Battery E Captain Expresses Thanks

An expression of thanks for the welcome and hospitality shown by Hillsboro to Battery E soldiers on their recent stop-over here was received by Mayor S. Rogers this week. A letter from Captain Alfred Hinz, commanding officer. The letter follows:

Fort Lewis, Wash., July 23, 1941.

The Honorable Hugh S. Rogers, Mayor, City of Hillsboro, Oregon.

Your Honor:

I wish to thank, through your honor, and in the name of the officers and men of this command, the people of the City of Hillsboro, for the welcome and hospitality shown by them to Battery E during its recent visit.

The members of the battery have frequently mentioned to me their appreciation of the warm welcome and most enjoyable entertainment arranged for them by the committee appointed by your honor.

This organization feels that it was extremely fortunate in being allowed to visit a community whose citizens proved to be such gracious hosts.

Sincerely yours,
Alfred E. Hinz,
Capt., 21st F. A.,
Comdg. Batry. E.
