

B. P. W. Club to Have Banquet Friday Night

With the Employer-Employee banquet Friday night, Business and Professional Women's club members will stage their last event in celebration of National Business Women's Week. Dr. W. C. Giersbach, president of Pacific university, will speak, the title of his address being "Women in the American Plan," and a musical program will be given by university students.

George E. Griffith will also be a speaker, his subject being "Defending Our Forests."

The semi-annual held Thursday night at the home of Mrs. Harry Morgan, proved very successful, the program consisting of games and merry-making. At this meeting it was decided that the B. P. W. club would give a tea at the school during the five-county teachers' institute on October 22, honoring the state president of OSTA, Mrs. Isabelle Brinker of Klamath Falls, who is also second vice-president of the state federation of B. P. W.

Hobbies were displayed during the week in the windows of local business houses. Mrs. Zola Morgan had a soap collection at the C. C. store, pitcher and vase collection of Mrs. Margaret Sahnun at Dr. J. H. Hume's, pictures and autographs of famous singers by Lucille Fisher at Dorothy's, needlework exhibit by Mrs. Effie Jackson at Well's, old glass by Mrs. Edna Tupper at Kellington's, photography by Emma Mohr, Dorothy Stevens and Mrs. Margaret Sahnun at Delta Drug store, exhibits of each old photos and vase collections of Mrs. Margaret Moeberry in the White Shoppe, China painting by Mrs. Jessie Sewell, label collection and drawings seen in wood by Mrs. Myrtle Blasing, in the Hillsboro Argus.

Business meeting of the club will be held at the home of Miss Kathleen McCrack, Ireland's apartments, Thursday night, October 23.

Mrs. Leonard Sherman returned Sunday from a five-week visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Zimmerman, and other relatives at Blackduck, Minn.

Miss Leona Sherman of Pendleton spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. Sherman. Miss Sherman is employed at the air base at Pendleton.

Mrs. Ethel McCormick, Mrs. E. A. Deaville, Misses Blanche and Grace McCormick, Eva Whitworth and Dorothy Harms spent the week-end at Taft.

Miss Birdlyn Matteson flew to Seattle Saturday to spend the week-end with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lehnert, and other relatives.

Mrs. Cora Cochran of Corvallis arrived Tuesday to spend a month with Mrs. Frank Mitchell.

Speaker

Dr. W. C. Giersbach, president of Pacific university, who will be a speaker at Business and Professional Women's banquet Friday night.

Musical Program Given at Lodge

A musical program was enjoyed at Moose hall Thursday evening as Iona Vanderzanden's chapter alumni work. Initiated were Gladys Turner of Cornelius, Iris Stroeder of Hillsboro, and Jonita Lorentzen of Redwood. Program numbers were "America," by audience, vocal solos by Caroline Kalkwarf, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. P. J. Kalkwarf; guitar solos, Mrs. Jewel Lorentzen, accompanied by Jonita Lorentzen; solos by Cecil Parker of Portland; tap dance, Elaine Barber, and a talk, Pat Johnston. She told of James J. Davis, founder of Mooseheart.

Prizes in musical skill test were won by Lois Estep and Junior Hunt, Clarence Tucker and Belva Turner. Significance of alumni stamps was read by Iona Vanderzanden.

Refreshments were served by Pat Johnston, Lucetta Hunt, and Lois Estep.

A bazaar with dinner and cards to follow is being planned by the lodge.

First Aid class will be held this evening (Thursday) at the Moose hall according to Mrs. Jewel Lorentzen, director.

Back to Georgia—It was learned this week that Nelson Weaver has returned to Fort Benning, Ga., after eight weeks of war maneuvers in Louisiana and Texas. Their next maneuver will take them to North and South Carolina which will be completed by the last of November. He is a son of Chief of Police and Mrs. Weaver.

Anniversaries Celebrated—Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Watkins spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Thomasson at McMinnville and celebrated their 21st wedding anniversary. It was also the 31st anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Thomasson.

Visit in South—C. E. Wells and Mrs. Harold Simpson of Portland left Monday for Jackson, Cal., where they will visit with Mr. and Mrs. James Wells. They expect to be gone two weeks.

Entertain at Dinner—Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Wilcox were hosts at a dinner party Saturday evening. Guests were Messrs. and Mesdames Willard Hughes, Winston Pool and Harold Kummer.

Searcy's Return From 6000-Mile Eastern Trip

When Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Searcy of Hillsboro left here on September 25 for a three weeks vacation trip, their destination was Chicago, but after returning home Monday, it appears that the "windy city" was just a stop-over, for their trip was a rather circuitous trip home.

Points visited on the "way back to Hillsboro" included Memphis, Tenn., New Orleans, La., El Paso, Texas, Juarez, Mexico, Carlsbad, N. Mex., Los Angeles, and San Francisco, Cal. The entire trip, 6,000 miles in all, was by train.

After a fast trip to Chicago on the Streamliner from Portland, Mr. Searcy, who is vice-president of the Commercial National bank here, attended the six-day convention of the American Bankers' association in that city.

Noticed by the Searcys in their two-day trip down the Mississippi valley was the fact that new construction in this section of the nation is conspicuous for its absence to the eyes of one used to seeing building activity aplenty on the Pacific coast. The Hillsborans were also impressed with the large numbers of negroes populating the valley.

Their trip to Juarez, in old Mexico, was by conducted tour. They spent a day taking in points of interest at Los Angeles and another day touring San Francisco.

Jean Ornduff is Saturday Bride

CHEHALEM MOUNTAIN—Miss Jean Ornduff, daughter of Mrs. Merle Cady, and Lynn Nametz, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Nametz of Newberg, were married at Vancouver, Wash., Saturday morning. They were guests of honor immediately after a dinner party given by the bride's aunt, Miss Ann Ornduff, at her home in Portland. Covers were laid for 16 members of the wedding party, all immediate relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Nametz are living in their already furnished home at Sunnyside.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl E. Ward had as guests at their home last week Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell of Tillamook and Mr. and Mrs. Larry H. Warren of Portland, who have just returned from a trip to Washington, D. C., New York and other places of interest.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Ragdale returned this week to their home at The Dalles. They have been staying with their grandchildren, Jack and Sue Searcy, while Mr. and Mrs. Searcy have been on an eastern trip.

Mrs. V. W. Gardner attended a 1 o'clock luncheon Monday given by the Mothers club of the Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity at the home of Mrs. G. Dennis of Portland.

V. W. Gardner spent the week-end with his son, Ted, at Corvallis attending "Dads Day."

Marg Steinhart of Portland was a week-end guest of Miss Mollie O'Donnell.

Mrs. Butterfield Hostess for Club

The Hillsboro Garden club met Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. George Butterfield with about thirty members and guests present. Mrs. T. C. Doyle was appointed secretary of radio programs. Mrs. H. J. Hibbard and Mrs. Charles Lamkin were named on the program committee.

At the tea Mrs. C. T. Smith and Mrs. Bert Yates, junior past president, poured. A dainty flower arrangement of pink, blue and white flowers and five pink candles centered the table. Out of town guests included Mrs. Butterfield's mother, Mrs. George G. Root, Mrs. Fanny Perry, and Mrs. R. G. Bloom, all of Portland.

A plant exchange, and judging of the flower arrangements brought by club members was an interesting part of the afternoon's program. Mrs. Butterfield's tea table centerpiece, and a vase of purple gladioli and lavender mitchamaisy was voted most artistic.

Couple Married Friday Evening

CEDAR MILL—Holger Breitenstein and Ingeborg McDaniel were married at the Bethany Lutheran church in Portland Friday evening at 7 o'clock.

Following the wedding a buffet supper was served at the home of Mrs. Marie Breitenstein. The family and a few friends were guests. The table was decorated with flowers and white candles and a large wedding bell suspended above a large wedding cake, which was cut by the bride.

The couple will spend a few days at the coast and will be at home after their return in the new home on the Breitenstein property.

Attend Founders' Banquet—Mesdames Charles Epps, Jack Searcy, Brice Nosler, and George Butterfield were in Portland Tuesday evening for the Alpha Chi Omega Founder's Day banquet at the University club.

Mrs. Cox Hostess—Mrs. John Cox entertained the A. B. C. club last Thursday. Mrs. Reece Hathorn, Mrs. G. Garthofner and Mrs. Peter Schickart received honors.

Major Garrett Transferred—Major Byron Garrett, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Garrett of Hillsboro, has been transferred from Fort Ord, Cal., to the Presidio at San Francisco.
