

Friends Surprise The Mooberrys On Anniversary Date

CORNELIUS—Mr. and Mrs. Lester Mooberry were surprised Sunday at their home in Hillsboro at noon, when they returned from church and found 25 members and friends of the Cornelius Methodist church waiting to serve them with a pet-luck dinner. The Mooberrys began their attendance at the Hillsboro Methodist church Sunday, after being life members of the Cornelius church. The group gathered to help them in observing their twentieth wedding anniversary and as a farewell from their home church.

During the dinner Mrs. George Milne presented Rev. and Mrs. Charles Schrieber with a gift and bouquet from their congregation, as a welcome back from the conference. Rev. Schrieber left devotions at the tables.

At 3 o'clock they were surprised again when relatives, close friends and the bridal party of 20 years ago. Another wedding ceremony was held by the fireplace.

Mrs. Frank Doobier sang "At Dawning" and Russell Morgan, cousin of the couple, sang "I Love You Truly." Both were accompanied by Mrs. Lloyd Shaw, niece of the couple. Miss Beth Cochran, another niece, played Lohengrin's wedding march. The procession was headed by Carol Ann Shaw, grandniece of the couple. John Allen Shaw, grandnephew, the tiny ring-bearer, carried the two wedding rings on a heart-shaped pink satin cushion.

Mrs. Lloyd Shaw and Mrs. Mattie Smith, sister of the bride, were flower girls. They carried green baskets holding pink roses and bouvardia, tied with tulle bows of white, which were the first wedding bouquets.

Mrs. Ralph Withycombe as matron of honor, wore blue lace and carried an arm bouquet of pink roses, tied with a pink tulle bow. The bride, who was given in marriage by her uncle, William G. Hare, wore her first wedding dress of white net and princess lace over white satin. Her full veil was of tulle and formed a cap, which was held with orange blossoms. Her bouquet was of roses, lilies of the valley and bouvardia with a white tulle bow and white satin streamers, entwined with roses, which were from her first bouquet.

They were met at the altar by the pastor, Rev. John W. Warrill of Central Methodist church, Portland, formerly of Cornelius, who performed the double ring ceremony. Joseph Mann, brother of the bride, was best man and Alston Fitch was usher.

Following the renewal of vows ceremony, he presented the couple with a floor lamp as a gift from the members of the Cornelius church and friends. He was assisted by Mrs. Alfred Dore and Mrs. Meta French, church members. Mrs. Louise Cochran, sister of the bridegroom, presented the couple with two porch chairs, assisted by Ray Mann and William Mann, brothers of the bride.

Carol and John Shaw sang two songs, accompanied by their mother, Mrs. Lloyd Shaw, Mary Rae Mann, with violin, and Lucille Irene Mann at the piano, both nieces of the couple, played a duet. Miss Joyce Jones accompanied Miss Joyce Thompson as she sang a solo. A table full of gifts was presented, most of them being china, which is the twentieth anniversary emblem.

The bride threw her bouquet and it was caught by Miss Joyce Jones. A reception was held, the tables holding a lighted candelabra and a centerpiece of pink snapdragons. A small table held a large three-tier wedding cake, which was made as of 20 years ago by Mrs. Henrietta Morgan, aunt of the couple. Mrs. Morgan served the cake, assisted by Mrs. Louise Cochran and first cut by the bride, Mrs. Lloyd Shaw decorated the cake in white ribbons with pink centers, silver leaves and bride and groom. Mrs. Joseph Coulson Hare, aunt of the couple, and Mrs. Joseph Mann, sister-in-law of the bride, presided at the punch bowl. Mrs. Ray Mann and Mrs. William Mann, sisters-in-law of the bride, served. Mrs. Walter Collinge, Mrs. Meta French and Mrs. Dore assisted in serving and acted as hostesses. Priscilla Ann Mann and Barbara Jane Mann, nieces of the couple, secured the names of the 75 guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Mooberry were married in the Cornelius Methodist church June 29, 1921, at 8:30, with 300 in attendance.

Hillsboro Girl Weds Salem Man

Miss Winona Putnam, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Putnam of this city, became the bride of Mr. George W. Bowen of Salem Sunday afternoon. The wedding, unprecedented in the history of the Christian churches of the state, took place at the conclusion of their 90th annual convention in the tabernacle in Turner before an estimated crowd of 2000 people.

Immediately following the close of the convention the young couple were first dedicated to the Christian ministry in an impressive service conducted by Guy L. Drill, the bridegroom's pastor and minister of First church, Salem, assisted by the Rahn sisters, musicians. Following this dedicatory service, Prof. Lorraine Dossat sang "Because," with Mrs. Dossat, accompanist. Then to the strains of a wedding march the couple came unaccompanied to the platform, where the bride's father read the ring ceremony and C. F. Swander, state secretary, offered the prayer.

The bride wore a beige afternoon dress with blue accessories and a corsage of gardenias. The platform was decorated very simply but effectively with a foreground and background of fern, Oregon spray and pink roses.

A reception for the immediate families was held in the evening at the home of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Bowen, in Salem.

The bridegroom is a graduate of the Salem schools and a student two years at Willamette university. He is at present employed in Corvallis, where they will reside for the summer and in the fall it is his intention to move to Eugene and begin studies at Northwest Christian college in preparation for his life work as a minister. Mrs. Bowen has had two years as student in the Bible college and is a graduate of Hillsboro union high school.

The bride was complimented with a shower last Monday evening by a group of friends at the home of Mrs. Chris Kowatz at Salem.

Enschedes Hosts At Family Reunion

Thirty persons were at the W. J. Enschede home on south Seventh avenue Sunday for a family reunion. Among those present were Mr. Enschede's mother, Mrs. Cya Enschede of Forest Grove; and from outside the county Dr. and Mrs. W. J. Gilstrap and daughter Carrie, Mr. and Mrs. William van Groos, Mr. and Mrs. Gene van Groos, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Whistler and three children of Portland; Mrs. Geraldine Trimble of Oregon City; Mr. and Mrs. John Enschede of Donald; and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. van Groos of Anity.

Son Arrives—Announcement has been received here of the birth of a son, William Arthur, to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Aldinger (Hulda Mohr) of Portland, June 24, at the Emanuel hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Aldinger are former residents of Hillsboro.

Gwen Montgomery of West Linn spent a few days this week with Frances Jean Hibbard.

ding book, and their twenty-year wedding book, a gift of the officiating pastor. Miss Verle Burkhardt of Harrisburg and Mrs. Mary Moore of Seattle, first bridesmaids, were unable to be present and Byron and Gilbert Mooberry, brothers of the bridegroom, were also absent because of illness.

Out-of-town guests other than Cornelius and Hillsboro were Mrs. Joseph Coulson Hare, Mrs. W. B. Hare, Rev. and Mrs. John W. Warrill, Mr. and Mrs. Alston Fitch and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Mann and Barbara Jane, all of Portland; Mrs. Georgia Reed, Eleanor Reed and Carole Hermiston of Gresham; Rev. and Mrs. Charles H. Schrieber and Mrs. Robert Houck of Banks; Mrs. James Adkinson and children of McMinville; Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Webb of Beaverton; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Withycombe of Grabel; Mrs. Frank Imbrie and Mr. and Mrs. James Imbrie and son of West Union.

State Officers of V. F. W. Visit Local Post Friday Night

A special meeting of Washington County Post 2666, Veterans of Foreign Wars, was held Friday at which time reports of the delegates to the state encampment at Bend were given.

One of the most important things taking place at the encampment was the re-districting of state, putting Post 2666 and Post 3452 of Tualatin in district three. Commander Brandaw was elected district commander of the new district and Comrade Mailey of Post 3452, senior vice-commander.

Department Commander Louis Starr and Department Quartermaster McGuffin were visitors at the meeting and Commander Starr announced there would be a district meeting July 11 at which time all officers not elected would be chosen and obligated by the Department Commander. All members are urged to attend the meeting.

Comrade Lowell Brown reported a full supply of fireworks on hand and the main thing was lots of good weather and customers. In response to a letter from the parade committee for the Fourth of July it was decided to march in the parade, and as many members as can be urged to be at the Legion hall at 9:30 Friday morning.

Hosts at Dinner Party—Mr. and Mrs. Ray Miller entertained Tuesday evening with a dinner party. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Frank Malcom of Portland, formerly of Hillsboro, and Misses Mildred and Zola Bartholomew of Portland, sisters of Mrs. Miller. Barbara Miller, who has been visiting at the Bartholomew home, returned with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Amacher and daughters returned Saturday from a vacation trip to the beaches, Marshfield, and as far south as Ashland.

Miss Schuetze and Mr. Jones Wedded

Miss Florence Elizabeth Schuetze, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul F. Schuetze of West Slope, became the bride of Mr. James O. Jones of Seattle, son of Mr. and Mrs. James B. Jones of Beaverton, at a nuptial mass Sunday morning at the St. Cecilia's church at Beaverton. Rev. George S. O'Keefe officiated.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white marquisette and lace with finger-tip veil and carried a bouquet of roses, snapdragons and bouvardia. Miss Camilla Schuetze was maid of honor for her sister, Miss Beth Jones, sister of the bridegroom, was bridesmaid and Rosemary Schuetze was flower girl. The girls wore matching dresses of pink marquisette with lace inserts and picture hats. They carried bouquets of sweet peas and carnations.

Vincent Schuetze acted as best man and Eugene and Merle Jones were altar boys. Raymond Schuetze was an usher.

Mrs. C. P. Baile played the wedding music, and "Ave Maria" was sung by the choir.

A reception was held at the Huber hall for about 150 friends and relatives.

The couple left for a wedding trip to Canada and will be at home at Seattle, where the bridegroom is employed by Boeing Aircraft company.

The bride has been complimented with many parties given by friends during the past month.

Mrs. Powers Honored—Mrs. William Powers of Olympia, Wash., was the guest of honor at a picnic given for her by the Sewing club Tuesday evening at the Guy Paine home near Oregon.

H. E. Club Meets—Home Economics club of the Hillsboro Grange will meet in the club room July 10. Mrs. Danielson and Mrs. Uery will be the hostesses.

"Live and Enjoy Independence Day" Red Cross Appeal

An appeal to Americans to "live and enjoy our Independence Day" is being issued by 3700 Red Cross chapters throughout America. W. F. Norman (chairman of the Washington County chapter) said today.

In July 1940, accidents took a toll of 9999 lives, said Norman. "That number will be even higher this year unless every American pledges himself to rules of safety."

The Red Cross listed the following suggestions to holiday-makers: 1. Drive Carefully. 2. Enjoy your lunch, but wait until it has digested before you swim. 3. Swim in waters that have been tested for safe bathing and are well guarded.

4. Remember that canoes and boats demand skilled handling. They are death traps for the novice.

5. Avoid firecrackers. They cause more injuries than thrills.

Buxton Merchant Weds Miss Markee

BUXTON—Vincent (Bob) Crop, local merchant, and Miss Mildred Markee of Timber were married at 10 o'clock Monday morning. After a short wedding trip to the Catalina Islands the young couple will reside at Banks. Mr. Crop has owned Crop's mercantile store here for the past several months.

Rebekahs Install Officers Tuesday

Mrs. Emily Churend will be installed as noble grand of the Hillsboro Rebekah lodge No. 34 at a meeting Tuesday, July 3. Mrs. Olive Ramey, district deputy, will be installing officer.

Marriage Announced

CORNELIUS—Mrs. Louise Geiger made the announcement this week of the marriage of her daughter, Miss Louise Geiger, to Raymond Woods of Los Angeles, Cal.

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Pearce have moved to Hillsboro from Klamath Falls and are residing at 468 S. Fifth avenue. Mr. Pearce will write automobile insurance.

Assembly Invited To Hillsboro 1942

An invitation for the Grand Assembly of Rainbow Girls to meet here in 1942 has been extended by the local Assembly. It was announced at the last meeting.

Plans were made to hold a rummage sale in August, and those having anything for this sale are asked to contact Dorothy Coomer. Next meeting in September.

Mrs. Frances Conover and son of Portland are moving here this week. Mrs. Conover will be employed by the Farm Security Administration, replacing Nellie Felton who has enrolled at a business school at Portland.

FOR INDEPENDENCE

Tirelessly working to safeguard and improve the diet of the American people are the members of the great food industry—farmers, manufacturers, research scientists, home economists, grocers—that America may be nutritionally strong—well able to maintain her freedom and independence at any time.
