

Business Women to Install Officers Friday

Officers will be installed and "Goddess" candidates will be honor guests Friday night at the dinner meeting of the Business and Professional Women's club at the chamber of commerce. Dinner will be served at 6:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Margaret Sahnaw was re-elected as president of the B. P. club at the business meeting last Thursday night at the home of Mrs. Emma M. Kinney.

Other officers to serve for the 1941-42 year are Mrs. Mabel Grass, vice-president (re-elected); Birdlyn Matteson, second vice-president; Mrs. Helen Austin, recording secretary; Dorothy Harms, corresponding secretary (re-elected); Mildred Hanes, treasurer, and Corinne Pennington, council member for three-year term. These officers and standing committee chairmen will be installed Friday night by Miss Evangeline Philbin of Portland, state president.

Held-over council members are Mrs. Edna Tupper and Mrs. Fayetta Allen.

Miss Tennessee Weathered, dean of girls of the Hillsboro union high school, will be the speaker and will tell of her work in the schools. The club trio will sing several special numbers on the musical program.

A special feature of the evening will be the presentation of a certificate of award won by a team from the B. P. club in a traffic quiz in competition with the Altruism club of Portland. The team is composed of Mrs. Sahnaw, Mrs. Grass, Mrs. Isabel Warren, and Miss Elva Mae Wells. They will appear on KOIN tonight (Thursday) at 10:30 o'clock on the secretary of state safety program conducted by Stanley Church.

Topic of roll-call will be "States I Have Lived In."

At the business meeting it was voted to endorse the plan of the chamber of commerce to have a "Welcome to Newcomers" meeting at Shute park pavilion on the evening of August 27, preceding the opening of the county fair.

Forest Hills Women Play Golf at Woodburn

Women golfers at Forest Hills country club played at Woodburn this morning and were guests of the Woodburn ladies for lunch at the club house.

On National Cover

Members of the Oregon League of Women Voters were surprised this week to find a picture of their own Mrs. Rex Wilson of Forest Grove and of Governor Charles A. Sprague used as a cover on the June number of the members' magazine published by the National League of Women Voters. The picture had previously been used in the Oregonian at the time of the state league's "M-day" in March, planned by Mrs. Wilson, membership chairman, to enroll "more members for more democracy." The photograph shows Governor Sprague discussing with Mrs. Wilson her plans for the membership campaign.

Hosts for Dinner Party

Mr. and Mrs. Alf O. Johnson of Forest Grove entertained a number of Hillsboro friends at a dinner party last Thursday evening. Guests were Messrs. and Mesdames Harry Morgan, A. W. Hoffman, H. L. MacKenzie, J. M. Person, A. H. Bush, R. E. Roster, Ed Soule, and Mrs. R. J. Nicol. The evening was spent in playing bridge and other games. Mrs. H. L. MacKenzie receiving high score and Mrs. Nicol second at bridge.

Move to Hillsboro

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hagg have taken residence at the Washington hotel, since Mr. Hagg sold his trucking business at Taft. Mrs. Hagg is a daughter of Mrs. Carra English, and a sister of Mrs. J. W. Kelley. Another daughter and sister, Mrs. George Ebner, and her daughter Pat of Valer, Montana, are expected Saturday for a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Harrington left Tuesday for their home in Bend, after a few days' visit at the home of their relatives, the Harringtons and Roads. They were called here by the death of Mr. Harrington's sister, Mrs. Clarence Barber.

Miss Gregg Bride Of Mr. David Gill

A beautiful wedding was solemnized in Portland Sunday afternoon when Miss Doris Gregg, daughter of Mr. Thomas W. Gregg of Hillsboro, became the bride of Mr. David H. Gill of Seattle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gill of Vancouver, Wash. The ceremony took place at 4 o'clock at the church of St. Michael and All Angels and a reception followed at the home of the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Neal Robertson.

Rev. Ayres performed the ceremony. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin gown with a veil of old lace that her mother wore and that her grandmother wore over 50 years ago. She carried a bouquet of calla lilies.

The matron of honor was dressed in aqua blue. Miss Case in yellow and Miss Gill in blue. They carried bouquets of gladioli in pastel shades harmonizing with their dresses.

Mrs. Paul Alexander of Longview was matron of honor. Miss Geraldine Gill, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Laura Case, cousin of the bride, were bridesmaids. Mr. Thomas W. Gregg Jr., the bride's brother, was best man.

Miss Dorothy Gill, sister of the bridegroom, cut the wedding cake, assisted by Miss Eleanor Hanley and Miss Patricia Woodrow. Mrs. Ormond Case and Mrs. Peter Case poured.

The bride is a graduate of Hillsboro high school and Pacific university. For the past year she has been English instructor in the Parkside school in Hood River county. The bridegroom is assistant district attorney at Seattle.

The young couple left for Cambridge Island for a week's honeymoon trip, and upon their return will make their home in Seattle.

Last Thursday evening Miss Margaret Laver arranged a dessert-bridge party in honor of Miss Gregg.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Ellis, Mr. and Mrs. William Shaw of Yamhill, Emmott Baxter of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Young, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stuart, and Miss Josephine Stuart spent Sunday picnicking at Silver Creek falls.

Mrs. A. E. Butterfield of Portland is a guest this week of her son and daughter-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. George Butterfield.

Mrs. Sparks Will Present Pupils In Two Recitals

Erma Taylor Sparks will present two of her piano pupils in recitals next week. Ida Lou Hagg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Hagg of Reedville, will be presented Monday evening, June 23, at the Reedville church, and Frances Jean Hibbard on Wednesday evening, June 25, at the Hillsboro Methodist church. Frances is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Hibbard of this city.

Mrs. Mabel B. Grass was a week-end guest at the beach home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hammack at Nelscott.

Coffee Club Holds Picnic on Friday

A picnic and short business meeting of the Coffee club will be held Friday at the home of Mrs. H. J. Hibbard, North Third avenue. Picnic lunch will be served at 1 o'clock, and officers-elect will act as hostesses. Coffee will be furnished.
