Sandys Back from An Extended Trip

BANKS. Mr. and Mrs. Cliff SANDY arrived home last Wednesday after spending four weeks on a motor trip, which took them as far as Nebraska. In Idaho they visited Sandy's mother, Mrs. Lena Hathaway, and brothers and the Lava Hot springs, where they spent four days and took baths in water which was almost too hot for comfort. They travelled through Yellowstone National park where they were guests of Mrs. Sandy's brother, Virgil Hathaway, and family.

In Nebraska they found good crops caused by abundant rains and report that every one seemed prosperous. Cattlemen were happy over the high prices they were receiving for their stock.

At Theoford, Neb., they visited Mr. Sandy's nephew and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Layton. Near Theoford they visited the old farm and sodhouse where Mr. Sandy lived as a boy 42 years ago. He found the sodhouse still standing and occupied, but the little hill that stood near the house had been blown entirely away.

Other states through which they traveled were Wyoming, Colorado, Arizona, Nevada and New Mexico. Other points of interest visited besides those mentioned were Grand Canyon, Painted Desert, Petrified Forest, Boulder dam, Kit Carson's grave in Santa Fe, New Mexico and several ranches.

Only one hot day was encountered on the trip and that was in
