Pastor to Attend Methodist Meet

CORNELIUS — Rev. and Mrs. Charles Schrieber will attend the annual Methodist conference of Oregon at the First Methodist church in Eugene from June 16 to June 22. Mrs. A. J. Oliver, local delegate, has been chosen to attend with Mrs. Alfred Dore as alternate.

Children's Day and Student Day was observed Sunday at the Methodist church. Mrs. Lester Mooberry's primary class gave numbers, and Polly Jones, Lois Milne and Dorothy Garrison sang. Mrs. Charles Schrieber told of her student life in Sweden, and Rev. Schrieber also told of some of his student experiences in his sermon.

Tuesday evening the stewards of the Methodist church met at the church to plan for the new conference year beginning June 23. A canvass will be made soon by this group. The budget for the year includes pastor's salary, bishops, conference claimants, world service, janitor, light, water, taxes, literature, wood, insurance and miscellaneous. Stewards include Mrs. Walter Collinge, chairman, Mrs. Alfred Dore, Mrs. Meda French, Mrs. Herman Jones, Mrs. A. J. Oliver, Mrs. Rudolph Schultz, Mrs. Lloyd Shaw, Mrs. Walt Watkins, J. Z. Haynes, George Milne Sr., Mrs. Eleanor Mundorf, Ed Phillips and James Wilfong. Mrs. J. Z. Haynes has been elected group secretary. The name "Methodist Church" has been changed legally from the former name "Methodist Episcopal" by legal papers and the signing by four 1941 trustees, Lester Mooberry, chairman, Mattie Smith, secretary, James Wilfong and George Milne Sr. The church yard was kept up this year by the pastor, Rev. Charles Schrieber. The cutting of the tall grass on the church's vacant lot was made possible by Mr. and Mrs. Lester Mooberry. Mrs. Charles Schrieber recently donated two coverings in silver, red and white for the two social room tables. Two new hymnals were added this week by Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Dore and Mr. and Mrs. J. Z. Haynes. Mrs. Lester Mooberry has just completed a new silver and black bulletin board for the church. This Sunday is the last of this conference year and Rev. Schrieber will give a review of the past year and a glance into the future. It is the general wish that the Schriebers be returned here for the coming year.
