

Kinton Grange Meets Tuesday; Lusks Buy Place

KINTON—Kinton Grange will meet Tuesday, September 2, at 8 p. m.

Lusks Buy Hanley Place

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lusk of Scholls have purchased the Howard Hanley place in Pleasant Valley. Bill Taylor has rented the place the last three years. The Lusks don't plan to take possession for a month or so, and will make repairs on the buildings before moving in.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Thornberry, Mary Newkirk, Marlene Finck and John Thornberry spent Saturday and Sunday in Wenatchee, Wash., visiting Mrs. Rhode, an aunt of Mrs. Thornberry.

Here From South

Mrs. Bertha Karpstein of San Francisco, Cal., spent last week visiting her mother, Mrs. A. Karpstein.

Mrs. Rose Whalen and two grandchildren Patty and Marleen Whalen of Portland spent Saturday and Sunday visiting her sister, Mrs. C. M. Kulbel.

Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Pomeroy, Kathryn, Marilee and Roberta Pomeroy spent last week at Tillamook visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. Mills and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Ward and Earl Ward spent from Friday till Sunday at Yachats.

Cecil Van Kleek went to Lebanon last week to visit his aunt, Mrs. Joe Haines, and family.

Couple Honored at Housewarming

BETHANY CEDAR MILL — A group of friends honored Mr. and Mrs. Al Larsen with a surprise miscellaneous shower, housewarming, and wiener roast last week.

Mrs. P. A. Thorne gave a P. T. A. luncheon recently. Twenty-eight were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Glaske and family spent the week-end at Seaside.

Leedy Grange met last Wednesday night with a fair attendance. Elmer McClure, Grange deputy, spoke on the effect various organizations have in uniting rural communities.

Mr. and Mrs. Chris Schindler and daughter Caroline, Mrs. Dave Schindler, and Miss Leona Schindler spent the week-end at Agate beach.

Presbyterian Ladies' Aid met Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Herman Schindler of Hillsboro. There were 15 present.

Carl Larsen has completed drilling a well. A satisfactory water supply was obtained at a depth of 130 feet.

Hazeidale

Mrs. Edythe Jack and daughters June and Lois Rae just returned from a four-week camping trip at Manhattan beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Kreim of Antioch, Cal., visited Mrs. Kreim's sisters, Edythe Jack and Mrs. Hollis S. Keels, of Cedar Mill, and brother Milton Bingham of Hood River, while on their way home from a trip to Alaska and the Yukon district. Mr. Kreim, who is chief dispatcher for the Santa Fe lines out of Antioch, is traveling for his health while recovering from a siege of serious operations. They had to change their plans of returning to Los Angeles all the way by boat due to war and defense work. Their ship, the Empress Kathleen, was on its last trip for pleasure. They went inland 150 miles up the Yukon river and by train. The trip was made in perfect weather.

Mr. and Mrs. Bingham of Hood River visited Edythe Jack at Hazeidale Sunday.

Do your trading with Hillsboro merchants. Money spent at home remains to circulate locally and may eventually get back to you.
