

Ernest Lehman Herd of Herefords on Eastern Edge of County

Ernest Lehman, Beaverton, has been farming on the eastern fringe of Washington county for 50 years. His herd of 30 Hereford cows, shown here grazing on the Lehman farm, is more or less a rarity in this section of the state.—(Cut courtesy The Oregonian)

Homecoming Held Sunday At Mt. Top

CHEHALEM MOUNTAIN—Faith that removes mountains was the subject of Ellery Parrish's sermon at Mountain Top church homecoming Sunday afternoon when a packed house attended Stanley Kendall, pastor, welcomed visitors from Corvallis, Amity, Portland, Multnomah, Twin Rocks, Newberg, Laurel, Dundee and Mountain Home. The invocation was by Rev. Fogg of Mountain Home and scriptural reading "Faithfulness" by Rev. W. F. Morse of Amity, former pastor of Mountain Top church. On the entertainment program were Mrs. Fogg and Mrs. Honney, and Ellery Parrish and Stanley vocal duets. Mrs. Con Meeker, Arthur Parrish and Mrs. W. F. Morse, vocal solos. The latter sang as Leonard Tykeson dressed a chunk picture, and Miss Jean Dryden, violin solo, piano accompanist. Accompanists for the program were Mesdames Stanley Kendall, Ellery Parrish and Ray Ego. An offering for missionaries was received. Mrs. Joe Ego received the church drawing by Donald Tykeson as being a member of this church the longest time, 51 years, and her sister, Mrs. Viola Reetz, of Corvallis came the greatest distance. Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Morse brought the most visitors from the greatest distance, three full cars from Amity. Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Brunson are visiting a son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Clark, this week, another son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Whitmore, brought them from Twin Rocks Saturday and visited the Frank Shook family. September Meetings Off—Mrs. Ira G. McCormick was hostess for the Buck Heaven Variant club Thursday in the place of Mrs. Iva G. Stewart, who was away on a vacation. It was voted to cancel the meetings in September, because of the prime and hop harvest and to have the next meeting October 2, when the club will resume the study of Oregon, beginning with Washington county. Roll call will be some interesting fact about Oregon. It was voted to do something for someone in need at Christmas time. The club went on record as being against entering world war 2 and the secretary, Mrs. Ira G. McCormick, was instructed to write to Oregon senators and representatives to that effect. Mrs. Harvey Neill was voted into the club as a new member. The hostess served a dessert luncheon to nine members and one visitor, Miss Beryl Deford. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ward visited her sister, Mrs. Ray Clark, and family Sunday and attended the homecoming at Mountain Top church. They recently moved from Tillamook to Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Collins Graham of Aurora visited her sister, Mrs. W. F. Wohlbelegel, Saturday. Mrs. Wayne Jones and sons Bryce and Larry, and house guests Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Allen and three children, and Stanley Kendall, Jim Meeker and Lloyd Guenther returned Saturday from a week's camping trip at Elk lake. Mr. and Mrs. Ray Dotson visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Simpson, over Saturday night before moving from Springbrook to Multnomah, where they have charge of a filling station. Work on Road—Washington county resumed work last week on the Finigan road. Two fills east of Ray Clark's home were completed. Another fill where the bridge is at the Guy Hodge corner will be made. Work on the finishing of Marvin Ornduff's house was begun last week. The porches are shingled, window frames in and the lumber for the inside and outside is delivered. Some of the rooms will be finished with knotty pine. Allen and Laura Louise Clark, children of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Clark, returned home Friday from a two weeks' visit with their sister, Mrs. Ivan Price (nee Boneta Clark) on the Wilson river. Mr. and Mrs. Price brought them home. Celebrate Anniversary—Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Comber of Portland visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ira G. McCormick, Saturday and Sunday and helped them celebrate their 33rd wedding anniversary. Allen Kotera visited Niel Jennings at Portland Saturday and Sunday. Jim Kotera went to Sherwood Sunday to help his grandmother, Mrs. A. Ponderick, with her prime harvest. J. F. Kotera left for Klamath Falls Friday to make his home with a daughter, Mrs. Frank Victor. K. Whitmore's Rent Place—Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Whitmore have rented the Captain H. F. Stavon farm and have moved on it. The Monroe family, who were living here, are domiciled on the Avery Wood place which they have rented. The misty and rainy weather this week and last has delayed threshing and combining here. Marvin Ornduff and Harvey Neill heard a band of geese flying south Sunday evening, a forerunner of an early fall. Wayne Donker and his guest, Gordon Robb, returned last Wednesday from a sightseeing trip. They visited Crater lake, saw and killed their first rattlesnake at Crooked river, went to Sacramento, and to San Francisco, where they were much interested in China town. They returned home via the coast highway through the Redwood forest and saw the famous big redwood tree. They left here Saturday for Gordon's home in Arlington, Wash., where Wayne's brother, Bob, Danier, drove in a stock car auto race Sunday. Mrs. Tom Shuck was honor guest at a picnic dinner at Lafayette locks and theatre party in Newberg Sunday complimenting her on her birthday. Hostesses were Mrs. Bill Ziegler and Mrs. Joe Nettling of Hillsboro. Miss Thelma Schaefer of Eugene and Miss Laurel Emmerson of Salem visited Miss Beryl Deford Sunday. Important TO YOU OWNERS OF HIGH-COMPRESSION CARS Even if your car has gone less than 10,000 miles, it now may have higher compression than when it left the factory—may knock because of this!

UNFORTUNATE, BUT TRUE! There is, today, no known way to keep the compression ratio of your motor from changing constantly. The reason for this is carbon, which accumulates inside today's compact combustion chambers, making them smaller—and your high compression higher than ever. This causes knocking. You cannot avoid such carbon completely, regardless of what kind of gasoline or oil you use. You can keep removing it, of course, at some expense. You may even get temporary relief by changing the spark adjustment, thereby cutting down your engine's efficiency. But Shell scientists have a better answer. They've developed a motor fuel that will automatically compensate for these carbon-created higher compressions. This super motor fuel—Shell Premium—is a blend of clean-burning gasoline fractions...a patented, scientifically prepared anti-
