 40th wedding anniversary April 2. They were married in Boise, Idaho, came to Oregon the same year, and to this community in 1923, where they have resided ever since. They have one daughter, Mrs. Roy Morris of Forest Grove. Mr. Wooden has had a long experience in various lines of activity, most of which was spent in government service.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Gray and daughter Jane of Eugene spent two days at the home of Mrs. Gray's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Bauman. Accompanied by Mrs. Bauman they spent one day visiting Mrs. Gray's son Joe at Camp Murray, Wash.

Wayne Lee, who is with the army at Camp Murray, returned to camp after a week's visit with his father, Harry Lee.

T. J. Jones and son-in-law, Joe Walls, have gone to Pendleton to work on a construction job.

Abe Porter is home from the Good Samaritan hospital where he has been confined with back injuries.

Lanes Mave, Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Lane, who have been living on the Maxwell farm near Manning, have bought Fred Homberger's farm in the Seefeld district. Mr. and Mrs. Homberger will leave this week for California, where they have property near Sacramento. A family from Montana has bought the Maxwell farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Pratt of Battle Ground, Wash., have returned to their home after a two weeks' visit with their daughter-in-law, Mrs. Leonard Pratt.

Aloha Women Elect New Officers; Special Music Planned for Easter

ALOHA—Queen Esther Circle of the Community Baptist church of Aloha met Thursday with Mrs. R. A. Montgomery. Officers elected for the coming year are: president, Mrs. Clifford Pink, vice-president, Mrs. Noah Hill, secretary, Mrs. J. A. Hansen, treasurer, Mrs. C. E. Riggs, missionary chairman, Mrs. B. Marcus Godwin, chairman of flower committee, Mrs. L. A. LaDus. Since November much knitting has been done, including 27 sweaters. One hundred eight pieces of all kinds, knitted and other kinds, have been completed for the Red Cross.

The World Wide Guild girls will meet Thursday with Joyce Dawson for a missionary program. The girls are interested in White Cross work.

Special Easter music has been prepared by the church choir under the direction of Howard E. Ewer. It will be sung at the morning service.

Hallocks Move
Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hallock of Portland have moved into their recently purchased new home on North Wheeler avenue.

Mrs. W. M. Wardle is ill at her home.

J. L. Turner is remodeling the interior of his barber shop.

Peas, Corn Up
Peas a foot high, corn and potatoes up, roses in bloom, and many other flowers ahead of their usual time, proclaim that spring is here and summer not far off. The dogwoods on Cooper Mountain have been out more than a week. The woods are now at the height of their glory, flashing and sparkling in all verdant shades and exuding the exhilarating odors of spring. Let men have their wars; nature rejoices.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Chapman attended the funeral Saturday of Mr. Chapman's niece, Mrs. Marian Horton, of Salem.

Mrs. James Knorr of Scappoose was a house guest for a week of Mr. and Mrs. George Buseley.

Mr. and Mrs. George Buseley left Tuesday for a week's vacation at Cloverdale Springs in Tillamook county.

Kathleen Lewis came home Monday from Emanuel hospital, Portland, where she underwent an appendectomy on March 31.

Mrs. W. F. Norman is ill at her home.

The Grange Home Economic club meets April 13 at the home of Mrs. William Heinrich.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Hudson last week-end attended the eighth anniversary of Kilchis Grange, Tillamook county.

Easter roses are out before Easter lilies at the home of Mrs. J. E. Hays.
