

Heinrich Sets All-day Open House Saturday

An all-day open house program has been planned by Roy W. Heinrich, Case farm machinery dealer here, in connection with formal opening on Saturday, May 10, of his new warehouse, show room and business location on West Baseline street.

Featuring movies on modern farm machinery, an exhibit of all the latest models in Case farm equipment and talks by four representatives of the Case firm, the program will be open to farmers from 10 a. m. to 5 p. m.

J. S. Grimstad, branch manager of the Case Farm Machinery company, will be one of four speakers representing that firm who will explain latest improvements in farm machinery. Heinrich has been a dealer in farm machinery here since 1935.

Walther League To Meet Friday

SCHIEFFLIN—Walther League meeting will be held Friday evening in the parish hall. The executive board meeting was held on Monday evening. Word has been received that Zion Walther League society was declared the winner of First Place in group 1 (congregations having up to 150 communicants) in the Oregon District Messenger and Cresset campaign. A suitable plaque will be awarded the society in the near future.

Next Sunday, May 11, has been set aside by Zion congregation for the participation in the Synod-wide collection to raise a fund to provide spiritual care for the men in the service of our country's army and navy. The special issue of the Lutheran Witness which came out last week contains more information on this collection and its purposes.

The Fathers' dinner and entertainment sponsored by the ladies of Zion Congregation was held at the parish hall Sunday evening. Those who served on the dinner committee were Mesdames Herbert and Hugo Sahnaw, and J. V. Benscotter. The entertainment was as follows: two skits "A Minister's Mistake" by Mesdames Herbert Sahnaw, Jr., Scott Campbell, and J. V. Benscotter, and "Buying Eggs" with Mesdames Herbert Sahnaw Jr., August Kahle and Miss Bernice Heinrich taking parts. Mrs. Kenneth Biersdorf sang several numbers and also sang in a quartet with Mrs. Carl Fragmaier, Misses Lois Sahnaw and Maxine Kerkman played a piano duet and a ladies' chorus sang several numbers. Those serving on the entertainment committee were Mesdames G. J. Schwanke, Robert Fowler, and R. P. Kerkman.

Donald Benscotter won second, fourth, and fifth on budding and grafting at the Agriculture club meet held at Corvallis April 24, 25, and 26.

Attend Wedding
Mr. and Mrs. Joe Cawse and Junita, Katherine and Donald attended the wedding of Mrs. Cawse's nephew, Raymond Willis, to Lydia Samel in the Lutheran church Saturday. Miss Katherine Cawse played the wedding music. The anniversary music festival will be held next Sunday at 8 p. m. in the Central Presbyterian church located on Southeast 32nd and Ankeny in Portland. At this time the Portland Choral Union will be assisted by the valley group. There will be a mass chorus of some 100 voices, a children's chorus of 75 voices, vocal and instrumental solos. Tickets are on sale by Ruday Berwald and Lester Kahle.

The May meeting of Zion Ladies Aid has been postponed one week, and will be held May 15 instead of May 8.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Simantel and daughters have moved into the former home of the late Mr. and Mrs. Francis Chalmers Sr.

Rev. and Mrs. C. F. Nitz and sons returned with a new car from St. Louis, Mo., Saturday. Mrs. Nitz has been visiting her relatives there for the last six weeks and Rev. Nitz joined her two weeks ago.

Mrs. Emma Schmale, who for the last three months assisted in caring for her daughter, the late Mrs. Sam Moore, went to visit with her daughter, Mrs. P. Bierstedt of Dillley. In the near future she plans to visit her son, Harold Schmale, of North Bend.

Anna Schwanke spent Sunday with her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. John Smith of Albany. She also sang in the choral union which

'Grandma' Hanson Observes Birthday

A birthday party was held at the home of Mrs. Freese Lillegard, in honor of her mother's 88th birthday. Her mother, "Grandma" Hanson, has been living with the Lillegards for the past month. Members of the immediate family were present.

Miss Evelyn Hatfield, former resident of Midway, will be married Sunday at the Westminster church in Portland.

Ladies' Aid served a dessert luncheon at the home of Mrs. L. W. Guild, with 17 ladies present. The topic for the meeting was "Motherhood" in honor of Mother's Day.

Omar Moore of Corvallis was a dinner guest at the T. R. Moore home Sunday.

Bible school starts May 21 at the Scholls Methodist church at 2 p. m.

Rowell Brothers had a group of agricultural students from the O. S. C. headed by Prof. W. S. Brown on an inspection trip of their walnut orchards and berry patches last week.

The young folks have dug around and cleaned up the shrubs that are planted on the church grounds.

Mrs. William Chandise was soloist at the church Sunday.

Twenty from the Scholls Sunday school attended the meeting of the Friendly Six at the Mountain Home church Sunday.

Mr. Edgington Dies

CHEHALEM MOUNTAIN—William Edgington, 78, died May 1 at the home of his son, Guy Edgington, who has lived for two years on the farm known as the Blanchard place on the King's Gray road. The body was shipped to Virginia for interment.

gave a concert in Albany Sunday evening. Members of the group who appeared in concert were from the Union of Portland and vicinity and from the Lutheran churches of Corvallis, Albany, and Lebanon.

Zion Walther League and friends are invited to a skating party at the Shute rink Thursday (tonight). Hillsboro Walther League members are the hosts.

Banks Women To Present Pageant Sunday

BANKS Women of the Banks church will present the pageant, "Women in the Changing World," Sunday evening. Special music will go with the pageant. Following the church service a social hour will be held in the parsonage to which everyone is invited.

Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Mead of Dallas spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fay Mead, on Bald mountain.

Returns from Trip
Mrs. Alice Parmley returned home Saturday from a month's trip which took her as far as Somerset, Ky. There she visited a brother who lives in the house in which Mrs. Parmley was born 78 years ago. She also visited two other brothers and a sister. All except one brother, she had not seen for 32 years, when the Parmley family came west. On the last day that Mrs. Parmley was there, a family reunion was held in honor of her and two cousins who accompanied her. The reunion was attended by approximately 100 friends and relatives. Mrs. Parmley was surprised to find so many people still living whom she knew in her girlhood. She found conditions there much as when she left. Many were living in the same houses and were raising the same kind of crops. She also went through a severe electric storm which reminded her of old days. On her way home Mrs. Parmley spent a day with a cousin in Chicago and a night at Buzzman, Mont., with another cousin.

School Represented
Farmington school, was represented at the music festival at the Laurel hall Friday evening with a rhythm band number in costume and a song, "We Are All Americans."

Miss Dorothy Stevens underwent a sinus operation last Tuesday morning. She spent the remainder of the week convalescing at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Stevens, but returned to Portland Monday morning to resume her duties at the Fred Meyer store.

Aid Meets Today
The Christian Ladies Aid will meet at the Farmington church Thursday (today). A no-hostess potluck luncheon will be served.

School Graduates Three
The three eighth grade students taking examinations this week are Betty Ann Stevens, Gladys Lewis, and Bob Burkhalter. The graduation exercises will be held at the Scholls Methodist church May 20. Dr. Levi Pennington of Pacific college at Newberg will be the speaker of the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Dean and children, Deanna and Frank, of

Portland, were week-end guests at the Frank Schulerich home.

Mrs. C. L. Robinson and baby daughter June Ann returned home from the hospital Saturday.

Birthdays Celebrated
Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Rowe and children Freeman, Jr. and Mary Ellen, attended a birthday dinner party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hamel at Cedar Mill. The celebration was in honor of Mrs. Rowe's and Mrs. Hamel's birthday anniversaries.

Daifron Attends
Annual G. A. R. Meet
Dan Daifron of Forest Grove, who celebrated his 95th birthday on Friday, was one of three active G. A. R. veterans who attended the annual meeting of the Grand Army of the Republic, department of Oregon, in the Multnomah county courthouse at Portland Monday.

Daifron is one of Washington county's two remaining G. A. R. vets. William Sahnaw of Schefflin is the other.

Death Calls Lytle, Railway Builder
Elmer E. Lytle, 80, who built the P. R. & N. railway through Washington county to Tillamook, died Saturday at Manhattan beach. Funeral services today at 1 p. m. at Finley's Rose chapel in Portland.

Lytle was born at Tippecanoe, Pa., April 20, 1861. His building of the P. R. & N. line through this county in the early 1900's was his second such venture in Oregon. He had had previous success with the Columbia Southern Railway company, started in 1897.

Longtime Grove Resident Dies
Samuel Gaston Morgan, 89, retired engineer and resident of Forest Grove for the past 31 years, died suddenly at his home Friday.

Funeral services were held Sunday at the Forest Grove Undertaking Company chapel. Rev. Jesse Bunch officiating, with interment in the Mountain View cemetery.

Surviving are the widow, Sarah Elizabeth, and seven children including Margaret Morgan of Forest Grove.

Farmington Ladies Compliment Bride

FARMINGTON Ladies of the Community Welfare club surprised Mrs. Henry Miller (Gladys Burley) with a bridal shower at the home of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Frank Miller, last Tuesday afternoon. The time was spent with confectionery and visiting. Mrs. Miller received many useful gifts. Mrs. L. J. Puncochar was chairman for arrangements for the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. John Adams and family, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Adams and daughter Letha, made a trip to Dufur last Thursday. They visited Mrs. John Adams' grandmother, Mrs. Brown, who is ill in a hospital at The Dalles.

Burt and Ragnor Erickson visited at the home of their brother, O. N. Erickson, and family, last week. The Erickson brothers have rented their acreage near Reedville and are leaving this week for Klamath Falls, where they have employment.

School Represented
Farmington school, was represented at the music festival at the Laurel hall Friday evening with a rhythm band number in costume and a song, "We Are All Americans."

Miss Dorothy Stevens underwent a sinus operation last Tuesday morning. She spent the remainder of the week convalescing at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Stevens, but returned to Portland Monday morning to resume her duties at the Fred Meyer store.

Aid Meets Today
The Christian Ladies Aid will meet at the Farmington church Thursday (today). A no-hostess potluck luncheon will be served.

School Graduates Three
The three eighth grade students taking examinations this week are Betty Ann Stevens, Gladys Lewis, and Bob Burkhalter. The graduation exercises will be held at the Scholls Methodist church May 20. Dr. Levi Pennington of Pacific college at Newberg will be the speaker of the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Dean and children, Deanna and Frank, of

Portland, were week-end guests at the Frank Schulerich home.

Mrs. C. L. Robinson and baby daughter June Ann returned home from the hospital Saturday.

Birthdays Celebrated
Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Rowe and children Freeman, Jr. and Mary Ellen, attended a birthday dinner party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hamel at Cedar Mill. The celebration was in honor of Mrs. Rowe's and Mrs. Hamel's birthday anniversaries.

Daifron Attends
Annual G. A. R. Meet
Dan Daifron of Forest Grove, who celebrated his 95th birthday on Friday, was one of three active G. A. R. veterans who attended the annual meeting of the Grand Army of the Republic, department of Oregon, in the Multnomah county courthouse at Portland Monday.

Daifron is one of Washington county's two remaining G. A. R. vets. William Sahnaw of Schefflin is the other.

Death Calls Lytle, Railway Builder
Elmer E. Lytle, 80, who built the P. R. & N. railway through Washington county to Tillamook, died Saturday at Manhattan beach. Funeral services today at 1 p. m. at Finley's Rose chapel in Portland.

Lytle was born at Tippecanoe, Pa., April 20, 1861. His building of the P. R. & N. line through this county in the early 1900's was his second such venture in Oregon. He had had previous success with the Columbia Southern Railway company, started in 1897.

Longtime Grove Resident Dies
Samuel Gaston Morgan, 89, retired engineer and resident of Forest Grove for the past 31 years, died suddenly at his home Friday.

Funeral services were held Sunday at the Forest Grove Undertaking Company chapel. Rev. Jesse Bunch officiating, with interment in the Mountain View cemetery.

Surviving are the widow, Sarah Elizabeth, and seven children including Margaret Morgan of Forest Grove.

Final Rites Read For Mrs. H. E. Weed

BEAVERTON—Mrs. Howard E. Weed, 71, died in a Portland hospital on May 1, following an extended illness.

Born in Belfast, Ireland, Mrs. Weed came to this country at the age of 16. She early lived in Philadelphia, New Orleans and Chicago, where she resided for a few years following her marriage. In 1910 she came to her late home on Canyon road, where Howard Weed established a large nursery which has since become the National Iris Gardens.

She was an active club member, having served as president of the Women of Rotary, vice-president of the Women's club, and director of the Women's Research club. She is survived by her husband, Howard; two sons, Wilbur of Redding, Cal., and Thurlow of Beaverton; and a daughter, Edith Weed of Detroit.

Services were held in the River-view cemetery chapel Saturday, under arrangements of Pegg's Chapel. Interment was in River-view cemetery.

Death Calls Lytle, Railway Builder
Elmer E. Lytle, 80, who built the P. R. & N. railway through Washington county to Tillamook, died Saturday at Manhattan beach. Funeral services today at 1 p. m. at Finley's Rose chapel in Portland.

Lytle was born at Tippecanoe, Pa., April 20, 1861. His building of the P. R. & N. line through this county in the early 1900's was his second such venture in Oregon. He had had previous success with the Columbia Southern Railway company, started in 1897.

Longtime Grove Resident Dies
Samuel Gaston Morgan, 89, retired engineer and resident of Forest Grove for the past 31 years, died suddenly at his home Friday.

Funeral services were held Sunday at the Forest Grove Undertaking Company chapel. Rev. Jesse Bunch officiating, with interment in the Mountain View cemetery.

Surviving are the widow, Sarah Elizabeth, and seven children including Margaret Morgan of Forest Grove.

Death Calls Lytle, Railway Builder
Elmer E. Lytle, 80, who built the P. R. & N. railway through Washington county to Tillamook, died Saturday at Manhattan beach. Funeral services today at 1 p. m. at Finley's Rose chapel in Portland.

Lytle was born at Tippecanoe, Pa., April 20, 1861. His building of the P. R. & N. line through this county in the early 1900's was his second such venture in Oregon. He had had previous success with the Columbia Southern Railway company, started in 1897.

Longtime Grove Resident Dies
Samuel Gaston Morgan, 89, retired engineer and resident of Forest Grove for the past 31 years, died suddenly at his home Friday.

Funeral services were held Sunday at the Forest Grove Undertaking Company chapel. Rev. Jesse Bunch officiating, with interment in the Mountain View cemetery.

Surviving are the widow, Sarah Elizabeth, and seven children including Margaret Morgan of Forest Grove.

Death Calls Lytle, Railway Builder
Elmer E. Lytle, 80, who built the P. R. & N. railway through Washington county to Tillamook, died Saturday at Manhattan beach. Funeral services today at 1 p. m. at Finley's Rose chapel in Portland.

Lytle was born at Tippecanoe, Pa., April 20, 1861. His building of the P. R. & N. line through this county in the early 1900's was his second such venture in Oregon. He had had previous success with the Columbia Southern Railway company, started in 1897.

Longtime Grove Resident Dies
Samuel Gaston Morgan, 89, retired engineer and resident of Forest Grove for the past 31 years, died suddenly at his home Friday.

Funeral services were held Sunday at the Forest Grove Undertaking Company chapel. Rev. Jesse Bunch officiating, with interment in the Mountain View cemetery.

Surviving are the widow, Sarah Elizabeth, and seven children including Margaret Morgan of Forest Grove.

Death Calls Lytle, Railway Builder
Elmer E. Lytle, 80, who built the P. R. & N. railway through Washington county to Tillamook, died Saturday at Manhattan beach. Funeral services today at 1 p. m. at Finley's Rose chapel in Portland.

Lytle was born at Tippecanoe, Pa., April 20, 1861. His building of the P. R. & N. line through this county in the early 1900's was his second such venture in Oregon. He had had previous success with the Columbia Southern Railway company, started in 1897.

Longtime Grove Resident Dies
Samuel Gaston Morgan, 89, retired engineer and resident of Forest Grove for the past 31 years, died suddenly at his home Friday.

Funeral services were held Sunday at the Forest Grove Undertaking Company chapel. Rev. Jesse Bunch officiating, with interment in the Mountain View cemetery.

Surviving are the widow, Sarah Elizabeth, and seven children including Margaret Morgan of Forest Grove.

Death Calls Lytle, Railway Builder
Elmer E. Lytle, 80, who built the P. R. & N. railway through Washington county to Tillamook, died Saturday at Manhattan beach. Funeral services today at 1 p. m. at Finley's Rose chapel in Portland.

Lytle was born at Tippecanoe, Pa., April 20, 1861. His building of the P. R. & N. line through this county in the early 1900's was his second such venture in Oregon. He had had previous success with the Columbia Southern Railway company, started in 1897.

Longtime Grove Resident Dies
Samuel Gaston Morgan, 89, retired engineer and resident of Forest Grove for the past 31 years, died suddenly at his home Friday.

Funeral services were held Sunday at the Forest Grove Undertaking Company chapel. Rev. Jesse Bunch officiating, with interment in the Mountain View cemetery.

Surviving are the widow, Sarah Elizabeth, and seven children including Margaret Morgan of Forest Grove.

Death Calls Lytle, Railway Builder
Elmer E. Lytle, 80, who built the P. R. & N. railway through Washington county to Tillamook, died Saturday at Manhattan beach. Funeral services today at 1 p. m. at Finley's Rose chapel in Portland.

Lytle was born at Tippecanoe, Pa., April 20, 1861. His building of the P. R. & N. line through this county in the early 1900's was his second such venture in Oregon. He had had previous success with the Columbia Southern Railway company, started in 1897.

Longtime Grove Resident Dies
Samuel Gaston Morgan, 89, retired engineer and resident of Forest Grove for the past 31 years, died suddenly at his home Friday.

Funeral services were held Sunday at the Forest Grove Undertaking Company chapel. Rev. Jesse Bunch officiating, with interment in the Mountain View cemetery.

Surviving are the widow, Sarah Elizabeth, and seven children including Margaret Morgan of Forest Grove.

Death Calls Lytle, Railway Builder
Elmer E. Lytle, 80, who built the P. R. & N. railway through Washington county to Tillamook, died Saturday at Manhattan beach. Funeral services today at 1 p. m. at Finley's Rose chapel in Portland.

Lytle was born at Tippecanoe, Pa., April 20, 1861. His building of the P. R. & N. line through this county in the early 1900's was his second such venture in Oregon. He had had previous success with the Columbia Southern Railway company, started in 1897.

Longtime Grove Resident Dies
Samuel Gaston Morgan, 89, retired engineer and resident of Forest Grove for the past 31 years, died suddenly at his home Friday.

Funeral services were held Sunday at the Forest Grove Undertaking Company chapel. Rev. Jesse Bunch officiating, with interment in the Mountain View cemetery.

Surviving are the widow, Sarah Elizabeth, and seven children including Margaret Morgan of Forest Grove.

Death Calls Lytle, Railway Builder
Elmer E. Lytle, 80, who built the P. R. & N. railway through Washington county to Tillamook, died Saturday at Manhattan beach. Funeral services today at 1 p. m. at Finley's Rose chapel in Portland.

Lytle was born at Tippecanoe, Pa., April 20, 1861. His building of the P. R. & N. line through this county in the early 1900's was his second such venture in Oregon. He had had previous success with the Columbia Southern Railway company, started in 1897.

Longtime Grove Resident Dies
Samuel Gaston Morgan, 89, retired engineer and resident of Forest Grove for the past 31 years, died suddenly at his home Friday.

Funeral services were held Sunday at the Forest Grove Undertaking Company chapel. Rev. Jesse Bunch officiating, with interment in the Mountain View cemetery.

Surviving are the widow, Sarah Elizabeth, and seven children including Margaret Morgan of Forest Grove.

Death Calls Lytle, Railway Builder
Elmer E. Lytle, 80, who built the P. R. & N. railway through Washington county to Tillamook, died Saturday at Manhattan beach. Funeral services today at 1 p. m. at Finley's Rose chapel in Portland.

Lytle was born at Tippecanoe, Pa., April 20, 1861. His building of the P. R. & N. line through this county in the early 1900's was his second such venture in Oregon. He had had previous success with the Columbia Southern Railway company, started in 1897.

Longtime Grove Resident Dies
Samuel Gaston Morgan, 89, retired engineer and resident of Forest Grove for the past 31 years, died suddenly at his home Friday.

Funeral services were held Sunday at the Forest Grove Undertaking Company chapel. Rev. Jesse Bunch officiating, with interment in the Mountain View cemetery.

Surviving are the widow, Sarah Elizabeth, and seven children including Margaret Morgan of Forest Grove.

Death Calls Lytle, Railway Builder
Elmer E. Lytle, 80, who built the P. R. & N. railway through Washington county to Tillamook, died Saturday at Manhattan beach. Funeral services today at 1 p. m. at Finley's Rose chapel in Portland.

Lytle was born at Tippecanoe, Pa., April 20, 1861. His building of the P. R. & N. line through this county in the early 1900's was his second such venture in Oregon. He had had previous success with the Columbia Southern Railway company, started in 1897.

Longtime Grove Resident Dies
Samuel Gaston Morgan, 89, retired engineer and resident of Forest Grove for the past 31 years, died suddenly at his home Friday.

Funeral services were held Sunday at the Forest Grove Undertaking Company chapel. Rev. Jesse Bunch officiating, with interment in the Mountain View cemetery.

Surviving are the widow, Sarah Elizabeth, and seven children including Margaret Morgan of Forest Grove.

Death Calls Lytle, Railway Builder
Elmer E. Lytle, 80, who built the P. R. & N. railway through Washington county to Tillamook, died Saturday at Manhattan beach. Funeral services today at 1 p. m. at Finley's Rose chapel in Portland.

Lytle was born at Tippecanoe, Pa., April 20, 1861. His building of the P. R. & N. line through this county in the early 1900's was his second such venture in Oregon. He had had previous success with the Columbia Southern Railway company, started in 1897.

Longtime Grove Resident Dies
Samuel Gaston Morgan, 89, retired engineer and resident of Forest Grove for the past 31 years, died suddenly at his home Friday.

Funeral services were held Sunday at the Forest Grove Undertaking Company chapel. Rev. Jesse Bunch officiating, with interment in the Mountain View cemetery.

Surviving are the widow, Sarah Elizabeth, and seven children including Margaret Morgan of Forest Grove.

Death Calls Lytle, Railway Builder
Elmer E. Lytle, 80, who built the P. R. & N. railway through Washington county to Tillamook, died Saturday at Manhattan beach. Funeral services today at 1 p. m. at Finley's Rose chapel in Portland.

Lytle was born at Tippecanoe, Pa., April 20, 1861. His building of the P. R. & N. line through this county in the early 1900's was his second such venture in Oregon. He had had previous success with the Columbia Southern Railway company, started in 1897.

Longtime Grove Resident Dies
Samuel Gaston Morgan, 89, retired engineer and resident of Forest Grove for the past 31 years, died suddenly at his home Friday.

Funeral services were held Sunday at the Forest Grove Undertaking Company chapel. Rev. Jesse Bunch officiating, with interment in the Mountain View cemetery.

Surviving are the widow, Sarah Elizabeth, and seven children including Margaret Morgan of Forest Grove.

Death Calls Lytle, Railway Builder
Elmer E. Lytle, 80, who built the P. R. & N. railway through Washington county to Tillamook, died Saturday at Manhattan beach. Funeral services today at 1 p. m. at Finley's Rose chapel in Portland.

Lytle was born at Tippecanoe, Pa., April 20, 1861. His building of the P. R. & N. line through this county in the early 1900's was his second such venture in Oregon. He had had previous success with the Columbia Southern Railway company, started in 1897.

Longtime Grove Resident Dies
Samuel Gaston Morgan, 89, retired engineer and resident of Forest Grove for the past 31 years, died suddenly at his home Friday.

Funeral services were held Sunday at the Forest Grove Undertaking Company chapel. Rev. Jesse Bunch officiating, with interment in the Mountain View cemetery.

Surviving are the widow, Sarah Elizabeth, and seven children including Margaret Morgan of Forest Grove.

Death Calls Lytle, Railway Builder
Elmer E. Lytle, 80, who built the P. R. & N. railway through Washington county to Tillamook, died Saturday at Manhattan beach. Funeral services today at 1 p. m. at Finley's Rose chapel in Portland.

Lytle was born at Tippecanoe, Pa., April 20, 1861. His building of the P. R. & N. line through this county in the early 1900's was his second such venture in Oregon. He had had previous success with the Columbia Southern Railway company, started in 1897.

Longtime Grove Resident Dies
Samuel Gaston Morgan, 89, retired engineer and resident of Forest Grove for the past 31 years, died suddenly at his home Friday.

Funeral services were held Sunday at the Forest Grove Undertaking Company chapel. Rev. Jesse Bunch officiating, with interment in the Mountain View cemetery.

Surviving are the widow, Sarah Elizabeth, and seven children including Margaret Morgan of Forest Grove.

Death Calls Lytle, Railway Builder
Elmer E. Lytle, 80, who built the P. R. & N. railway through Washington county to Tillamook, died Saturday at Manhattan beach. Funeral services today at 1 p. m. at Finley's Rose chapel in Portland.

Lytle was born at Tippecanoe, Pa., April 20, 1861. His building of the P. R. & N. line through this county in the early 1900's was his second such venture in Oregon. He had had previous success with the Columbia Southern Railway company, started in 1897.

Longtime Grove Resident Dies
Samuel Gaston Morgan, 89, retired engineer and resident of Forest Grove for the past 31 years, died suddenly at his home Friday.

Funeral services were held Sunday at the Forest Grove Undertaking Company chapel. Rev. Jesse Bunch officiating, with interment in the Mountain View cemetery.

Surviving are the widow, Sarah Elizabeth, and seven children including Margaret Morgan of Forest Grove.

Final Rites Read For Mrs. H. E. Weed

BEAVERTON—Mrs. Howard E. Weed, 71, died in a Portland hospital on May 1, following an extended illness.