Miss Flint Weds Roy Stephenson

SCHOLLS Margaret Flint, daughter of A. B. Flint, pioneer resident of this community, became the bride of Roy Stephenson, also of Scholls, at a ceremony performed in Vancouver, Wash., April 11, by the Rev. Paul Kunzman of that place. Witnessing the rites were the bride's aunt, Mrs. Flora Robinson of Portland, and her father, A. B. Flint. The bride was dressed in a light gray spring suit, with black accessories, and wore a corsage of sweet peas and rosebuds.

Following the ceremony they were entertained by friends in Portland, and returned to Scholls Sunday to a farm near Mountindale, where the bridegroom is employed.

Easter Services Surpass Records

Easter services at the Hillsboro Methodist church surpassed all previous records in attendance and offerings. There were 228 in Sunday school, 298 at the morning church service, and the offerings for the day were a little over $75. Thirty-five dollars of this was for missionary objects. Nine persons were baptized during Holy Week, and twenty members received into the church. The cantata given Sunday night received high commendation. It was under direction of Mrs. Pete Zondervan, with Mrs. Rex Howell as pianist. Sixty-five persons attended the sunrise service in charge of the Epworth League.

Travel Through Snow

A letter from Verne McKinney, mailed at Kingman, Arizona, Saturday night, says they were nearly snowbound between Tonopah and Goldfield, Nevada, where they had 14 inches of snow. Power lines were broken down at Goldfield, and following the snow, rains were so heavy that roads were washed out in Death Valley. Boulder Dam was a great sight, he said. Mr. McKinney, who is en route to Jacksonville, Florida, to attend the National Editorial convention, is accompanied by his wife and son Walter. Mrs. A. H. Busch accompanied them as far as Shreveport, La., where they expected to arrive yesterday.
