

Couple Honored on 50th Anniversary

McKINLEY-ELMONICA—The golden wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Rich was celebrated at their home last Sunday afternoon. About 150 relatives, friends and neighbors were present.

Seats were arranged beneath the trees on the large lawn and a program given. Rev. Schweitzer of the Bethany Baptist church was master of ceremonies. A chorus of 15 children and grandchildren sang with solo parts by Mrs. Mark Rich of Harrington Park, N. J.

Three little granddaughters, Lorraine, Joan and Beverly Rich, sang a trio. Congratulatory speeches were made by Senator Burke of Yamhill who was present at the Rich wedding 50 years ago, and Ben Graff, representing the Bethany Baptist church in which Mr. and Mrs. Rich have been active for 30 years. They were presented with a large arm-chair by the membership of the church. Mrs. Schweitzer, representing the Ladies Aid, read "An Old Wedding Ring," and presented a gift from the organization.

Samuel Graff of St. Johns, former Sunday school superintendent, expressed the congratulations of the Sunday school. Mrs. P. V. Fuller of Gladstone, Mich., who with her husband is visiting here, joined with Mrs. Stoner in a duet. Dr. Mark Rich of Harrington Park, N. J., spoke for the family and in his talk, rendered a beautiful tribute to the Christian devotion, love and security which had characterized the childhood home. In all of his travels, he had found no spot to compare with his Oregon home.

The B. Y. P. U., which has been in session at Silver Creek field this week, sent a special message by Sam Rich. Other speakers were Rev. Leger, Rev. O. Roth, Rev. Mockford, and Rev. Malmstrom of Portland, Rev. Ted Roth of Whitewater, Kan., nephew of Mrs. Rich, and H. A. Kuratli of Hillsboro.

After the program and congratulations the guests were served refreshments. A large decorated golden wedding cake was cut by Mrs. Mark Rich. Mrs. David Rich poured. The table decorations were gold candles and yellow roses. Large baskets of zinnias and gladioli were scattered about the house and lawn.

Mr. and Mrs. Rich were married at Salem and lived there for a time. They have lived in their present home four miles east of Hillsboro on the Cornell road 32 years, where Mr. Rich has been in the nursery business 30 years. They have seven children: Dr.

Mark of Harrington Park, N. J., Theo. David, Sam and Amos, Mrs. Carl Eggman and Helen Rich.

WORLD'S FINEST MODERN REFRIGERATION

SEE THIS BETTER PRODUCE IN OUR STORE TODAY!

- This new refrigeration equipment, specially engineered, keeps fruits and vegetables in display compartments in a chilly, dewy atmosphere . . . exactly as when they were picked in the morning dew.
- Automatically controlled temperatures cause all the natural goodness of produce to be retained, prevents rot, slime or moulds and insures that you receive all goods in prime condition.
- Relative humidity (moisture content of the air) is maintained near 'dew point' so that fruits and vegetables retain their natural color without loss in flavor due to wilting or dehydration.
- Under these ideal conditions all types of vegetables actually improve in flavor. Crunchy crisp celery is more palatable than when picked from the field . . . cold guarantees perfection of your salads, snappy lettuce . . . ice cold tomatoes, rich and sun-ripened, insure you complete satisfaction.
- All goods purchased by us in the morning are kept in perfect condition throughout the day, so, if you prefer shopping late in the day, you are assured of just as good selection and quality as if you purchased in the morning. If you drive home late from a tea or bridge, you can place a crisp cool salad on your table without waiting to cool the ingredients in your refrigerator.
- We feel sure that you will be delighted with this new service in your own neighborhood and suggest that you give our new produce department a try. We are certain you will be just as pleased with the improved quality and condition of our produce as we are.
