

Tualatin Singers In Concert May 7

"A program designated to offer Hillsboro the best in music entertainment has been arranged for the wind-up of the Tualatin Singers local season," so said Director Dossett in an interview this week in describing the concert to be presented May 7, at 8 p. m. in the high school auditorium.

With a violinist of well known ability, two soprano soloists, a tenor soloist, and an evening of choral music, we feel that we have arranged an outstanding program for music lovers," said the director.

Featured violinist is petit Audrey Avis Aasen, a graduate of the 1939 class of U. of O. summer session; member of Phi Beta, national music, dance and drama society, and violinist in U. of O. symphony for five years. This is her first appearance in Hillsboro.

Mrs. William E. Hinds of Hillsboro and Miss Roberta Whitley of Beaverton, well known and popular soprano soloists, will also appear on the program, as will Lorraine Dossett, tenor soloist. In a recent concert in Medford, an Oregon critic wrote: "Mr. Dossett has the rare vocal equipment of a true artist and uses it amazingly like Richard Crooks."

Beryl Ramp, local pianist will do yeoman service as accompanist for the entire program.

Coffee Club Elects Officers May 9; Plans Art Exhibit

Election of officers of the Coffee club will be held Friday afternoon, May 9, at the one o'clock dessert luncheon meeting at the chamber of commerce rooms. Penny art fund day will be observed and an art display will be shown. Members having pictures to display are to contact Mrs. Fred Engeldinger.

Miss Dorine Foelker has been chosen by the Coffee club as "god-mess" candidate.

4-H Club to Give Plays Friday

JACKTOWN—The 4-H Royal art club of Jacktown met Saturday and finished the 4-H colored posters. The members have also been practicing on three plays to be given May 2, at the Jacktown school, at 8 p. m. The plays are, "Who's the Car?" "A Woman of Judgment," and "Never Again." Cake and ice cream will be served after the program. A small admission will be charged.

Miss Brown Bride Of Mr. O'Neil

Miss Genevieve Louise Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Brown, became the bride of Mr. Alvin Keith O'Neil, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. O'Neil of Yamhill, at a home wedding Tuesday morning at 7:30 o'clock. Rev. R. L. Putnam read the marriage service.

The bride wore a white satin gown with finger-tip veil and carried a bouquet of pink roses and white sweet peas. Miss Betty Johnson was her maid of honor and wore a frock of blue net and lace. Charlotte Cleaver of Seattle, cousin of the bride, was flower girl. Mr. Bernard O'Neil was her brother's best man.

Wedding music was a violin solo by Neville Gibson and piano numbers by Miss Dorothy Kuratli. An arch of spruce and hawthorn made a background for the service.

A reception for the guests, relatives of the couple and employees at the city hall, followed the service. The refreshment table was centered with a tiered wedding cake about which were white snapdragons, sweet peas and carnations.

Out-of-town guests included the bride's aunt and cousin, Mrs. H. F. Cleaver and Charlotte Louise of Seattle; her uncle, Arthur Olney of Chicago, Ill.; the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. O'Neil, and family of Yamhill, and her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. O'Neil of Dunning, Nebraska.

Mrs. O'Neil is a secretary in the city hall and Mr. O'Neil is employed by the Southern Pacific railway company in Portland. They are at home at 440 East Main street.

Helvetia Bride Honored at Party

Mrs. Ernest Zuercher, Mrs. Lou Zuercher and Mrs. Emma Dierdorff were hostesses for a bridal shower at the E. Zuercher home April 22. Honoring Mrs. J. Robert Patterson (Carol Wenger), a recent bride.

For entertainment an airmail package was delivered by a messenger. Burton Zuercher, and after the message was partly read, the guests had to use adjectives to complete the message, which created a great deal of merriment. Bobby Zuercher dressed as a sailor boy on a suit Bill Dierdorff wore in the U. S. navy came into the room with a boat loaded with packages. The boat, which was constructed around a clothes basket by Mrs. Dierdorff, had to make three trips to deliver the many presents received by the bride, who made her voyage of discovery by opening the parcels. Many friends who were unable to attend sent gifts.

Those present besides the honor guest, were the bride's grandmother and mother, Mrs. Alpanalp and Mrs. L. Wenger, Mesdames Fred Jossey, Jack Puhols, Ben Nussbaumer, J. J. Nussbaumer, Louise Bleuer, Wilmer Hofer, J. M. Davidson, Otto Solberger, George Hill, Henry Staehli, Ed Meier, Ray Jackson, Robert Kauer, George Walters, the Misses Grace Beeler, Jean Ann Connell, Margaret Hatchelder, Clara Tschabold, Delores Bleuer, Patricia Snouse and the Wengers.

Mrs. Jossey and Mrs. Wenger poured at a nicely decorated refreshment table, and each guest received a lovely favor.

Mr. and Mrs. Patterson are residing at Belle Park apartments in Portland.
