19 Boy Scouts Attend Leaders' Session at Camp

Nineteen local Boy Scouts enrolled in a leaders' course and five district Scouters spent Saturday and Sunday at Camp Millard, 360-acre Scout area near Estacada, according to D. B. Richards, deputy district commissioner, in charge of the leaders' course.

The two-day camp stay was the wind-up session of the course, four indoor meetings having led up to the outdoor Scouts who successfully completed all requirements of the course will be awarded certificates. Scouters in addition to Richards who attended the camp session were Ben Faber, Tom Bronleewe, Elwood Lehman, all Scoutmasters, and Oliver Westcott, assistant Scoutmaster.

The 19 Scouts were Bud Williams, Lynn Hall, Tony Weil, Hayes Bickford, Sherwood Wilford, Gene Miesler, Norman Lanning, Billy Johnston, Edward Burnett, Ben Rasmussen, Dale Bergreen, Jack Doyle, Bob Halverson, Wayne Fowler, Dick Crockett, Gordon Bronleewe, Jack Scary, Robert Holznagel, and Lester Clark.

On the two-day camp program were competitive cooking, evening campfire with stunts and songs, signaling, first aid and hiking.

Mrs. Patterson Hostess

Mrs. Paul Patterson was hostess at a 1 o'clock luncheon Wednesday at her home, honoring the judges of the Garden club flower show held at the Legion hall. Guests were Mrs. R. B. Denney and Mrs. Robert Stewart of Beaverton, Mrs. B. B. Cooley of Laurel, Dean Collins of Portland, Mrs. George Laver, Mrs. Lee MacIntyre and Mrs. Bert Yates.

Entertain Mothers' Club.—Mrs. Henry Petersen, Mrs. L. A. Jarde and Mrs. John Bowden entertained the St. Matthews Mothers' club and friends with a "500" card party at the Peterson home Friday night. Mrs. Mary Spiering received high score and Mrs. E. T. Finnegan second.

Circle Two Meets.—Circle number two of the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church will meet with Mrs. Agatha Hoover, 607 S. Eighth street, Thursday, May 15.

Visit in Seattle.—Mr. and Mrs. Fay Hulit and Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Hulit made a business trip to Seattle the first of last week. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Sam Hulit, who went along to visit Mr. and Mrs. John McLaren of Seattle, former Hillsboro residents.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Pickens spent Sunday with Ed Hurd at Oregon State college. Their house guest, Mrs. B. C. Schulmerich visited friends at Newberg.

Easterners Visit Here.—Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Baer of Woonsocket, South Dakota, and son, Ross Baer of Washington, D. C., have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Kelley this week. They plan to buy Oregon acreage. Ross Baer is secretary to Congressman Mundt of South Dakota.

Peterson on Vacation.—D. C. Talcott of Portland is the chef at Hillsboro Pharmacy while D. H. Peterson is on a two weeks' vacation. R. W. Sorenson of Goldendale, Wash., is also a new employee at the Pharmacy.

Auld Lang Syne

A second home to the boys of Fort McClellan is the Y. M. C. A. clubhouse in Anniston, Alabama, to which they turn for relaxation during their hours off duty.

Offering facilities for table tennis, dancing and other advantages of wholesome community life, the Y. M. C. A. clubhouse in Anniston is typical of the more than 300 service clubs to be operated by the United Service Organizations for the national defense for the use of the men in uniform and the thousands of young people engaged in vital defense industries.

In order to finance the operation of the service clubs, which the government is building in points adjacent to camps, naval stations and industrial areas, a drive for $10,765,000 will be launched in behalf of the U. S. O. on June 3. Funds resulting from the drive will be devoted to bringing to the members of the armed forces and the workers in defense industries a comprehensive program of recreation, spiritual guidance and companionship.

The U. S. O. consists of the Y. M. C. A., the National Catholic Community service, the Salvation Army, Y. W. C. A., Jewish Welfare board and National Travelers Aid association whose trained workers and volunteers will staff the U. S. O. clubhouses.

Miss Powers Bride Of Jerry Wieber

Miss Mary Catherine Powers, daughter of Mrs. M. Powers of Pendleton, and Mr. Jerome P. Wieber, son of W. H. Wieber of this city, were married at a nuptial mass Monday morning, April 28, at the St. Joseph Catholic church at Pendleton. Father McEenna, S. J., officiated.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Nugent Powers, wore a floor-length dress of white crepe with a finger-tip veil. She carried a white prayer book. Mrs. Charles Alderman of Seattle, the bride's sister, was matron of honor, and wore a formal dress of rose crepe. She carried a bouquet of spring flowers.

A wedding breakfast was served at the Pendleton hotel, following the ceremony.

Mr. Wieber is a graduate of Gonzaga university at Spokane and is manager of the Tualatin Valley Insurance company of Hillsboro.

The couple left immediately for a trip to San Francisco and other California points. They will be at home on East Main street about May 8.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wieber were guests of Mr. Wieber's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schultz, at Pendleton.
