

Laurel School District Has 32 Grade Pupils

LAUREL—Laurel school district has 15 boys and 17 girls of school age, according to the census taken by Ernest Lodi, clerk. Laurelvie district has nine boys and eight girls, reported by Ray Moore. Only three of these, all boys, are of grade school age and they are attending the Laurel school.

Morris McDaniel and Clifford Adams started Saturday for South Dakota. They plan to visit Morris' relatives at Lishon and Clifford's at Grassy Butte. The time of their return is very indefinite. "Maybe two weeks and maybe next summer," says Morris.

Birthday Celebrated

Barbara Dene McNay of Forest Grove was the guest of honor at a dinner party Saturday evening at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Brown, celebrating her seventh birthday anniversary. Others present were her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. McNay, Patricia McNay, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Brown and son, Dennis, Lillie Brown and Raymond Meyers. One interesting and enjoyable part of the dinner was the elk-roast provided by the honor guest's uncle, Lee Brown, as the result of a six-day hunt in the Blue mountains. The seven members of the hunting party were Charlie Schmidt, Rollin Meyers, Clayton and Kenneth Whitmore, Bill Walker, Don Chambers and Frank Hill. Flowers, vegetables, picked.

Lilies, peonies and hydrangeas are blooming in the yard, and green beans and roasting ears have been picked in the garden at the F. L. Brown place the first week in November.

John Mulloy has been confined to his home for about ten days with an attack of the flu.

Mrs. Eva Arrington of Bridal Vale was a guest of Mrs. George Rosevear last Thursday and Friday. Her son, Francis D. Kane, brought her home. He is a Boy Scout, "Wasp." He is one of two having charge of post office service on the ship, and is on a month's furlough from Norfolk, Va. His last trip before docking there was in the Iceland district at the time the Kearney was torpedoed there.

Billy McNay went to Klamath Falls Saturday to begin work there as assistant manager in an auto supply house.

Church Brotherhood meeting will be held at the Walter Schmidt home next Tuesday evening. Anyone interested is welcome.

Ladies Social club luncheon, card and checker party Thursday (today) at 1 o'clock at the Community hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wood (Irma Helm) were given a charravi at their home here last Monday evening by friends from Chehalis Mountain and neighbors and friends here.

Attend Funeral—Fred, Adolph and Cecil Schmidt and Mesdames Jacob and Walter Schmidt attended the funeral of their brother-in-law and uncle, Cris Zinsli, in Portland last Friday.

Mrs. Zinsli passed away about a month ago.

Mrs. Nora Whitmore underwent a major operation at the Jones hospital last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Whitmore returned Sunday evening from a week's trip into eastern Oregon and Idaho, where they delivered their walnut crop. Eleanor, their seven-year-old daughter, was with her grandmother and her aunt during her parents' absence.

A. A. Soule spent the week-end at his home here. He left again Tuesday to go by train to Montana on a business trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Soule and son Dickie were Sunday guests of their parents, Rev. and Mrs. R. L. Putnam, at Corbett.

The Alexanders of Portland, are spending part time on their place

Tresham, Hartwick, Caldwell, Gehris And Swancutt Named Banks Officials

BANKS—Early votes were cast at the city election held Tuesday of last week. B. B. Tresham, John Hartwick and Fred Caldwell were elected councilmen for two years. Walter Gehris councilman for one year and Merle Swancutt was elected city marshal.

Mrs. Sellers Hostess—Mrs. Ada Sellers entertained the Mothers' club Friday afternoon. Mrs. Fred Welford had charge of the program and led in a discussion of Thanksgiving poetry and customs and history. Mrs. George McGraw will entertain the club on December 1.

Return to Kansas

Mrs. Ole Durham left Portland Sunday for her home in Kansas after a 10-day visit here at the home of her sister, Mrs. E. H. Kauffman. She visited relatives in Portland for several days before her departure for home.

Howard Kauffman spent Thursday and Friday in Portland at the home of Alvie Kauffman and E. H. Kauffman. He spent the weekend there.

Eli Hopkins of Wislram, Wash., spent several days last week in Banks at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Hopkins. He brought his mother and his little daughter, Virginia Hopkins, home after they had spent several days in Wislram.

Mr. and Mrs. N. Griffen, Mrs. Henry Bell and children drove over the Wilson River highway Sunday and returned home by way of McNamara. They stopped in Carlton and inspected the new home of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Garis.

James Thompson of eastern Oregon spent Thursday night in Banks with his nephew, Cliff Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. McPeak, Mr.

and Mrs. Ray Vandeleigh and Mr. and Mrs. Henry McDonald drove over the Wilson River and Wolf Creek highways Sunday.

Soldier boys who were home from Fort Lewis over the weekend were George Davis, Floyd Mott, George and Harvey Thompson and Lyle Wolford.

A son, Richard Henry, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Richard Zimmerman, November 4, in the Emanuel hospital. The baby weighed seven pounds. He is the first grandchild of Mr. and Mrs. Henry McDonald of Banks.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Engen of Vernonia spent Saturday night at the Tom Engen home here. Mrs. Lee Engen had just returned from a two weeks visit with relatives in Sacramento, Cal.

Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Sandy were Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Halaway of Parkview, Idaho, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Knight and three children of St. Helens, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Thompson and son Frank, of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Wessels and daughter of Cornelius, Mr. and Mrs. Lamar Sandy and two sons of Gilchrist, Mr. Hathaway is a brother of Mr. Sandy and plans to locate in Oregon with his family.

Mr. and Mrs. Lamar Sandy of Gilchrist were week-end guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Sandy, Lloyd and Dennis. Sandy returned home with their parents Monday after spending two weeks here with their grandparents.

Lodge to Meet November 21—Royal Neighbor lodge will meet November 21 instead of November 20, which is Thanksgiving.

John Holland has moved into the Emmett Shipley house on Main street, which he has rented.

Cedar Mill Man Goes to Islands

CEDAR MILL—Dell Peck, who formerly had a service station at Cedar Mill but has been at the Portland air base the past year will be transferred to the aviation corps in the Philippines.

Mrs. Hubert May is ill and her mother, Mrs. Peck of Tacoma, has come to care for her.

The Missionary society of the Community church met last Thursday with Mrs. George Cote. It will meet once each month.

The adult Bible study class will meet with the study club of the Congregational church on Cornell road this Thursday evening (tonight). The class is taught by Dean Forsberg of the Multnomah school of the Bible.

Birthday Celebrated—Mrs. Louis Stark enjoyed a double celebration of her birthday which occurred last Friday. On Thursday Mrs. O. Lystrup, Mrs. Roy Lee, Mrs. Ethel Taylor of Portland and Mrs. Doris Smith, an aged aunt of Mrs. Stark, also of Portland surprised her. Then on Friday the Cornell club surprised her with a pet-luck dinner. Sixteen were present.

Property Sold—Mr. and Mrs. John Kluser have purchased the Nelson property. Mrs. Nelson has moved to Portland. Mrs. O. Russell, who owns the property vacated by the Klusers, will move in. She has been living near Estacada for a number of years.

Mr. and Mrs. N. D. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. C. Stark and two sons of Portland and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Percy of Hillsdale were Sunday dinner party guests of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Stark.

Mr. and Mrs. John Pointer of eastern Washington county are visiting in Sun Grass Valley.

here, which they recently purchased from Mrs. Lizzie Rice. They are doing some repair work on the house.

Former Resident Cedar Mill Dies

CEDAR MILL—Mrs. Jack Anderson, a former resident of Cedar Mill, was buried last Thursday at Lincoln Memorial in Portland. Mrs. Anderson died of a heart attack.

Mrs. Frank Kurtz is critically ill. Mrs. Paul Weitzel of Seattle is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Reeves.

Family Reunion Held—A pot-luck dinner was held Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Walters by the Mead family. All of the brothers and sisters were present, except one sister, Mrs. R. Dorland of Hillsboro, who is now visiting in California. The reunion was planned to honor Mrs. Raymond Chamberlain of Bellingham, Wash., and her daughter, Mrs. Dorothy Rivers of Vancouver. B. C. Mrs. Chamberlain and Mrs. Walters are sisters.

The Red Cross sewing unit met at the grange hall last Tuesday. It will meet the first and third Tuesday of each month and a larger membership is desired.

Richard Kalterman of Fort Lewis spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Katterman.

Doris West, who is attending O. S. C. spent the week-end with home folks.

A member of the Audit Bureau of Circulations, the Argus gives the advertiser proof of authentic, paid up subscribers. To the wise buyer of space there can be no substitute

Bert Lyda Found Dead in Bed Friday

McKINLEY-ELMONICA—Bert, seven-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Lyda, was found dead in bed last Friday. He had been ailing for several weeks. Funeral services were held at Forest Grove funeral parlors Monday. Tom Courtwright, Jerry Moshofsky, Jimmie Berger and Selby Hansen of McKinley school were pallbearers. Bert leaves his parents, two brothers, Harold and Sam and one sister, Elsie.

Advertise your odds and ends—count your profit in fives and tens.

Cooper Mt. Man Enters Army; Art Class Meets

COOPER MOUNTAIN—Willard Rohrbach, who has been called for service and was the only Beaver-ton boy, left Wednesday morning to serve his time in the army at Fort Lewis.

Landscape Felled—Perhaps the largest tree in the vicinity of Cooper mountain and Beaverton was felled last Sunday by a group of neighbors on the Matt Blomquist estate. This tree, a Douglas fir, stood alone in an open field. Approximately six feet in diameter, it has served as a landmark to the surrounding country since it was first settled.

Samuel Doughty spent a week at his former home in Amity harvesting his walnut crop.

Mrs. Pete Wickstrand accompanied her daughter, Mrs. Venetia Parker, as far as San Francisco. Mrs. Parker is going to Hawaii to join her husband, Howard H. Parker, who is a marine engineer.

Mr. and Mrs. Ves Bany left Sunday morning for an extended trip to eastern Oregon. They expect to visit Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gassner, formerly of Cooper Mountain.

Pete Paluso, who has been ill for the past week, will return to work Monday at the Durham rock quarry.

Oliver Taylor returned home Friday from a two weeks' hunting trip in eastern Oregon, bringing home a large elk. S. P. Taylor of Scholls, who accompanied him, also got an elk.

Art Class Holds Meet—First meeting of the W. P. A. art class was held Thursday evening at the Cooper Mountain school with good attendance. Meetings will be held every Thursday evening. Everyone is urged to attend as these projects are free. At present they are doing leather and wood work.

Willard Livermore, accompanied by four others, returned home Friday morning from Eastern Oregon, each bringing home a large elk, the biggest weighing around 400 pounds.

Grain Sacks Stolen From Roy Farmer—Thieves stole 300 grain sacks from Ernest Behrman the first of the week.

Luncheon and rummage sale, which was sponsored by the ladies of the Altar Society, was a success with a large attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. Orval Hartly have gone to Seaview, Wash., for two weeks, where he is drilling a well. Mr. Hartly moved the machinery down Thursday and Mrs. Hartly drove down Saturday.

Raymond Vanderzanden and George Steeves arrived at the former's home Sunday morning from Spokane, Wash. They returned to Spokane Tuesday night after the hockey game. Steeves played with the Buckaroos both Sunday and Tuesday nights.

Donald Spiering spent a few days in Seattle this past week.

A member of the Audit Bureau of Circulations, the Argus gives the advertiser proof of authentic, paid up subscribers. To the wise buyer of space there can be no substitute

Imaginary Interviews With Famous People:

CONFUCIUS—People give me credit for saying a lot of things. But here's one you can chalk up as real: "Only a rich man can afford to drive without auto insurance—and he wouldn't."

Low Cost Auto Insurance in Reliable Companies

CHAS. L. WALKER AGENT

"Every Form of Protection" Phone 1732 Hillsboro 112 S. 3rd

child in the nation wants to keep it that way.

We are rich, we are free, and we are secure because ours is a government of the people, for the people, and by the people. The individual is supreme. He has always been so from the moment the nation was founded. To him belongs the credit for having created a new way of life—the American Way—and on him must devolve the responsibility for its perpetuation.

But normal times do not always prevail uninterrupted either with individuals or with nations. From within or from without unexpected events sometimes force us tem-

Birthday Party Held Witch Hazel

WITCH HAZEL—Mrs. E. Berger entertained Saturday afternoon with a birthday party in honor of her son Leroy on his sixth birthday. The little guests present were Marvin and Jimmy Bailey, Kenneth Baumgartner, Tommy Patricia and Margaret Ryan, Viola, Mildred and Clyde Rutledge, Carl Taylor, Joyce Jones and Dale Christensen. Leroy received many nice gifts.

Harvey Crider is ill in a hospital with pneumonia.

The O. O. B. Pouch club surprised Mrs. W. Wicklund at her new home in Multnomah last Tuesday. After a pot-luck lunch, the afternoon was spent in playing pinochle. Gertrude Lancaster received first and Minnie Berger second. Mrs. Wicklund was a former member of the club, until she moved to Multnomah in the early summer.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Berger and Mr. and Mrs. E. Nelson went to Shelton, Wash., over the week-end to visit Mrs. E. Salice, Mrs. Berger's sister.

Harry E. Wojahn of Hillsboro has been enlisted in the Aviation Cadet Training corps, U. S. Army corps, according to word received from Lt. Col. B. H. Henley of Portland, district recruiting officer for the state of Oregon and Western Idaho. Wojahn and 13 other young men from Oregon will leave today for the army's famous Kelly field in Texas to start their training to become pilots in the air service.

Wojahn is well known in Hillsboro where he graduated from high school and then went to Oregon College of Education, where he distinguished himself in many student activities. Upon successful completion of his course of training he will be commissioned a 2nd lieutenant in the Air Corps Reserve and go on active duty with the regular army air corps.

Young men interested in either the aviation cadet training or the regular army may call in person or write to the U. S. Army Recruiting service in room 323 Main Post Office building, Portland, for full information.

Driver License Examiner Coming Here Nov. 19th

A traveling examiner of operators and chauffeurs will be in Hillsboro Wednesday, at the courthouse from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. All those wishing permits or licenses to drive cars are asked to get in touch with the examiner during these hours.

Democracy's Way of Financing Defense

WASHINGTON, D. C.—One hundred and sixty-five years of democracy have made America the richest, the freest, and the most secure country in all impudent and contemptuous challenge to our way of life breaks in on our porarily to change the entire pattern of life. And so it is now with America. Suddenly, from afar, an

Accordingly, the Government has issued a clarification call to American patriotism and efficiency. A great program is rapidly taking form, and billions of dollars are needed at once to implement it. Necessarily, more taxes must be imposed. Taxes are government ally-fixed contributions by the people for the support of the nation. America does not have to—and never will tax its people to the point of confiscation. Bleeding the people white with taxes is a totalitarian presumption. It is not the Democratic way.

(Paid Adv.)

Farmers' Union Opposes Ceiling On Farm Prices

McKINLEY-ELMONICA—The Farmers' Union pot-luck dinner last Tuesday night was a success as to quality and quantity of food. Seventeen members were present to participate. At the business meeting which followed two resolutions were passed, one protesting against the importation of farm products from foreign countries while restrictions are placed on production by American farmers. The other opposed the farm price ceiling bill. Copies of the resolutions were sent to Oregon congressmen and the resolutions will be brought before the County Farm Union at its next meeting. Members of the local are reminded that Cedar Mill local must serve at noon November 29.

Arthur Miller Sells Home—Arthur Miller has sold his place to Otto Bauer and will make his home with his sister, Mrs. Plimpton, in Portland.

Little Sam Lyda cut off the end of his thumb while playing with an axe last Friday.

Bull Run water is being piped

Join Our CUSTOMER DIVIDEND CLUB Save on your purchases at ROCK CREEK TAVERN Refreshments - Gas and Oil 2 miles East of Hillsboro on Highway.

CONCRETE WORK Our Specialty No job too big or too small! Culvert and Sewer Pipe, Building Blocks Sand, Gravel and Cement DRAINAGE, all sizes Hillsboro Concrete Brick & Tile Across Washington Street from Cannery A. F. Kroeger Phone 1341

There's a difference...even among good beers. Try BLITZ-WEINHARD and convince yourself that it is always refreshing—completely satisfying. One bottle does not take the edge off your enjoyment!

With a Midnight Snack...or WHENEVER YOU ENJOY BEER YOU WILL LIKE BLITZ-WEINHARD BEST

GUARANTEED SATISFYING BEER

Distributed by ROYAL SODA WORKS

Democracy's Way of Financing Defense

"Come at once!..." read the wire...but I didn't have enough ready money for the ticket, so I phoned the FIRST NATIONAL BANK. Luckily the boys knew me, for I had financed my car there. The money was waiting for me and I was on my way!

Imaginary Interviews With Famous People:

CONFUCIUS—People give me credit for saying a lot of things. But here's one you can chalk up as real: "Only a rich man can afford to drive without auto insurance—and he wouldn't."

Low Cost Auto Insurance in Reliable Companies

CHAS. L. WALKER AGENT

"Every Form of Protection" Phone 1732 Hillsboro 112 S. 3rd

child in the nation wants to keep it that way.

We are rich, we are free, and we are secure because ours is a government of the people, for the people, and by the people. The individual is supreme. He has always been so from the moment the nation was founded. To him belongs the credit for having created a new way of life—the American Way—and on him must devolve the responsibility for its perpetuation.

But normal times do not always prevail uninterrupted either with individuals or with nations. From within or from without unexpected events sometimes force us tem-

Accordingly, the Government has issued a clarification call to American patriotism and efficiency. A great program is rapidly taking form, and billions of dollars are needed at once to implement it. Necessarily, more taxes must be imposed. Taxes are government ally-fixed contributions by the people for the support of the nation. America does not have to—and never will tax its people to the point of confiscation. Bleeding the people white with taxes is a totalitarian presumption. It is not the Democratic way.

(Paid Adv.)

Democracy's Way of Financing Defense

"Come at once!..." read the wire...but I didn't have enough ready money for the ticket, so I phoned the FIRST NATIONAL BANK. Luckily the boys knew me, for I had financed my car there. The money was waiting for me and I was on my way!

Imaginary Interviews With Famous People:

CONFUCIUS—People give me credit for saying a lot of things. But here's one you can chalk up as real: "Only a rich man can afford to drive without auto insurance—and he wouldn't."

Low Cost Auto Insurance in Reliable Companies

CHAS. L. WALKER AGENT

"Every Form of Protection" Phone 1732 Hillsboro 112 S. 3rd

child in the nation wants to keep it that way.

We are rich, we are free, and we are secure because ours is a government of the people, for the people, and by the people. The individual is supreme. He has always been so from the moment the nation was founded. To him belongs the credit for having created a new way of life—the American Way—and on him must devolve the responsibility for its perpetuation.

But normal times do not always prevail uninterrupted either with individuals or with nations. From within or from without unexpected events sometimes force us tem-

Accordingly, the Government has issued a clarification call to American patriotism and efficiency. A great program is rapidly taking form, and billions of dollars are needed at once to implement it. Necessarily, more taxes must be imposed. Taxes are government ally-fixed contributions by the people for the support of the nation. America does not have to—and never will tax its people to the point of confiscation. Bleeding the people white with taxes is a totalitarian presumption. It is not the Democratic way.

(Paid Adv.)

Democracy's Way of Financing Defense

"Come at once!..." read the wire...but I didn't have enough ready money for the ticket, so I phoned the FIRST NATIONAL BANK. Luckily the boys knew me, for I had financed my car there. The money was waiting for me and I was on my way!

Imaginary Interviews With Famous People:

CONFUCIUS—People give me credit for saying a lot of things. But here's one you can chalk up as real: "Only a rich man can afford to drive without auto insurance—and he wouldn't."

Low Cost Auto Insurance in Reliable Companies

CHAS. L. WALKER AGENT

"Every Form of Protection" Phone 1732 Hillsboro 112 S. 3rd

child in the nation wants to keep it that way.

We are rich, we are free, and we are secure because ours is a government of the people, for the people, and by the people. The individual is supreme. He has always been so from the moment the nation was founded. To him belongs the credit for having created a new way of life—the American Way—and on him must devolve the responsibility for its perpetuation.

But normal times do not always prevail uninterrupted either with individuals or with nations. From within or from without unexpected events sometimes force us tem-

Accordingly, the Government has issued a clarification call to American patriotism and efficiency. A great program is rapidly taking form, and billions of dollars are needed at once to implement it. Necessarily, more taxes must be imposed. Taxes are government ally-fixed contributions by the people for the support of the nation. America does not have to—and never will tax its people to the point of confiscation. Bleeding the people white with taxes is a totalitarian presumption. It is not the Democratic way.

(Paid Adv.)

Mrs. Hanley Named Red Cross Chairman

LEISYVILLE—Mrs. Lillie Hanley is Red Cross chairman for this community. John Hanley of Berkeley, Cal., spent several days with relatives and friends here last week.

to the Barnes school and the Wilson home back of the school.

Mrs. A. R. Gould returned home last Wednesday from Good Samaritan hospital in Portland, where she has been a surgical patient. Elizabeth Allenbach is staying with her.

Richard and Bill Moshofsky, Bud Leiman and Eldon Jernie spent the week-end and Armistice Day with home folks. Richard, who is in company A of the R. O. T. C. was in the parade in Portland. Bill is in company G.

Edward Moshofsky, who received an injury to his knee in football, expected to be back in the Complete Satisfaction in Every Bottle!

There's a difference...even among good beers. Try BLITZ-WEINHARD and convince yourself that it is always refreshing—completely satisfying. One bottle does not take the edge off your enjoyment!

With a Midnight Snack...or WHENEVER YOU ENJOY BEER YOU WILL LIKE BLITZ-WEINHARD BEST

GUARANTEED SATISFYING BEER

Distributed by ROYAL SODA WORKS

Democracy's Way of Financing Defense

"Come at once!..." read the wire...but I didn't have enough ready money for the ticket, so I phoned the FIRST NATIONAL BANK. Luckily the boys knew me, for I had financed my car there. The money was waiting for me and I was on my way!

Imaginary Interviews With Famous People:

CONFUCIUS—People give me credit for saying a lot of things. But here's one you can chalk up as real: "Only a rich man can afford to drive without auto insurance—and he wouldn't."

Low Cost Auto Insurance in Reliable Companies

CHAS. L. WALKER AGENT

"Every Form of Protection" Phone 1732 Hillsboro 112 S. 3rd

child in the nation wants to keep it that way.

We are rich, we are free, and we are secure because ours is a government of the people, for the people, and by the people. The individual is supreme. He has always been so from the moment the nation was founded. To him belongs the credit for having created a new way of life—the American Way—and on him must devolve the responsibility for its perpetuation.

But normal times do not always prevail uninterrupted either with individuals or with nations. From within or from without unexpected events sometimes force us tem-

Accordingly, the Government has issued a clarification call to American patriotism and efficiency. A great program is rapidly taking form, and billions of dollars are needed at once to implement it. Necessarily, more taxes must be imposed. Taxes are government ally-fixed contributions by the people for the support of the nation. America does not have to—and never will tax its people to the point of confiscation. Bleeding the people white with taxes is a totalitarian presumption. It is not the Democratic way.

(Paid Adv.)

Democracy's Way of Financing Defense

"Come at once!..." read the wire...but I didn't have enough ready money for the ticket, so I phoned the FIRST NATIONAL BANK. Luckily the boys knew me, for I had financed my car there. The money was waiting for me and I was on my way!

Imaginary Interviews With Famous People:

CONFUCIUS—People give me credit for saying a lot of things. But here's one you can chalk up as real: "Only a rich man can afford to drive without auto insurance—and he wouldn't."

Low Cost Auto Insurance in Reliable Companies

CHAS. L. WALKER AGENT