Couple United in Pretty Ceremony

CEGAR MILL—At a beautiful candlelight service in Beaverton Christian church at 8 o'clock Saturday evening, November 8, Miss Verna Walters, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Walters of Cedar Mill, became the bride of Mr. Kenneth Sundberg of Marshfield, son of Mrs. Viola Sundberg of Hillsboro. Rev. George Springer performed the ceremony before a host of chrysanthemums in the presence of about 300 guests.

Following the ceremony Miss Thelma Meredith of Portland sang "Devotion" and "Because." She was accompanied by Miss Irma Barnes, who also played the wedding music.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white satin with seed pearl trimming and full train. A coronet of seed pearls held her full length veil in place and she carried a bouquet of pink rosebuds, gardenias, fuchsia, and Humboldt bouvardia.

Mrs. William Sundberg, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, Mrs. Donald Birch, Evelyn and Barbara Walters, three sisters of the bride, who in bridesmaids, all wore blue and rose taffeta gowns and carried large, white chrysanthemums.

Mr. William Sundberg, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were Arthur Pearson, Donald Birch and Edmund Burton.

A reception was held in the church basement dining room and the wedding cake was cut by Mrs. Otto Hartung of Hillsboro, and Mrs. J. Burton of Silverton, aunt of the bride. The bride and groom were escorted by Mrs. E. F. Swaney of Hillsboro, Mrs. Elizabeth Sammons of Neotoma, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Walters, Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Walters, P. Miss Bernard and Mr. Berry Marry

McKINLEY ELMONICA—At St. Cecilia's Catholic church in Beaverton at 3 p. m. Saturday, November 8, Miss Charlotte V. Bernard, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles V. Bernard, became the bride of George E. Berry of Kansas City, Kan. About 43 guests witnessed the ceremony.

The bride wore a street length blue dress with brown accessories and a corsage of violets and gardenias.

Her sister, Miss Muriel Bernard, was her only attendant, and wore a dusty pink dress with brown accessories. Jack Bernard, brother of the bride, was best man.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. The table centerpiece was a large wedding ring decorated cake in the center of which was a bouquet of small white chrysanthemums and bouvardia. Yellow candles formed the rest of the table decoration.

Mrs. Berry is a graduate of the Portland university school of nursing, and has been in St. Vincent's hospital since her graduation last June.

Mr. Berry is a civil engineer, a graduate of the University of Kansas, and has been employed on the power line between Bonneville and Oregon City.

Miss Elsie Berry, sister of the bridegroom, from Ontario, and Mrs. Gertrude Stickey of Toppish, Wash., were among the out-of-town guests, and Jack Bernard, who is employed at the Boeing plant in Seattle, came home for the wedding.
