Weissenbacks Back From Florida Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Weissenback of near North Plains and their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Knite of Clatskanie have returned from an automobile trip of 7,800 miles throughout the United States, including a visit with another son-in-law and daughter, Captain and Mrs. C. J. Knite, at Pensacola, Florida. Captain Knite is stationed at the great naval air station there.

Mr. and Mrs. Knite took delivery of a new car in Detroit and the travelers visited Yellowstone National park on the way home. They visited nearly all of the capitals in the states passed through. Mr. Weissenback who said this was the longest layoff he had ever taken, reports crops looking fine in most of the sections visited.

The local folk say that this section is the garden spot of all and that nothing will compare with it.
