

Nutrition Council Holds First Meeting

First meeting of the Washington County Nutrition Council was held Monday evening in the chamber of commerce rooms here. This is the local organization affiliated with the state and national nutrition councils under which similar branches are now beginning to function throughout the nation.

Objectives of these groups are the coordination of efforts of various agencies working on nutrition and the reaching of all people to the end that better nutritional practices may be followed as family routine.

The meeting was called by Kathleen McCrae, temporary chairman, who received her appointment through the state nutrition council. The following representative citizens of Washington county were in attendance at the initial meeting:

Christine Hawver, Carolyn Campbell, Rose Hurd, Victor Madsen, Mrs. Charlotte Williams, Palmer Torvund, Dr. Ralph Dresser, Dr. A. O. Putnam, Dr. F. T. Burke, B. W. Barnes, Della Cypher, J. B. Thomas, M. A. Stout, Corinne Pennington, and Kathleen McCrae.

Monthly meetings will be held by this group to keep plans in motion and to survey progress. Development of an improved school lunch program throughout the county has been set as an immediate goal.

Elected as permanent officers to serve the group are Kathleen McCrae, chairman, and Corinne Pennington, secretary.

The following committees will function immediately: School lunch program—Carolyn Campbell, Mrs. Christine Hawver, Mrs. Charlotte Williams, and Mrs. Edwin E. Thompson; Tugard: Newspaper publicity—Mabel B. Grass, and Moving picture publicity—Rose Hurd.

Next meeting will be Monday evening, September 22, in the chamber of commerce rooms here.
