

New Monument To Be Dedicated On Memorial Day

HILLSBORO—A memorial service will be held in the Banks cemetery on Decoration day at 11 a. m. The service is being planned especially to dedicate to the public the monument flag pole and flag recently erected in honor of all war veterans. Rev. C. H. Schreiber, pastor of the Banks church, will be in charge of the program, and any one who wishes to take part may get in touch with him.

Mrs. Edw. Hume
Mrs. George Edw. Hume returned to her home in Banks Saturday from Portland where she visited her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Hall. While there they visited Cascade Locks, Willamette and Oregon shipyards, Mr. Hume, Timboles bridge and Larch mountain. She visited her son, Joe E. Edw. Hume, who is a Lieutenant in the U. S. navy stationed at Bremerton, Wash. She visited Mr. and Mrs. George Greenwood of Portland.

Mrs. Charles Kemmer drove to Nantux Sunday and visited her sister, Mrs. Roy Gustafson, and family, and her mother, Mrs. Ernest Kangas and family.

Banks School Graduates Six

Grade school graduation will be held May 14 in the grade school gym. Rev. Claud Robin, pastor of the Christian church in Forest Grove, will be the speaker. Janet Bellers will give the address of welcome and Gayle Shook will give the farewell speech. Gene White will give the class history. Irene Klum, the class will read Robert Burns, the class poem. Rev. C. H. Schreiber of Banks will give the invocation. The graduates are Janet Bellers, Robert Burns, Raymond Moneroy, Gene White, Gayle Shook and Irene Klum.

Charles Kemmer started remodeling his store last week.

To Give Recital
Mrs. E. J. Hufford will present her pupils in piano recital in the high school gym May 8, at 8 p. m. Everyone is invited.

Drive to Hollingham
Mrs. Henry Rohrer and Mrs. Max Diverman motored to Hollingham, Wash., Friday and remained until Sunday with their husbands who are employed with the R. D. Hollingham company at Lynden, Wash. Saturday the four drove to Canada, Saturday night they were overnight guests of Mr. and Mrs. Miltard Ryland and family of Belding, Wash. Mrs. Ryland was formerly Miss Ruth Heston of Banks.

Rural Lands Zoned For Fire Protection

tion as the county court shall recommend.
Voting boundaries as outlined at the meeting will be checked in the field by representatives of the county court, state board of forestry and the state fire marshal's office for recommended minor changes. It was decided. The corrected boundaries will then become official until such time as need is felt for a revision.
In addition to those named, others in attendance at the meeting were Walter Vandervort, chief of the Forest Grove rural fire district; J. E. Carpenter, county assessor; William F. Cyrus, county agent; Wilbur Dixon, Hillsboro fire marshal; R. Scott, secretary-treasurer of the Northwest Oregon Rural Protective association; Judge H. D. Neekman and Commissioners J. W. Hughes and James Lewis.
