

Miss Challacombe Weds Mr. Hieber At Church Rite

A bride of Sunday evening, July 27, was Miss Dorothy Marie Challacombe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Challacombe, whose wedding to Mr. Melvin Glen Hieber, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Hieber of Vernonia, took place at 8 o'clock in the evening at the All Saints Episcopal church in Hillsboro. Father Newton Penberthy performed the ceremony before an altar banked with white summer flowers and white candles.

Mrs. Fred Sewell played the wedding marches, Lohengrin's as the processional and Mendelssohn as the recessional. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white satin made in the Empire style with a seed pearl necklace, fitted bodice and full circular train. Her full length veil of illusion with lace trim and interlaced inserts of lace at each corner was caught in her hair by a coronet of orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of orchids, gardenias, and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Vernon Lawrence Manary of Vancouver, Wash., was the matron of honor. She wore a gown of white net made in the Empire style with white gardenias in her hair, and carried a bouquet of white carnations and bouvardia.

Mr. Lowell Hieber was his brother's best man, and Mesdames W. Bush of Hillsboro and John McCulloch of Portland were the ushers.

A reception for close friends and relatives was held after the ceremony. The bride's mother wore a rose beige lace gown and a corsage of gardenias and bouvardia. Mrs. Hieber, mother of the bridegroom, wore a blue crepe gown with a corsage of shaded flowers. The bride's cake was cut by Mrs. Douglas DeCew of The Dalles, sister of the bridegroom. Assisting were Mrs. C. W. Hieber, Mrs. Vernon Lawrence Manary, and Mrs. Robert E. Cox Jr.

For traveling the bride chose a navy blue costume suit with matching accessories and a corsage of white orchids.

Mr. and Mrs. Hieber will be at home in Hillsboro after August 1, where he is the deputy district attorney.

Visitor Honored.—Mrs. Virgil Crum was hostess at a buffet supper at her home in N. E. Alameda, Portland, Friday evening, honoring Miss Ethel Mae Stibbs of San Mateo, Cal., house guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Richardson. Miss Stibbs left Sunday for her home after a two weeks' visit here.

Miss Scherrer Weds A. F. Delplanche

Miss Frances Welma Scherrer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolf Scherrer of Hillsboro, became the bride of Mr. Alfred Francis Delplanche, son of Mrs. Theodore Vanderzanden of Roy, at a nuptial mass Tuesday morning, July 29, at St. Edwards church of North Plains. The father William J. Delplanche, cousin of the bridegroom, officiated.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a traditional white satin gown with sweetheart neckline trimmed with seed pearls and full length train, with a finger-tip veil falling from a halo of seed pearls. She carried a white prayer book decorated with gardenias, roses, the prayer book which was the same carried by her mother at her wedding.

She was attended by Miss Gladys Van Lom, who wore a shell pink broadcloth gown with a matching shoulder length veil and carried a colonial bouquet of pink roses and white carnations.

Clarence Vanderzanden was best man, Paul and Herman Vanderzanden were ushers. Mrs. Francis Barr sang Schubert's "Ave Maria," accompanied by Miss Kathleen Caldwell, who also played the wedding march.

The church was beautifully decorated with white gladioli and pink larkspur.

A reception was held at the Knights of Pythias hall at North Plains following the ceremony, and the young couple entertained their friends with a dance in the evening.

After a short wedding trip the young couple will reside on the bridegroom's farm northwest of Hillsboro.
