Negro Tenor Sings Here August 19

A concert open to the public will be given at the Christian church August 19 at 8 p. m. Ruth McFarlin, talented young negro tenor will present a varied program.

Mr. McFarlin is reputed to possess the greatest tenor voice of any negro on the concert stage. He is a graduate of Southern university at Baton Rouge, La., and Eastman School of Music, Rochester, N. Y. Since entering the music field he has sung in some of the largest auditoriums and schools in America and Canada.

The gifted tenor chooses not only the familiar songs of the south and the spirituals which he sings with a sympathetic interpretation of the negro race, but also selections from old masters of music, Bach, Handel, Schubert, Massenet and Donizetti. He sings in four languages.

Mr. McFarlin is accompanied by his wife, Hazel McFarlin, an artist in her own right and who adds much to the success of her husband's program.

No admission charge is made but an offering will be received for the benefit of Piney Woods school, Mississippi.

B. P. Club Hears Report on Happy Days Activities

The spacious lawn at the home of Miss Angie Harrington, an ideal place for a garden party, was the scene of the Business and Professional Women's club picnic and business meeting Friday night, beginning with a pot-luck supper at 6:30.

The club's participation in the Happy Days celebration—sponsoring the Goddess candidates, the candidates' dance and the Goddess' ball—was the most successful of the many years the club has sponsored this feature, according to a report by Mrs. Wilma Hull, chairman of the committee. The committee was highly praised for the management of the colorful events. Mrs. Hull was assisted by Mesdames Eunice Kimmie, Helen Austin, Maude Stannard, Miss Hilda Hanes, and other members of the club.

Praise was also voiced for Miss Beryl Matteson, who compiled the scrapbook of club activities which won third place at the state convention in competition with cities much larger than Hillsboro. It was announced that the first district conference of the 1941-42 club year would be held at Albany the week-end of August 23 and 24.

The August meeting will be a picnic in the garden at the home of Mrs. Wilma Hull with Mrs. Anna Townsend as assisting hostess.
