

Trinity Lutheran Mission Festival Scheduled Sunday

The Trinity Lutheran Ladies Society will host Sunday, with Mrs. George Reule as hostess.

Plans for the annual mission festival to be held next Sunday at the Fir Grove Dairy grove were completed. Ladies of this congregation will serve picnic dinner at noon with light refreshments at the close of the day. Mrs. Frank Scholmerich, chairman, assisted by Mesdames Hy Steinko, Dan Erdman and Edward Freudenlund, are in charge of the arrangements.

Mrs. H. Peters of Cornelius was added to the membership of the society.

Guests for the afternoon were Mesdames Hy Deelling, Robert Harrington, Lillie Krahmer, G. H. Blum, J. S. McFell, Abel Stafford, Edna Sahnow and H. H. Hertz of Hillsboro. Mesdames C. H. Helm of Aloha, Charles Arp of Randolph, Neb., and Miss Linda Kohn of Cornelius.

Visiting committee for August includes Mesdames Joe Weers and Mrs. Bertha Gane.

Miss Sipe Bride Of Mr. Young

COOPER MOUNTAIN—Miss Gertrude Sipe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Sipe, and Claire F. Young, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. Young of Portland, were married Saturday afternoon at the Methodist church at Beaverton by Rev. W. P. Keighan.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a dress of white satin and tulle, with a fingertip veil held in place by an orange blossom tiara. She carried a shower bouquet of gladioli and yellow roses.

Ushers included Gale Emmons and Carvel Smith.

Two solos were sung "O, Promise Me" and "I Love You Truly" by Miss Grace Larson, accompanied by Miss Kathryn Pomroy. The wedding march was played by Kathryn Pomroy.

After the ceremony the wedding couple left for Pendleton, where they plan to make their home.

Freak Zinnia Show

Like the Stamese twins, only four instead of two, is the zinnia brought to the Argus this week by Mrs. Al Smith. It is displayed in the window.

Heads Up for Victory

The "V" for Victory campaign has gone to Elaine Bossett's head. She wears a hair style designed by Lura DeGez, with hair parted in "V" shape. Two curled wings form another "V" descending to the back of the neck.

Miss Dingfelder Weds Mr. Simantel

In a floral setting of white gladioli, pink larkspur and blue delphiniums a beautiful wedding was solemnized Sunday evening at 7 o'clock at the Trinity Lutheran church, Hillsboro, when Miss Irene Dingfelder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Dingfelder of Buffalo Springs, North Dakota, became the bride of Mr. Rudolf Simantel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Simantel of Cornelius. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. George Reule, pastor of the church, before an altar banked with small baskets of pink and white sweet peas.

The bride was dressed in a floor-length white satin gown made princess style with sweetheart neckline and long sleeves. Her finger-tip veil was held in place with a halo of orange blossoms and she carried a bouquet of Rapture roses, white gladioli and bouvardia.

Miss Lillian Simantel, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor. She wore a dress of gold satin, made Grecian style. Miss Dorothy Chalmers, bridesmaid, was dressed in aqua tulle. Both carried colonial bouquets of pink and white sweet peas and roses.

Mr. David Moeller, cousin of the bridegroom, acted as best man, and Messrs. Allen Simantel and Gordon Sahnow were ushers.

Preceding the ceremony, Mr. Herbert Sahnow sang "Beneath His Wings," accompanied by Mrs. George Reule, who also played the wedding music. Lohengrin's Bridal chorus as the processional and Mendelssohn's as the recessional.

A reception was held in the church parlors following the ceremony with about 60 in attendance. Mrs. Gordon Sahnow cut the wedding cake. Mrs. Herbert Sahnow served tea. Mrs. W. T. Putnam Jr. poured the coffee, and Mrs. Albert Lankow of Portland presided at the punch bowl. Assisting about the room were Mrs. Gustav Moeller and Mrs. Edwin Simantel.

For going away the bride wore a suit of silk jersey in black and white with white accessories. After a trip to the beaches, Mr. and Mrs. Simantel will be at home on a farm at West Union.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Mercer had as their guests this week their daughter-in-law, Mrs. O. T. Mercer, and daughter, Mrs. Frances Bartle of Medford, Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Cook and daughters Loretta Vivian and Nettie Rose of San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Verrill McCurdy of Coquille are guests this week of their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hamilton, and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Morgan. Mrs. Morgan and Mrs. Hamilton will return home with them for a short visit.

Mrs. L. C. Lomax Jr. returned Monday from a two weeks' visit with her sister, Mrs. Warren Johnson, at Bend.

Mrs. Hugh Rogers spent from Thursday to Tuesday at Marshfield visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Robert O'Brien and family.

Hugh Rogers Jr. returned Sunday to Camp Murray, Wash., after a 10-day furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Rogers.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Morgan left Sunday for a two weeks' vacation at Seaside and other beaches.

Negro Singer Will Be Here August 19

Hillsboro will have the opportunity of hearing Pruthi McFarlin, talented young negro singer, present a concert in the Christian church Tuesday, August 19, at 8 p. m. He is a graduate of Southern University at Baton Rouge, Louisiana, and Eastman School of Music, Rochester, N. Y., and former head of the music department at the Piney Woods school, is now on a tour of the northwestern states.

This young man suffered from infantile paralysis in his early childhood and has never recovered the full use of his lower limbs. He sings, leads, but his smile and sincerity as well as the fine quality of his voice win the hearts of all who hear him.

McFarlin is accompanied by his wife, Hazel McFarlin, who also presents a group of instrumental selections and speaks briefly on the work being done at the Piney Woods school.

No admission charge is made but an offering will be received.

"Passion Play" at Christian Church

The world-famous "Passion Play," motion picture, based upon, and patterned after, both Freiburg and Oberammergau productions, will be shown at the Christian church at 8 p. m. Sunday. Everybody is invited and admission tickets are not necessary. A silver offering will be taken to assist in paying expenses.

The picture was actually produced in Europe, the Holy Land, and Egypt, with special organ and choral music, on sound equipment, depicting many famous scenes in the life, crucifixion and resurrection of Jesus.

Hillsboro Marine Lands in Iceland

Mr. and Mrs. John Ryan received a letter recently from their son, Martin J. Ryan, a marine, in which he wrote, "Spent the Fourth of July on the water but am now in Iceland."

Young Ryan, who was stationed at San Diego, had expected to come home on a furlough and had sent his clothes to Hillsboro, but the next letter his parents had from him was from North Carolina. He then told of being on the U. S. S. Fuller, and that most of the boys were quite ill going through the Panama canal.

Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Kibman of Portland were guests last week of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Wiley.

Banks Man Weds The Dalles Girl

BANKS—Alexander McDonald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry McDonald of Banks, and Miss Patricia Cyphers of The Dalles were married Friday in a parsonage there.

After a few days stay at Timberline Lodge the couple will go to Eugene, where he is studying at University of Oregon. When school starts they will be at home in Medford, where he is coach in the high school.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry McDonald and son Howard of Banks and Mrs. Pete Zimmerman of Portland attended the wedding.

Rubber stamps and office supplies.—Hillsboro Argus.

Mrs. Caroline Stangel and Luke Stangel spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. George Wick at Gladstone.
