

On January 1, 1923, a building now housing Fred's Superior meat market, J. L. Anderson, jeweler, and the White Shoppe on East Main street in Hillsboro staged a formal opening under ownership of E. J. McAlear, local attorney. It was built on the site of the old livery stable. Emmott brothers' meat market and T. C. Reynolds' grocery were first occupants of the building, which is still owned by McAlear. Emmott brothers sold out to Fred Amacher, who has run his meat shop there since in March, 1931. Reynolds sold out to Vern Curry, who in turn sold out to Columbia Foods, a tenant until the end of 1940 . . . News then . . . Remember when?

THANKSGIVING VALUES

GIVE IT OR KEEP IT BUT CERTAINLY GET IT

Colonial homes are complemented by Fostoria's "American" crystal. Modern homes like it, too. And gift lists minus "American" seem neglected.

For "American" is an authentic reproduction of that traditional design which marked the cozy simplicity of early New England life. Indeed, no crystal pattern is more exquisitely beautiful or so moderately priced . . . none with a more romantic past or such a brilliant future.

We have unnumbered "American" pieces for your selection. Some of these are as little as 50c each. Or a complete dinner service is available, perfectly satisfactory for serving all kinds of hot foods and drinks.

We invite you to see our Fostoria Displays
