

P-T. A. to Meet Friday; Mrs. Hinck Chairman

ROSEDALE—P-T. A. will meet Friday, November 17, at the school. Mrs. Layton Watts will preside. Committee in charge of the kitchen and refreshments includes Mrs. Layton Watts and Mrs. Homer Churchley.

The First Aid class is studying artificial respiration this week. Mrs. Henry Hinck has the chairmanship for the American Red Cross for this district. She expects to call on the people of the community next week.

Pupils of the sixth grade entertained their mothers Monday afternoon with a dramatization of history and the interesting events of George Washington's time. The program was as follows: Lew Franks was master of ceremonies and dramatized "The Ride of Paul Revere and the Minute Men"; Mervel Schlessler, "Ring of the Liberty Bell"; Billie Sorenson, "Signing the Declaration of Independence"; Hilda Leopold, "The Thirteen Colonies"; Elmer Watts, "The Boston Tea Party." All pupils told in their own words a story pertaining to each incident dramatized. The Virginia Reel, new during that era, was danced by Hilda Leopold, Carol Courtney, Deloris Hohnstein, Mary Watts, Mervel Schlessler, Billie Sorenson, Henry Hinck, Lew Franks, Elmer Watts. Mrs. Whitford accompanied the youngsters on the piano. After the entertainment the mothers were invited to the kitchen where a "Boston Tea Party" was given. They were served dainty refreshments and tea. Mothers present were Mesdames Hinck, Wilson, Schlessler, Sorenson, Courtney, Franks, Watts, and the teacher Mrs. Whitford. The tea was planned and served by the youngsters.

Mrs. W. M. Courtney entertained the wives of several Mantiel club members Monday evening at her home. Later in the evening the men joined the party. Cards were the diversion, four tables being in play.

Forty people attended the card party at the school sponsored by the P-T. A. High scores in pinocle were won by Mrs. William Courtney and Henry Chapman. Low score was held by Mrs. Knowlton and Henry Hinck. Honors in "500" went to Mrs. Henry Hinck and Eddie Bogs and low to Mrs. Jake Schlessler and Lloyd Franks. High score for rummy was won by Joe Sontoro and low to Oscar Nelson. Mrs. Homer Churchley, Mrs. Hinck and Mrs. J. Churchley had charge of the kitchen and refreshments.

Frank Setniker is spending a few days at his home here. He is employed at The Dalles.

St. Mary's Home

Four of St. Mary's Boy Scouts acted as ushers at the football game between U. of O. and Santa Clara, Cal., Tuesday at Multnomah stadium.

Gerald Fahey, coach, has his squads out for basketball practice in earnest every Wednesday evening. A full schedule ahead is promised for the season.

The first number of the Weekly Wailer is out, a weekly mail denoting joy of the staff of St. Mary's boys.

Mr. Bentley of St. Mary's Catholic Cathedral, Portland, is drilling the boys here four times a week for the musical part of the forthcoming Christmas program.

It has been a custom at St. Mary's for many years to spread a chicken dinner on Thanksgiving. This is made possible by the generosity of our Tualatin Valley friends who thoughtfully fatten up their chickens to make a presentable appearance on our long tables. In the hope that this time-honored custom may continue to be observed this Thanksgiving, we might give our telephone number as Beaver-ton 3654.

St. Mary's students and faculty tender deep sympathy to Robert McDermott, a freshman, who recently lost his mother by death.

The Thanksgiving holidays begin Thursday morning, November 20, the boys to be back on the following Sunday evening.

Strong Spartan Five This Year Expected

"State Tournament or Bust" will be the battle cry of the 1941-42 edition of Coach Reece "Hap" Hathorn, Spartan basketball team. Pointing toward a year slated to go down in Hilhi hoop annals as one of its greatest, Hathorn began practice sessions more than a month ago.

Nat green or untried team will be the Spartans this year for they will boast seasoned men in every department. Leading the list of stalwarts from last year's powerful aggregation will be Bill Ziegler, high scoring, sharp shooting forward. Other holdovers are: Yash Inahara, Dick Crockett, Art Lundin, and Cle Fry, all of whom saw plenty of action last year. Art James, 6 foot 4 inch, transfer from Havre, Montana, has been showing up well in practice and promises to be a worthy addition to the squad. The remainder of the team of ten men will be rounded out from members of last year's strong B squad. Leading these will be diminutive, dead-eyed Don "Nelly" Nelson.

Apparently believing in the old adage, "The bigger they come the harder they fall," Coach Hathorn has scheduled as the first of a series of post season games, a game with Astoria to be played three or four days after the season from down lower Columbia way won the state tournament last year and are considered one of the strongest high school case teams in Oregon. They are coached by Walter Fulmberg, former Oregon State star.

Several other tough pre-season games are being scheduled and will give the Spartans plenty of experience before their regular T. V. schedule begins in January.

Bud Person Taking Pictures for Annual

Bud Person, former Hilhi student, is now busy at the school taking informal pictures of students and teachers to be used in this year's annual.

Senior salesmen for the annual this year are: Sadie Toile, Don Nelson, Arlene Lentz, Max Snyder and Marene Kjelmyer.

Play Selected by Walther Leaguers

SCHIFFLIN—Zion Walther League met in the parish hall Monday evening. Rev. O. J. Wendling led the devotion and also conducted the topic entitled "Living in the Church—Your Schools." Alberta Petersen reported that upon the arrival of Wheatridge seals each member would receive some to sell. Anna Schwanke chairman of the periodical campaign urged the salesmen to conclude their sales by next month so awards could be made for their work.

Rudy Berwald reported that the play "Sound Your Horn" had been selected by the committee and preparations are going forward for rehearsals to begin following the Christmas holidays. The members voted to place a Lutheran Hour ad in the Argus. Upon the request of the Lutheran Sunday School a committee of three was appointed by the president to assist with the annual Christmas eve program, put on by the children of the congregation. Those appointed were Emily Kerkman, Alberta Petersen and Anna Schwanke. In order that the members of the society will be able to send cards and gifts to the patients of Wheatridge Sanatorium at Christmas the service chairman will obtain a list of the patients.

A roller skating party will be sponsored by the society within the next week and Rudy Berwald is in charge of arrangements. Refreshments will be served to 26 in attendance by the hosts, Anna Schwanke and Rudy Berwald.

Mrs. Morgan Talks To Commercial Club

About fifty girls, members of the Commercial Club of Hillsboro union high school and advanced short-hand students, enjoyed Mrs. Zola Morgan's talk on "How to Get a Job" given November 6.

Some of the points stressed were: The importance of neatness and cleanliness, being well prepared for that which you want to do. A receptive mind is extremely valuable in any job, she said.

On her way over to the high school Mrs. Morgan asked B. W. Barnes, school superintendent, what he thought the essentials were in applying for a job. His reply was: "Good adjectives and verbs and good English. Be brief, but not too brief when interviewing an employer."
