

Orenco Responds To Red Cross; Mitchells Move

ORENCO—Mrs. Jack Rogers is the solicitor in Orenco for the Red Cross drive and is enrolling more members than usual.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Rogers left last Thursday for Paso Robles, Cal., to visit their daughter, Doris, now Mrs. M. Keeley, who was married last May in McMinnville. Mr. Keeley is in the regular army.

Meeting Changed

The community club will meet Friday, November 28, instead of November 21.

Harvest Dinner Attracts

Annual harvest dinner was given at the church Friday evening. There were approximately 60 people present.

Mrs. Lehman Hostess

The missionary society met with Mrs. F. Lehman last Wednesday. Plans were made for the annual Thanksgiving service to be held Sunday, November 30, and the Presbyterian work in Thailand (Siam) was revealed.

E. H. Lehman and 12 Boy Scouts went on an overnight fishing trip Friday to Garibaldi.

Son-in-law's Death Sorrow

L. T. Woodward received a telegram the first of last week telling of the sudden death of his son-in-law, Mr. Goff. Mrs. Woodward left Saturday for San Francisco to be with Mrs. Goff's family.

Mrs. S. L. Carlyle and Miss Elizabeth spent the week-end at Forest Grove and the first of the week at Thatcher.

Mrs. Raymond Van Dyke is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Miehoff for a few days.

Serve Hot Lunches

Hot lunches are being served at the school. There is a committee of five women that will see that the cook, Mrs. Clark of Hillsboro, is supplied with the necessary foodstuffs for the daily menu.

Move to Hillsboro

Mr. and Mrs. Ashford Mitchell have moved to Hillsboro, where they will make their home.

Mrs. B. A. Mitchell has remodeled her home and also built a new garage.

In Dairy Business

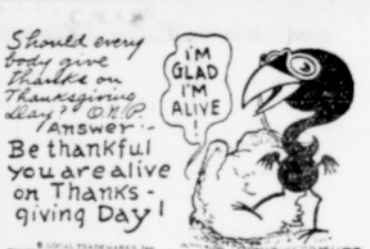

Floyd Karns and son Gail have gone into the dairy business.
