Double Wedding Held at Church

First Baptist church was the scene of a double wedding ceremony Saturday evening when Rev. W. T. Mugford read the service for Miss Norma Knodel and Clarence R. Warren, Miss Viola Westcott and Leo H. Knodel.

In a beautiful setting of palms, white chrysanthemums, and candlelight, John Knodel gave his daughter in marriage to Mr. Warren. She wore a white satin gown with long train and veil, and carried a bouquet of pink rose buds and small white asters. Miss Westcott was given in marriage by her uncle, Raymond Westcott, to Leo H. Knodel, and her gown, veil and flowers matched those of Miss Knodel.

Kathryn Santie, dressed in pink, was the flower girl, and Dickie Knodel, brother of Norma and Leo, wearing a white suit, was ring bearer. Mrs. Edith L. Casey was maid of honor. She wore a blue formal. The bridesmaids, Misses Maxine Knodel, June Westcott, sister of Viola, and Laurel Shay, wore pink frocks with bouquets of pink asters.

Attending the bridegrooms were Milton Warren, Rosa Johnson, Ray Knodel, and Harold DeSham. Wedding music was played by Mrs. Paul Frantz at the pipe organ, and Miss Dora Sandstrom, pianist. Herbert Maurer sang "Beneath."

Following the services a reception was held in the church parlors. Miss Louise and Herbert Maurer sang a duet number. Mrs. W. T. Mugford read a poem. Rev. Mugford and Mrs. Carl Baldwin sang a duet, as did Mr. and Mrs. Otto Schneider. Don Baker gave a vocal solo.

Pastors Surprised On Anniversary

At the close of his first anniversary services of last Sunday the members of the First Baptist church led their ministers, Rev. and Mrs. W. T. Mugford, to the basement of the church, where a reception was held in their honor on the occasion of their first year as leaders of the local congregation.

Rev. Albert Fuller, pastor of the Dixie Mountain church, acted as the master of ceremonies. There were special vocal numbers by Mrs. Paul Frantz, Mrs. Les Fisher, and Miss Betty Alexander. Gifts of food were presented to the couple. Rev. Mugford was called upon for a speech in which he declared he was very happy to have been called as the pastor of such a progressive and active church. Many friends as well as members crowded into the church basement and the ministerial couple marched in to the strains of "A Happy Anniversary to You."

The pastor began his first broadcast over KVAN on his first anniversary and many reported the reception of his broadcast as being very good.

Townsend Club To See Pictures

Emery VanKleeke Celebrate Their 25th Anniversary

KINTON-Mr. and Mrs. Emery Van Kleeke celebrated their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary with a party at the Grange hall Saturday night. During the evening Mr. and Mrs. Van Kleeke were surprised by a chorus of friends and several friends decorated them for a wedding procession. Besides the bride and groom, Mrs. Gladys Lee acted as bridesmaid and Everett Sander as best man. Bill Taylor made a cunning flower girl.

When the bridal party reached the front of the hall a table loaded with gifts in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary was placed in front of Mr. and Mrs. Van Kleeke. Among the gifts was a chest of Community silver from old time neighbors and friends. Mr. Van Kleeke's parents, brothers, sisters and their families presented them with a beautiful floor lamp. The evening was spent playing five hundred and other games. At a late hour Mr. and Mrs. Van Kleeke led the party to the dining room where a lunch was served. Guests from out of the community were Mr. and Mrs. William Thompson from North Bonneville, Wash., Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Landis, James and Virginia Landis of Chitwood, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Mayer, Perry Foster, Miss Dorothy Van Kleeke, Bernard Van Kleeke, Mrs. Margaret Graham, Mrs. Gladys Lee, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shively and Mr. and Mrs. Dewey McNamee of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Van Kleeke, Mrs. Anna Holbrook and Mrs. Charles Henrick of Beaverton, Mr. and Mrs. G. P. McNamee of Progress and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Van Kleeke of Tigard.
